A Hint to the Aged.

If people past sixty years of age could be persuaded to go to bed as soon as they take cold and remain in bed for one or two days, they would recover much more quickly, especially if they take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. There would also be less danger of the cold being followed by any of the more serious diseases.—Adv.

POWELL VALLEY

Rev. Mr. Truedson, pastor of the Lutheran church, will preach Wednesday evening at 7:45 p. m. at the church. Sunday evening services will be held at the same hour and will be in charge of S. M. Staffenson.

At the young people's meeting Sunday evening an excellent program was rendered. The Misses Hilda Staffenson, Emelie Anderson, and Florence Johnson were appointed as a committee to purchase a carpet for the church aisles.

The farewell sermon by Rev. Mr. Carlson which was to have been held next Sunday evening at the Mission church has been indefinitely postponed.

The Powell Valley Red Cross meets at the schoolhouse every Tuesday afternoon. It is desired that as many as possible attend and bring scissors and rags for snipping as the usual hand work cannot be obtained for a few weeks. Those having yarn or socks in the process of making should finish them as soon as possible. They should have been returned before now. If directions for making toe are not clearly understood take striches off on a thread and they will be finished by the Portland Chapter.

Powell Valley school will be closed today on account of the death of Miss Alderson, daughter of County School Superintendent Alderson. A number of Powell Valley parents and the teachers will attend the funeral services.

The Sunday afternoon service for men, at the Mission church, was well attended. Rev. Mr. Carlson, the evangelist, was the speaker and gave an interesting address.

The meeting of the Parent-Teachers association has been postponed until Saturday evening when it is planned to have a snipping party. Everyone is requested to bring some clean rags if possible and a pair of scissors. A short program is being planned and refreshments will be served. The proceeds from the lunch, which will be served by the ladies of the Red Cross auxiliary, will be used for the purpose of buying thread and paying the incidental expenses.

Rev. Train, of Seattle, preached at the Mission church Monday evening. There was a good attendance. Tuesday and Friday evening of this week he will preach in Swedish. Thursday evening services will be in English. Everyone is invited to these services which commence at 7:30 p. m.

SANDY BLUFF

The Parent-Teacher association will hold its regular meeting in Cottrell schoolhouse Friday, February 22. All patrons are requested to be present, as there are several matters of importance to be brought up. The pupils of the school will present a program in honor of Washington's birthday.

A. J. Ault was home several days of last week on account of so much snow in the mountains, but returned to his work Sunday.

Everett Browning, who has been working at the Bridal Veil box factory, is home for a few days, not very well.

At last reports, Jesse Radford was getting along nicely. After all his operations, he has had the measles.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Caldo and Mr. and Mrs. Alonzo Radford gave a surprise dinner on Friday, the 15th, in honor of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Caldo, whose thirty-fifth wedding anniversary it was.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Carrell and son Willard and daughter Violet, of Powell Valley, spent Saturday evening with Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Ault and family.

ANDREW OLSON DIES AT ANDERSON STATION

Andrew Olson was born in Dalarna, Sweden, about the year 1843; he died at the home of Mrs. Sophia Stone, near Anderson station February 14, 1918. When but a young man twenty-one years of age he came to America and settled in New York, feeling that the six months' voyage required in those days was all the traveling he wished to do at one time. Later he came to Portland where he was employed in a door factory. When the Swedish Baptist church was organized in Portland nearly 40 years ago, he was one of the first members. Only two of the charter members survive him, they are Mr. and Mrs. John Palmblad of Powell Valley.

For twenty years he was janitor of the church, performing his duties faithfully, giving freely of his services, and contributing as liberally as possible from his income. At the building of the new Swedish Baptist church in Portland he gave a large sum from his savings for the work. About twenty years ago he left Portland and settled in the neighborhood of Anderson station. Among his last messages was the word to the pastor of the Portland church that he was happy because of the work being done in Haley in the recent revival meetings saying, "God has come to Haley."

A few months ago he became practically helpless and Mrs. Stone has been caring for him since that time.

His death came Thursday morning quietly and without pain and he entered into the kingdom where he has stored up many treasures for his life eternal.

Many friends both from the Haley Baptist church and from the Swedish Baptist church of Portland gathered to do honor to his memory. Expressions of praise were heard on every side, of the life of the deceased who was so truly a worker in the vineyard of his Master. Although several brothers and a sister survive him, there were no relatives at the funeral, all residing at a distance.

Funeral services were conducted by Rev. Mr. Johnson, pastor of the Damascus church, who gave a fine address. Rev. Mr. Schlyander, pastor of the Portland church, brought greetings from that congregation and told of his acquaintance with the deceased. Rev. August Olson, missionary, and Rev. Mr. Carlson, evangelist, spoke briefly. Rev. Mr. Lindholm, of Portland, was also present. Many friends followed the remains to their last resting place in the Pleasant Home cemetery.

BORING

Wm. A. Morand, who was taken suddenly ill last week, was taken to the St. Vincent hospital last Saturday evening by Dr. Adix of Estacada, in a serious condition. He was operated on for appendicitis. At last reports he was doing well. Mrs. Morand is with him.

Mrs. L. S. Dinsmore of Sheridan, Oregon, spent Wednesday and Thursday at the home of her sister Mrs. J. C. Shultz, and had the privilege of enjoying the concert given by Mr. J. A. Finley.

Wilber Potter of Ashland, Oregon, and Fay Potter, of Ft. Warden, were called home last week by the serious illness of their father who suffered a stroke of paralysis about two weeks ago. Mr. Potter is reported to be slowly improving at this time.

Mr. Good, of Gresham, addressed an appreciative audience last Saturday evening at the Odd Fellow's hall on thrift stamps and war savings stamps. Boring expects to raise her quota by the allotted time, $2000 worth of stamps have been taken through the postoffice, at this time. The committee appointed to handle this campaign consist of O. W. Boring, L. H. Mailleat and Mrs. J. C. Shultz. C. G. Schneider was also present and gave a short talk.

The Parent-Teacher meeting will be held at the Odd Fellows hall on February 22d. A good program will be given by the school. Important business will be transacted. Everyone come.

Boring auxiliary No. 3 of the American Red Cross will give a chicken dinner at the Odd Fellows hall on February 23 from 7 to 9 p. m., at 50 cents a plate. Good cooks in Boring. Better come and help a good cause along. There will be a splendid program of music.

Miss Edith Nass, of The Dalles, is visiting home folks for two weeks.

Mrs. Geo. Tacheron, of Gresham, spent Saturday and Sunday with her daughter, Mrs. O. W. Boring.
