LUSTED

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Hamilton and family and Mrs. Harris Hamilton attended a reception last Saturday evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Cook on their 29th wedding anniversary and also Mrs. Edith White-side's 46th birthday. The reception was given at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hamilton, Sr., of Montavilla. About 25 relatives were there. A lunch was served about 8 o'clock, and the rest of the evening was taken up in a song service led by Rev. C. L. Hamilton.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Duke and brother, Kirk Wheeler, visited at the home of the latter's brother, Mr. and Mrs. John Wheeler last Sunday. Quite a number of the farmers here attended the dairymen's league in Portland last Wednesday.

Ross Hamilton, recently from California, now living in Montavilla, was the guest of his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Hamilton last Sunday.

When You Have a Cold.

It is when you have a severe cold that you appreciate the good qualities of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Mrs. Frank Crocker, Pana, Ill., writes: "Our five-year-old son Paul caught a severe cold last winter that settled on his lungs and he had terrible coughing spells. We were greatly worried about him as the medicine we gave him did not help him in the least. A neighbor spoke so highly of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy that I got a bottle of it. The first dose benefited him so much that I continued giving it to him until he was cured." —Adv.

ROCKWOOD

Mrs. Florence Chambers, the state deputy of the W. B. A., visited Charity Hive No. 38 on last Saturday. A very interesting meeting was held.

The Red Cross auxiliary met on Wednesday afternoon. Quite a number of members were present and much sewing was completed. Miss Parrington held the honor of completing the first sweater and Mrs. Rowan the first pair of socks.

Robert Burgess of this place has been put into class 1 and Leonard Platt into class 3.

Mrs. Fensk of this place, died on last Wednesday and was buried on Saturday. She was a member of the Adventist church.

Miss Mildred King of the Rockwood school carried off the honor of tieing for first place in the seventh grade spelling contest in Multnomah county outside the city of Portland, and Rockwood wouldn't be afraid to put her up against the Portland schools. The pupils of Rockwood school are justly proud of Miss Mildred.

Mrs. O. J. Brown received a letter from her son Emerson, saying he was sailing for France.

Mr. and Mrs. John Richmond and son Earl took dinner on last Sunday with their daughter, Mrs. O'Banion of St. Johns.

There will be a meeting at the schoolhouse on Friday evening the 8th. A lady from Portland will be the speaker of the evening. The ladies of the Red Cross will serve lunch to raise money for their expenses in getting our supplies from Portland. A good attendance is desired.

KELSO

Our school is planning to give an entertainment on the evening of Feb. 22. Watch for further announcements.

There was an interesting debate at the Kelso Parent-Teacher meeting last Friday. There will be another debate at the Parent-Teacher meeting Friday evening, Feb. 15 on the question, "Resolved that the United States should adopt universal training."

Kelso Red Cross memberships are still coming in and now total $61.00. Our local auxiliary is growing and now numbers over twenty members. At the meeting last Thursday, fifteen were present. We are now finishing up one dozen pairs of pajamas and one dozen hospital shirts, besides making comfort pillows, hemming dish-towels and other minor work from donated pieces.

A family by the name of Roszky, from Portland, has purchased from John Strauss the place recently vacated by Mrs. Francis. The place includes 40 acres.

Christy & Wilson, who are logging for Kollun & Johnson, recently bought a gasoline drag-saw from Robert Jonsrud.

Eunice Jonsrud accompanied by cousins, Sibyl and Alice Lindell of Portland, spent the week-end at her home here.

SANDY BLUFF

Clarence Browning visited home folks as he was on his way to Oregon City for examination for the draft.

A. C. Browning has gone to Aurora to do some clearing for his sister.

Mr. Wilson and daughter Zelda, visited a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Caldo and Wm. Fallows. Zelda is Mr. Fallow's granddaughter.

Johnny Koek, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hans Koek, is at home after several years spent in the east.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Carrell called on Mrs. A. J. Ault on Tuesday.

Mrs. Laura Barnes was a Portland visitor one day last week.

A good attendance was given the Parent-Teachers' meeting at Cottrell schoolhouse on Friday, January 26. Mr. Good of Gresham high school explained the thrift stamps and war stamps and Judge Geo. W. Stapleton also addressed the people on thrift and the school gave two very nice patriotic songs. After the program a basket-ball game was played between the boys and girls of the school. The game was in favor of the girls.
