I Believe in the American Soldier.

1. I believe in the American soldier.

2. I believe in his ability to represent nineteen others of America and myself in the greatest struggle of all ages.

3. Whatever may be his fate in the furnace and fury of hell, I shall always believe he did his part with a free heart, hand and mind, and remember that he has gone to a foreign field where liberty has become the highest priced goal in the history of all the world—and where American resources, American brains and the American soldiers are expected to accomplish that which nearly all the peoples of the earth have failed to accomplish, as yet.

4. I believe, therefore, that I am morally obligated as a free American to do all within my power to make the burden lighter for those who face death and endure privation for me, and to fearlessly face the supreme test of Americans by all the world.

AMERICA SPEAKS.

Ye sons of Freedom, bring to me
With flaming hearts and bended knee
Your offering to Liberty!

Ye are sons; my bounteous breast
Hath nourished you, and on you prest
Its richest gifts; nor sought I rest.

Gaze now upon thy golden fields;
Mark how the earth its fruitage yields
Beneath the star-strewn flag that shields.

Behold thy cities, proud and strong;
Behold thy homes, where evensong
Ascends to heaven, free from wrong.

My noble sons; awake! arise!
Behold sad Europe's smoking skies;
Gird ye my limbs ere Freedom dies.

Think now of Belgium's fields of red;
Behold where stricken France hath bled;
Remember Lusitania's dead.

My sons! My sons! your hearts I know;
Bring, then, thy gifts and let me go
With blazing sword, to meet the foe.
—William T. Perkins.

M. E. SUNDAY SCHOOL TO CHANGE LESSONS

By C. M. HARRISON.

The school learned from its Sunday lesson, that Nehemiah believed in keeping the religious and moral concerns of Jerusalem and Israel at a high standard.

Anxious hearts are awaiting next Sunday's Christmas lesson, Christmas entertainment given Monday evening, and holiday season with its brightness, spirit of good will and cheerful activities. Do not fail to bring your gift offerings to be made by each class, next Sunday morning. This offering is to help relieve little boys and girls, men and women, starving, over in Palestine, the birthplace of our Savior.

With a feeling of reluctance and regret the school will leave the study of Nehemiah for the present and will soon enter into the study of the improved uniform lessons for 1918. The lessons for the first six months will be studies in St. Mark, entitled, "The Gospel of the Son of God." By 1918 the school wants its membership increased to 150. It has fifteen organized classes, taught by as many earnest, capable teachers—a class to suit the needs and conditions of anyone who is looking for a Sunday school, full of spiritual, intellectual, social and musical entertainment and splendid enthusiasm. A hearty welcome awaits you. Will you come?

What a worthy ambition had Nehemiah. God saw the splendid desire of his heart and to him was given the honor of restoring the desolated city of his ancestors and the pure, true, worship of God. Now the fate of our Sunday schools and churches and social life, hangs on the initiative of our present young Nehemiahs in our Sunday schools. Will we accept the challenge?

The men's Bible class in its inferences and conclusions as to the cause of the moral weakness and failure of Jerusalem and Israel, decided that the trouble was due to a laxity in keeping the Sabbath Law, and that for our present social civilization to escape like evil and reverses, the churches, christians and moral forces of our community, need continual reinforcement and revitalizing by strict Sabbath observance, rededication and reconsecration.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS BY GRESHAM GRANGE

Gresham grange No. 270 met in all-day session Saturday, December 8th and after the business affairs were disposed of. Rev. A. E. Leonard was initiated in the third and fourth degrees. The usual grange dinner wes served, after which followed the lecture hours when the following program was rendered:

Song by the grange; instrumental solo, Miss Gladys Neal; reading, "Declaration of Purposes," H. W. Snashall; vocal solo, Mr. Worthan; Talk on Good Citizenship, Judge W. H. Morrow; vocal solo, Glenn Rusher; Talk on Patriotism, Rev. Mr. Leonard. Each number was heartily encored and appreciated.

During the business session the following officers were elected for the coming year:

Master, E. E. Welling; overseer, Mrs. J. R. Cavanagh; lecturer, Mrs. M. Kronenberg; steward, Mrs. D. Metzger; assistant steward, George Honey; chaplain, George Leslie; secretary, Effie Hodge; gatekeeper, J. R. Cavanagh; Ceres, Alberta Allen; Pomona, Mrs. M. Clanahan; Flora, Mrs. Clifford Kern; lady assistant steward, Mrs. E. E. Welling.

HEAVY RAIN STORM CAUSE OF DAMAGE

Severe rainstorms for the past two days are doing small damags, but so far nothing of a serious nature has been reported beyond flooding of gardens and the uprooting of trees by the accompanying winds. Johnson creek has overflowed its banks and is running like a small river. That condition is an every-winter occurence and does no damage, as it is looked for.

A few awnings and porches have been damaged by the wind. An awning at the Bank of Gresham was blown from its fastenings yesterday and torn to shreds. The heavy iron supports narrowly missed the plate glass windows.

The awning over the postoffice front came down with a crash last night, breaking one of the windows. The hole was boarded up this morning so as to keep the storm out until a new glass can be placed where the old one was.

Numerous leaks have shown themselves in roofs and around windows and doors that were thought water tight. A bad leak of this kind showed itself in the Congdon hotel, the water penetrating the bank lobby to some extent.

This is not only one of the best and most efficient medicine for coughs, colds and croup, but is also pleasant and safe to take, which is important when medicine must be given to children. Many mothers have given it their unqualified endorsement.—Adv.
