Mountain Meadow Butter

Manufactured by

SANDY CREAMERY CO.

The name "Mount Hood Butter" has heretofore been used by permission of the Mount Hood Ice Cream Co., which has all its dairy products registered under that title. That permission has ceased, hence the change of name, which became effective on January 1. "Mountain Meadow Butter" will be found at all the Leading stores in the county. Ask for it.

SANDY BLUFF

Miss Carrie Andrews returned one day last week from the hospital in Portland. She is getting along nicely.

Mrs. A. J. Ault and Mrs. Joe Caldo attended the Red Cross meeting, at the home of Mrs. M. Lennartz of Pleasant Home, on Friday.

Mrs. Elsie Radford visited over Saturday in Linnton with her sister, Mrs. Dora Matthews.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Ault entertained about twenty-four of their neighbors and friends on Saturday evening, dancing being the feature. A good time was enjoyed by all.

Jesse Radford, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Radford, underwent another operation on Friday. It is to be hoped he will make a speedy recovery, as this makes the third operation in the past three months.

Save a loaf of bread a week. Help win the war.

FAIRVIEW

The city has improved First street and Depot street with a coat of crushed rock and gravel.

Mrs. Alma Hall, a former resident of this place, has moved back to her old home here, now owned by Mr. Davis. Mrs. Hall has spent the past year at Prineville, Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Dunbar of Rio Vista, California, spent Sunday here with Mr. Dunbar's parents. Mr. Dunbar will reside at Oregon City, where he will take charge of a large dry goods store.

Mrs. J. Davis of Brownsville, Oregon, visited with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. D. Dunbar, Saturday.

Mrs. Julia Snover entertained the Women's society of the Presbyterian church on Thursday afternoon.

Don't forget the Red Cross unit every Tuesday afternoon. The work is progressing finely and finished work is being sent in right along.

Alvin Copeland has moved his family into the Ashcraft house. Mr. Copeland has taken Mr. Benecke's place in the Sun Dial mill. Mr. Benecke and family have gone to San Diego to spend a few months.

The Parent-Teacher association will meet at the schoolhouse on Friday afternoon, January 25, at 2:30. An interesting program is being prepared, to which all patrons and friends of the school are invited.

Are Your Sewers Clogged?

The bowels are the sewerage system of the body. You can well imagine the result when they are stopped up as is the case in constipation. As a purgative you will find Chamberlain's Tablets excellent. They are mild and gentle in their action. They also improve the digestion.—Adv.

Weather Report, Beginning Jan. 20.

Pacific Coast States: Some probability of rain Sunday in southern California and occasionally after Monday on north coast; otherwise fair. No decided temperature changes.

Prefers Chamberlain's.

"In the course of a conversation with Chamberlain Medicine Co.'s representative today, we had occasion to discuss in a general way the merits of their different preparations. At his suggestion I take pleasure in expressing my estimation of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I have a family of six children and have used this remedy in my home for years. I consider it the only cough remedy on the market, as I have tried nearly all kinds."—Earl C. Ross, publisher Hamilton County Republican-News, Syracuse, Kansas.—Adv.

TROUTDALE

The Red Cross work room was a very busy place last Friday. New recruits of efficient workers on both the knitting and sewing, are coming in. Next week there will be an all-day meeting. Each one coming is requested to bring sandwiches for one, and some one article besides for the frugal nooday lunch. The regular business meeting will be held in the afternoon.

There were eleven ladies in attendance at the social hour at the library last Thursday. Miss Nelly Fox from the central library entertained, with stories and reading about the war. Tea was served by Mrs. A. Fox and Mrs. John Larson.

A family dinner at Vancouver at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Robinson included the following persons from Troutdale: Mr. and Mrs. N. S. Parsons and children, Olive Wilson, and Clarence Parsons.

Miss Lulu Mickle, the efficient and obliging operator for the Pacific States telephone at Troutdale, resigned the first of the year, and Mrs. Will Wright will manage the exchange is being moved over to the Wright store.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Knarr spent Sunday in Troutdale attending to affairs at their home, and visiting friends. From them we learn that Richard is now with the merchant ship Housatonic, stationed on the Atlantic coast.

Mr. Carlson, for several years agent at Troutdale, on the P. R. L. & P. line, has been transferred to the Montavilla station, leaving no one in the station here.

Mr. and Mrs. N. P. Wallace returned last week from eastern Oregon to their home in Troutdale.

There will be church services next Sunday evening, and regularly every Sunday evening until further announcement.

HILLSVIEW

The entertainment given by the Hillsview school Friday evening was well attended and very much enjoyed by all. Mr. Vedder, the Clackamas county supervisor, gave a very interesting talk on school.

Samuel Schwartz is working at the greenhouse and will attend high school.

Miss Meuller returned to her home at Montavilla after visiting for some time with her sister, Mrs. A. E. Forsythe.

Miss Heacock was ill with a cold and not able to teach her school on Monday and Tuesday.

It is reported that the greenhouse with the two acres of land on the Winch ranch have been sold for $7000 to a Mr. Holden of Portland. Mr. Holden will continue to hire a man to run the greenhouse.

The farm formerly owned by C. E. Cleveland has been rented to some Japs.

Pete Johnson has returned to the logging camp.

PLEASANT HOME

A surprise party was given on Miss Ruth Ickler Saturday evening. A large crowd attended and the evening was spent in playing games and eating popcorn.

Dorothy Caddy, Charlie McCreary and Harry Cooley spent Sunday afternoon with Gertrude and Ruth Ickler.

Rev. A. J. Ware will hold revival meetings beginning Monday, January 21st, at the Baptist church. Every one cordially invited.

Soon Over His Cold.

Everyone speaks well of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, after having used it. Mrs. George Lewis, Pittsfield, N. Y., has this to say regarding it: "Last winter my little boy, five years old, was sick with a cold for two or three weeks. I doctored him and used various cough medicines but nothing did him much good until I began using Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. He then improved rapidly and in a few days was over his cold."—Adv.
