Miss Esther Elford is spending the week in Portland with her brother and attending teachers' institute.

W. H. Congdon went to the Emanuel hospital today for a slight operation. He will be home again in a few days.

The postoffice will be open on Thursday from 8 to 9 in the morning. There will be no carrier service. Lobby will be open all day, as usual.

Judge George W. Stapleton and wife have as guests their daughter, Mrs. J. A. Haley and little son, who arrived Sunday from Nelson, British Columbia, who will remain here until after the holidays.

Curtiss Hendricks, one of our Union high school boys, has won a promotion to first class private, with an increase in salary. Curtiss is a member of Company K, 162 Infantry, and is at Camp Mills, New York.

Attorney Milo C. King made a business trip to The Dalles Saturday returning Tuesday forenoon. The attachment proceedings that he instituted in the circuit court for the Sun Dial ranch included eighty acres of land.

Mrs. Rosena Salamona, wife of John Salamoni, died at her home near Estacada on Saturday last, aged 36 years. Her remains were interred in St. Joseph's cemetery, west of Gresham, yesterday, Rev. Henry Breunagle officiating.

Will Hessel was brought home from the Good Samaritan hospital on Saturday. His injured leg is improving somewhat but it will be fully two months before he will be able to return to his place of business, and considerably longer before he will be entirely well again.

Glen McCormick was able to be down town on Sunday for the first time since his leg was so badly injured in a high school football game several weeks ago. He is walking with crutches but is improving slowly, and it will be several months before he is entirely well again.

Interest in the special evangelistic meetings at the Baptist church is increasing with each service. H. M. Worthen is giving splendid service in the leading of the singing and in special music. The pastor, Rev. A. J. Ware, invites all to come and listen and be inspired to better things.

D. W. Metzger sold his tract of land on Johnson creek, just south of the O. W. P. depot, to E. L. Thorpe and wife last Saturday. The tract contains 3 1/4 acres, upon which the new owners will make their home as soon as they can build a house and get moved which will probably be early in the spring.

Union Thanksgiving services will be held at the Baptist church on Thanksgiving evening, beginning at 7:30 o'clock, which will be participated in by the pastors and congregations of the Baptist, Free Methodist and Methodist Episcopal churches. Rev. J. Montcalm Brown will preside. The program will be largely of music, with short talks by the pastors of the different churches. The music committee is preparing something good. All are invited to come and take part in this service of thankfulness.

It is not the intention of the Food Administration to fix prices for which farmers shall sell their stock. Through the direction of expert purchases of beef and pork products, however, it will use its influence to stabilize meat prices and to support remunerative prices to the farmer.

An Old Man's Stomach.
 As we grow older and less active, less and less food is required to meet the demands of our bodies. If too much is habitually taken, the stomach will rebel. When a man reaches the advanced age of 85 or 90, you will find that he is a light eater. Be as careful as you will, however, you will occasionally eat more than you should and will feel the need of Chamberlain's Tablets to correct the disorder. These tablets do not contain pepsin, but strengthen the stomach and enable it to perform its functions naturally. They also cause a gentle movement of the bowels.

I Believe in the American Soldier.
 1. I believe in the American soldier.
 2. I believe in his ability to represent nineteen others of America and myself in the greatest struggle of all ages.
 3. Whatever may be his fate in the furnace and fury of hell, I shall always believe he did his part with a free heart, hand and mind, and remember that he has gone to a foreign field where liberty has become the highest priced goal in the history of all the world—and where American resources, American brains and the American soldiers are expected to accomplish that which nearly all the peoples of the earth have failed to accomplish, as yet.
 4. I believe, therefore, that I am morally obligated as a free American to do all within my power to make the burden lighter for those who face death and endure privation for me, and to fearlessly face the supreme test of Americans by all the world.

The attendance at the weekly rehearsals of the chorus which is being instructed by Prof. Joseph A. Finley is increasing and an added interest is being taken in the affair by a large number of the singers of this neighborhood. The chorus meets every Wednesday night, at the grade school building, and any who are singers, or would like to be are cordially invited to come. A small sum is charged to the members of the club which goes to pay for the music. Tomorrow, (Wednesday) night, after practice, M. H. Worthen, a singer of wide experience, will give a treat to the members of the chorus in the way of selections from operas and other music. Mr. Worthen is leading the singing at the Bethel Baptist church during the special meetings which are being held there.

Try the following recipe for cookies combining vetch meal with bran or oatmeal.
 Vetch Bran Cookies—Two tablespoons shortening, 5 tablespoons sugar, 1 egg well beaten, cup vetch meal, 1/2 cup bran or oatmeal, 1 cup flour, 1/2 cup water, spices to taste, 1 cup finely cut nuts.
 Mix as you other cookies and drop from spoon on well buttered tin and bake.

The Jitney Balloon.
 By Minna Irving.
 The jitney balloon will be with us right soon,
 And away o'er the clouds we will go,
 It will bear on its sides, the extent of our rides,
 Fifth Avenue, Harlem, Park Row,
 We will soar and career over Gotham's gay scene,
 And will some of us ride on the top,
 With never a thought what a terrible thing
 It would be if we happened to drop.
 Little Bessie and Bob, with their lunches and books,
 To school will go sailing away,
 And Daddy will certainly take it downtown
 To his office and back every day,
 We will float like a bubble without any trouble
 On excursions as high as the moon,
 Independent of rails or a motor that falls—
 All aboard for the Jitney balloon!

Fifty Cents Saved.
 The regular price of the Outlook and Evening Telegram one year is $5.00. During the remainder of this month the combination price at this office will be $4.50. This is on account of the reduced price on the Telegram during November. Send in your order today.

POWELL VALLEY
 A very pleasant evening was spent Saturday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Downing of Powell Valley, when about thirty friends and neighbors gathered at a farewell party. The affair proved a complete surprise and was greatly enjoyed by all. Mr. and Mrs. Downing and son Clarence expect to leave Tuesday for their place in Washington. Many expressions of regret were heard during the evening for both Mr. and Mrs. Downing have been very helpful in working for the Parent-Teacher association and will be greatly missed. After a social evening, coffee and cake were served, which the guests had brought and all left expressing the hope that if Mr. and Mrs. Downing didn't like their new home, they would return to Powell Valley. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Bottleson, Andrew Ryberg, Mrs. Chas. Johnson and children, Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Anderson and children, Mr. and Mrs. Wm Peterson, Mrs. M. Magnuson and son, Mrs. Newman, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gustafson, Arthur Nystrom, Mrs. Alta Gentry and son.
 Last Sunday, a number of the young people of this vicinity spent the afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. August Johnson in their new home near Sandy. At the close of the day delicious refreshments were served. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Johnson and daughters, Nellie, Lillie, Emma and Hilma, John Johnson, Emil Lind, Lewis and Carl Christensen, Hilda Staffanson, Fanny and Edwin Staffanson, Myrtle Anderson, Bert Olson, Ernest and Everett Lundbom, Alex Johnson, Florence Johnson, Lulu and Ruth Nystrom, Martha Hagberg, Hazel Sedig, Hjalmer and Richard Staffanson, Emelle Anderson, Ellen and Ida Unis, Melvina Anderson, Paul and Albert Palmblad, Mary Christensen, Emanuel and Hilma Lind, Walter Unis, Be and Milton Nelson and Mrs. Nelson of Sandy.

 Communion services will be held at the Swedish Lutheran church on Thanksgiving Day beginning at 10:30 a. m. Rev. B. S. Nystrom of Hockinson, Wash., will be present.
 Mrs. H. L. Price and son Harold, spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Emanuel Anderson.

An Example.
 "A mule," said Uncle Eben, "should be a warnin' against kickin'. De better he does it, de more unpopular he gets."

Every Parke sez: "Some men seem 't take it for granted that the gears of business and religion won't mesh."

Ham Chandler sez: "Th' man who can hold his tongue holds a trump card."

Certain Cure for Croup.
 Mrs. Rose Middleton, of Greenville, Ill., has had experience in the treatment of this disease. She says, "When my children were small my son had croup frequently. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy always broke up these attacks immediately, and I was never without it in the house. I have taken it myself for coughs and colds with good results."
