When You Have a Cold.

It is when you have a severe cold that you appreciate the good qualities of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Mrs. Frank Crocker, Pana, Ill., writes: "Our five-year-old son Paul caught a severe cold last winter that settled on his lungs and he had terrible coughing spells. We were greatly worried about him as the medicine we gave him did not help him in the least. A neighbor spoke so highly of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy that I got a bottle of it. The first dose benefited him so much that I continued giving it to him until he was cured."

PLEASANT HOME

A fire, which started about 11 o'clock Sunday night, completely destroyed the home of Mrs. Ella Ryman with all the contents. Mrs. Ryman had gone to Portland and there was no fire in the house. The cause of the fire is unknown.

Insurance was carried on the household goods in the Oregon Fire Relief, which is one of the companies for which John Brown is agent. The house was a rented one and it is not known if it was insured. The house is known as the old Giles Stephens place.

The social and entertainment was held Friday evening at the Baptist church and was very successful. A home talent program was much enjoyed by the audience. A very pleasing feature was violin selections by Miss Gowlin of Portland. The musical program was in charge of Miss Hilda Beyer, assisted by Miss Dada Bettis. Over $20 was received which will be used in Red Cross work.

A very pleasant birthday surprise party was given on Miss Gertrude Ickler Saturday evening, Feb. 16.

The Beyer brothers, who have been visiting home folks for a few days, have returned to Bremerton navy yards.

The Red Cross will meet with Mrs. M. Lennartz all day Friday, Feb. 22.

FAIRVIEW

The monthly missionary meeting of the Presbyterian church will be held next Sunday evening at 7:30 o'clock. The subject is, "Has the Dark Cloud of War a Silver Lining?" The discussion will be led by Miss Frances Bliss. Appropriate music is being prepared for the occasion and a good attendance is looked for.

A tea will be given on Thursday afternoon of this week at the home of Mrs. H. M. Shaw for the benefit of the Women's society of the Presbyterian church.

George F. Honey went to Portland today to appear in the juvenile court against the five boys who recently stole his automobile and the overcoats of the boys who went into town with Mr. Honey to attend the Boy Scout meeting. As reported in the Outlook, the car and all the coats but one were afterward recovered. The missing coat and some articles belonging to Mr. Honey have since been found in a cache on the Linnton road and the culprits apprehended.

Holiday hours will be observed by the Gresham postoffice on Friday, February 22. Postmaster Roberts announces that the office window will be open on that day from 9 to 10 o'clock.

A carload of corn has been consigned to A. W. Metzger and is being unloaded to his customers from the car. Many stockmen in this vicinity are taking advantage of the opportunity to get good feed at a reasonable price.

Attorney Milo C. King will be away from his office Wednesday and Thursday of this week in attendance upon two cases of Heiney & Heiney vs. Latourell & Latourell and John Brown vs. Latourell & Latourell in district and circuit court in Portland.

The meeting of the conservation class of the housewives campaign, which was announced for Wednesday afternoon at the library, is to be held in connection with the regular meeting of the Ladies' Aid society Wednesday. The combined meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Jas. Lawrence on South Roberts avenue. Mrs. C. M. Zimmerman, Mrs. P. Michel and Mrs. E. W. Aylsworth will assist the hostess. It is hoped that a large number will attend as this promises to be a very interesting meeting.

Many people are not aware of the fact that letter destined to persons at their own postoffice, or on routes from that office, require only two cents postage, not three cents.

The local insurance and real estate agent John Brown has just arranged the sale of the Jacob Ernst place on the Base Line road, to W. P. Honey of Gresham. The farm contains 13 1/2 acres and Mr. Honey plans to make extensive improvements upon it.

The Red Cross snipping party, which was held last Friday evening at Metzger's hall, was very successful from every standpoint. Between 150 and 200 persons attended and snipping went on merrily between the numbers on the program, with the result that fifty-seven comfort pillows were made and filled. A few who were to have taken part in the program were prevented at the last moment and this was the only disappointment of the evening and was unavoidable. The cafeteria lunch which was served during the evening brought in a little over $11.

COLUMBIA HEIGHTS

The musical given at Becker's hall a short time ago, for the benefit of the Red Cross, was a splendid success. A very fine program was given by Portland and local talent. After the program, dancing was enjoyed until midnight, when light refreshments were served.

Mr. McKay, the new principal of Corbett High, has purchased a new Dodge.

Crown Point chalet was a merry scene last Wednesday evening when Mrs. Henderson gave a farewell party in honor of Mr. and Mrs. H. Hackett, who expect to make the state capital their home. Games, music and dancing were enjoyed until midnight and several fine violin selections by Mr. Hackett who is a fine musician, were much appreciated. Dainty refreshments were served in the main dining hall. Those who shared the hospitality of the two charming hostesses were as follows: Mr. and Mrs. Birdneau, Mr. and Mrs. Stuart, Mr. and Mrs. Willcox, Miss Margaret Moffett, all of Latourell, Mr. and Mrs. James Ross, Mr. and Mrs. P. About Constipation.

Certain articles of diet tend to check movements of the bowels. The most common of these are cheese, tea and boiled milk. On the other hand raw fruits, especially apples and bananas, also graham bread and whole wheat bread promote a movement of the bowels. When the bowels are badly constipated, however, the sure way is to take one or two of Chamberlain's Tablets immediately after supper.—Adv.

Washington's Birthday, Feb. 22
LEGAL HOLIDAY

This Institution Will Be Closed All Day

The inspiration of Washington's staunch Americanism has this year a wonderful timeliness.

Upon the birthday of the Father of our country may we each resolve to maintain, individually and collectively, ideals worthy of our Nation, and to support those ideals by influence and action to the limit of our power. Like Washington, may we be loyal Americans, far-sighted, energetic, courageous, patriotic.
