PLEASANT VALLEY

Jake Cornelly, who is working in the shipyards in Portland, came out Sunday and spent a few hours visiting with home folks.

John Schacht was in the city on business matters one day this week. Gustaf Stine has moved to Portland where he has secured employment at one of the shipyards.

Otie Johnson, of Gales Creek, was a visitor at the home of his brother, Ruby Johnson, last Sunday.

C. F. Kesterson returned to his home at Kellogg Sunday.

J. S. Donaldson transacted business in the city on Monday.

Joe Emerson of Watford, North Dakota, is spending a few days visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Berke.

Road Supervisor York was a Valley caller on Wednesday.

Mr. Petty, who has occupied the Holcomb house for the past several months, has moved his family to Lents.

Wm. Ayers, a recent arrival from Illinois, has purchased the Ross Heiney place and moved on with his family.

C. D. Fitzpatrick and B. Sutlow of Vancouver barracks were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Berke last Sunday.

Mrs. S. H. Simmons of Yale, Washington, is spending a few days visiting at the home of her daughter, Mrs. H. F. Sager.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Olson, who moved to Sellwood about a year ago, have moved back to the farm.

Charles Vollum visited at the home of his daughter, Mrs. J. W. Frost, Jr., one day recently. Mr. Vollum's home is in Seattle.

J. H. Nolte, of Portland, who recently purchased ten acres in the C. F. Kesterson tract, has erected a temporary residence on his land and moved in with his family. Mr. Nolte intends clearing up the land and setting it out to fruits and roses. Mr. Nolte formerly owned the A. B. Craft place on the east side of the valley.

The latest reports from the war stamp drive are that $3025.00 worth have been sold. This is $64.12 per capita for each pupil enrolled on the school register or $19.12 per capita more than required to put the entire school in the Rainbow Regiment.

When You Have a Cold.

It is when you have a severe cold that you appreciate the good qualities of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Mrs. Frank Crocker, Pana, Ill., writes: "Our five-year-old son Paul caught a severe cold last winter that settled on his lungs and he had terrible coughing spells. We were greatly worried about him as the medicine we gave him did not help him in the least. A neighbor spoke so highly of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy that I got a bottle of it. The first dose benefited him so much that I continued giving it to him until he was cured."—Adv.

Tailoring

For men and women—cleaning, pressing and repairing done well. Peter Leonard, Powell street.

Subscribe for the Outlook for "the boy." It will follow him to the camp and his twice-a-week visits will be just like letters from home.

ROCKWOOD

Mrs. A. G. Schantin has returned from the hospital, where she had gone for another operation. She is reported as getting along nicely.

The Woman's work committee of the grange will give an entertainment and dance at the grange hall on Saturday night. Each lady is requested to bring a lunch consisting of four sandwiches, two pieces of cake and two pickles, to be wrapped in paper and will be sold by numbers. Everybody invited to come.

The Red Cross and the Parent-Teachers held a joint meeting at the schoolhouse on Wednesday afternoon, which was well attended, there being twenty-three present.

Mr. and Mrs. Willard Cook are moving onto the Johnnie Burns place north of Rockwood.

A number from the Rebekah lodge of this place attended the district convention held at Lents on last Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Tegart spent Saturday of last week at Eugene.

A number of friends of Mr. and Mrs. Richmond from Portland motored out Sunday afternoon and had dinner with them.

Don't forget the services at the M. E. church every Sunday morning and evening and the union Sunday school at the grange hall every Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

The Rockwood Improvement club will meet on Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. B. F. Dahlhammer at her home on the Rockwood road. A large attendance is desired.

KELSO

Attention is called of Kelso residents to the campaign which is now on for the sale of war savings stamps and thrift stamps. R. E. Jarl has them for sale and will furnish any information desired about them as will also Mrs. Robert Jonsrud and J. H. Revenue, the other members of the publicity committee.

An interesting debate was held at the last meeting of the Kelso Parent-Teacher association on the question: "Resolved that the United States should adopt universal military training." The judges decided in favor of the negative.

Miss Yerkes is still confined to her home in Portland on account of illness. Mrs. N. Nelson, a member of the school board, is acting as a substitute.

Help your country by investing in war savings stamps. Do your best not only your bit.

CORBETT

Mrs. A. D. Stewart, nee Ethel Smith of Portland, spent last week with her mother, Mrs. C. E. Smith. John Hones, of Portland, visited friends in this vicinity several days this week.

A Hint to the Aged.

If people past sixty years of age could be persuaded to go to bed as soon as they take cold and remain in bed for one or two days, they would recover much more quickly, especially if they take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. There would also be less danger of the cold being followed by any of the more serious diseases.—Adv.

LUSTED

Irving Spencer has gone to California on a business trip.

Mr. and Mrs. George Lusted visited their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Goff of Portland last Sunday, the latter returning home Monday.

Ford

THE UNIVERSAL CAR

When you compare the low prices of Ford cars with the prices of farm produce, farm stock and everything else on the market, the great value of the Ford car can be fairly estimated. The price for the Ford Touring Car is only $450 f. o. b. Detroit.

It is the greatest value, not only among motor cars, but in the whole run of articles grown and manufactured. Think of a five-passenger motor car with the reputation for service, durability and economy that's behind the Ford car, selling for $450. We urge prospective purchasers to give their orders without delay.
