ROCKWOOD

The Rockwood Improvement club met with Mrs. B. F. Dahlhammer on Tuesday afternoon, when a very interesting meeting was held. After the business session was concluded, Mrs. Richmond favored the club with a reading. The club will meet with Mrs. Herbert Linch on the fourth Tuesday in March.

The box social given by the woman's work committee of the grange was a financial success. Everyone present enjoyed a good time. The comedy given by the six young ladies was appreciated and much credit is due the girls for the success of the play, considering the short time they had to prepare for it.

On last Tuesday evening Miss Agnes Richmond entertained a few of her friends in honor of her birthday. After a delightful evening spent in games and music the guests repaired to the dining room where a delightful luncheon was served. The color scheme prevailing in the dining room was red, white and blue. Those enjoying the evening were, the Misses Jeston Quesinberry, Bernita Bennison, Agnes Richmond, Lillian Nash and Messrs Verne Martin, Kenneth Harvey, Galin Fancher, Lawrence Harvey and Albert Richmond. At 12 o'clock the guests departed, wishing Miss Agnes many happy returns of the day.

It is desired that all the members of Rockwood Rebekah lodge be present at their next meeting the second Wednesday in March.

PLEASANT HOME

A community service flag will be dedicated at the Pleasant Home Baptist church Sunday evening, March 10. Thirty-six stars will represent the names of the soldier boys from this locality. A full program will be published later.

Rev. A. J. Ware will preach Sunday evening at the Baptist church. All are invited to attend.

Washington had a pair of eye glasses at the end of a stick. They cost him about fifty cents, and yet he saw a great deal more than many moderns can see through a pair that costs ten dollars.

The Pneumonia Season.

The cold, damp weather of March seems to be the most favorable for the pneumonia germ. Now is the time to be careful. Pneumonia often results from a cold. The quicker a cold is gotten rid of the less the danger. As soon as the first indication of a cold appears take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. As to the value of this preparation, ask anyone who has used it.—Adv.

PLEASANT VALLEY

Mr. and Mrs. Chase of near Bend visited with Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Rhoads last Saturday.

Mrs. Amy Dobson, of Portland, was a week-end guest at the home of her brother, T. R. Berry.

Allan R. Joy, of Portland, was a caller at the home of F. A. Richey on Monday.

Chris and Fred Borgess entertained friends from the city over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Rodlun, of Gales Creek, were week-end visitors at the home of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Chitwood.

Mrs. G. H. Richey, of Portland, was a caller at the home of Mrs. G. N. Sager Sunday afternoon.

Edw. Kelly transacted business in Lents Tuesday afternoon.

The Pleasant Valley Red Cross auxiliary will hold their regular meeting at the grange hall on next Monday evening. A good program is assured. County Commissioner Rufus Holman will be the principal speaker of the occasion. County School Superintendent Alderson is also expected to be present and give a short talk. A large attendance is expected. If you have an idea which you think would, in any way help to win the war, this is the time and place to present it.

FAIRVIEW

At the weekly meeting of the Red Cross unit in the city hall Tuesday afternoon there were sixteen workers present. The work was the making of pajama suits. The chairman of the knitting committee reported six sweaters and eleven pairs of socks, completed in February. Mrs. Snover read a very interesting letter from Mrs. Venable's son who is a captain in the American army in France. Some of our workers from the Base Line have organized a unit which meets in No. 8 schoolhouse. This will bring in a number of workers who could not go to Gresham or Fairview. Every woman should be a Red Cross worker.

At the Fairview grange Saturday, Miss Alice Joyce of the O. A. C. will talk on the Industrial club work. All children of club age, and all parents, whether grangers or not are urged to be present at 2 o'clock to hear her. This is very important.

We are looking forward with great pleasure to the program to be given in the Presbyterian church Friday evening, March 8th under the auspices of the U. S. class. H. C. Campbell, of Portland, will show pictures from Egypt and Palestine, which he secured while traveling in those countries. Mr. Campbell gives very interesting explanation of these pictures as they are shown. Recent events in the world war makes this part of the program of unusual interest. The full program will be advertised at a later date.

Mrs. Moller, our former correspondent, is expected home this week. She left the hospital a week ago, and is now with her mother Mrs. Douthit, in Portland.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy a Favorite for Colds.

J. L. Easley, Macon, Ill., in speaking of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy says, "During the past fifteen years it has been my sister's favorite medicine for colds on the lungs. I myself have taken it a number of times when suffering with a cold and it always relieved me promptly."—Adv.

THE HORRORS OF WAR

Those who have not experienced the horrors of war only know of its terrors by "hear-say" but even then it's bad enough.

But terrible as death on the battlefield may be, it has no more terrors than some other things, a life of grinding, pinching poverty, for instance. Death amidst the roar and crash of battle is frightful, but death is at least mercifully the end. But to live and struggle on from day to day in poverty, possibly under a load of debt, but little hope, just struggling along wearing the life away by inches, that takes courage and is enough to try the stoutest heart.

The way to avoid this is by systematic saving. Our bank will do its best to save you from a fate worse than the horrors of war.

A great many people live to a ripe old age, but one seldom hears of the fellow who died at a green young age.

"Farming on paper is rare sport," says the Atlantic Monthly. But armies fed on paper crops will not feel very sporty, is our opinion.
