

Ford

THE UNIVERSAL CAR

The Ford Sedan, $695 f. o. b. Detroit, is a handsome enclosed motor car that meets every demand in an up-to-date enclosed car. A roomy interior seating five; deeply upholstered with fine cloth; plate glass sliding windows; silk curtains; latest type ventilating windshield; large doors—everything for comfort, and the everlasting regular Ford chassis to carry it, all means safety with simplicity in operation and the lowest cost for maintenance. The real family car—just as delightful on the farm as it is in town. Come, see it.

COLUMBIA HEIGHTS

In spite of all the cold showers, signs of spring are here. Nature again is awakening from her sleep. Tiny spears of grass are peeping through the ground, the bushes and trees are budding again, and the frogs, oh! what a noise they are making at the edge of the water pond and again we hear the sweet meadow lark. Her music brings joy to the heart of all mankind. Would that it might only be thus, that all mankind on earth would be at peace and be satisfied and happy to live in the world which God created for us! Instead, it seems like we are abusing such a privilege. Human beings are not happy. Selfishness and a craving for something not within reach, is an enemy that is abroad everywhere. Hence the increasing of crimes, war, jealousy and hatred and as it is, the world is growing more sinful and wicked every day. Oh Lord! how long must the innocent suffer! Before another year has passed may all and everybody be at peace is our earnest prayer and may those who are guilty of this shameful war be justly punished.

I wish to correct a mistake in the last issue of the Outlook stating that Laurence Andersen was bitten in the face by a neighbor's dog. While he was quite badly bitten, it happened to be his foot, and he has almost recovered from the accident and is able to walk again.

A. Woodward has gone to Scappoose to erect a small sawmill and take up logging business. The two daughters of Mr. and Mrs. A. Woodward and their babies, were at home for a visit last Sunday.

John Taylor, who is in the logging business at Kelso, has gone to California for a short stay, and is now quite well, after spending a week at Good Samaritan hospital.

Mr. McKay spent the week-end at Vancouver, Washington.

Mrs. R. S. Knight has returned after a week's recreation in the city with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Ehrman, of Portland, spent Sunday at their country home here and had as their guest Mr. Frank of the Meier & Frank company.

Mr. and Mrs. Crane, of Portland, have started to build a small summer house at their country place here and expect to spend the week-end here during the coming summer.

At a special school meeting held at District 33 last Saturday, E. Willson was elected as clerk to succeed A. Kincaid, who has moved to Washington.

Mrs. A. Morgan, the Chanticleer hostess, has just recovered from a sick spell.

F. Hurst has gone to Portland to take treatment for some trouble. All hope to see him back feeling better.

TROUTDALE

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Knarr spent Sunday at their home in Troutdale. In a recent letter from Richard, who is on the U. S. S. Housatonic, some extracts are as follows: "I tell you I'm glad I enlisted. I think it is every man's duty to help in some way, and I tell you I'm going to stick up for Old Glory from now on, and die for her if necessary. I should say we are not having things as bad as the foreign countries, and it is up to us to free those people and help them whip the Germans. I want to get into action now, and the sooner my ship goes across the better it will suit me." "When you see in the papers about the Housatonic steaming up the Rhine with her band playing Yankee Doodle, it's time to get ready to make a big feed for them, for then I'll soon be home."

Last Saturday being Amy Kendall's eighth birthday. Mrs. Kendall surprised her by inviting in several of her little friends. They had a very happy afternoon playing games, and enjoying the dainty lunch served by Mrs. Kendall, the chief feature of it being, of course, the birthday cake. The children present were Helen Landan, Faye Parsons, Leona Bailey, Betty Thomas, Ella Richardson, Pearl Coleman, Alice O'Neill, Clelia Crawford, Mildred, Grace, and Harry Surber, Eldon Dupuis, Robert Harlow, Billy Boscoe, and Amy and Dorothy Kendall. Mrs. Frank Boscoe assisted Mrs. Kennadll.

Mr. and Mrs. N. P. Wallace have taken up a temporary residence in housekeeping rooms in Portland.

Mrs. George Schlatter was a week-end guest at the home of her son, John Iselt, at Lents.

Mr. and Mrs. John Kidder have returned from an extended wedding trip in the middle west, and are at present at the Wallace home in Troutdale.

A lot of clothing for the Belgians was brought to the Red Cross rooms last Friday, and was taken to Portland Saturday. Owing to delay in getting the order for the drive, a good many people did not get the word, or there would have been a good deal more. The meeting this week, Thursday, will be all day from 10 to 4:30, with a conservation lunch at noon.

The Troutdale Ladies' Aid meets next week, Wednesday, April 23, with Mrs. C. I. Thomas.

There will be special Easter exercises at the church next Sunday evening, with a special sermon by the pastor and a musical program by the Sunday school children and the church singers.

Ed. Norton of Dodge City, Kansas, is a visitor at the A. D. Kendall home.

Miss Hepsie Chase, of Portland, accompanied Miss Belle Parsons on her regular week-end visit with the home folks at Troutdale.

Weather Forecast.

Pacific Coast States: Occasional rain north Pacific states, non of consequence elsewhere; temperature average somewhat lower and more nearly seasonal than preceding week.

Under the new food regulations Swiss people are allowed only one-fifth of a pound of butter per person per month.

Are you using that ten per cent of mashed potatoes in every baking of bread or pastry?

The Pneumonia Season.
The cold, damp weather of March seems to be the most favorable for the pneumonia germ. Now is the time to be careful. Pneumonia often results from a cold. The quicker a cold is gotten rid of the less the danger. As soon as the first indication of a cold appears take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. As to the value of this preparation, ask anyone who has used it.—Adv.

MELROSE AND VICTORY.

A pie social and country store auction sale will be held at the Cedar schoolhouse on Saturday evening, March 30, for the benefit of Belgian and French children. Women and girls are asked to bring pies to be sold and all are invited to bring articles, wrapped up, which will be auctioned off. These should be articles likely to be found in a country store and worth at least 25 cents each. Children may bring articles worth 10 cents. A fish pond and various stunts will furnish amusement for all.

Mrs. Lloyd Littlepage has gone to Waco, Texas to be near her husband, who is in training there. She will remain near him as long as he is in this country.

The Red Cross workers request the donation of any clothing or garments which can be used in making children's clothing. These should be brought to the work room where they will be put in shape or made into garments, to be used in relief work. A huge box of supplies was packed last week by the Red Cross workers.

FAIRVIEW

The Methodist Ladies Aid will give an Easter supper on Saturday evening, March 30, in the city hall. Supper will be served from 5 to 8 o'clock. All are invited.

F. Dixon is improving his 5-acre tract on the Sandy road by setting it all out in berries of various kinds, which were sent from Yakima by Mrs. Dixon's father.

O. Cowels, of Prineville, formerly of Fairview, was a visitor here last week.

Stereopticon Lecture.

An entertainment will be given on Wednesday evening at Terry schoolhouse, District No. 8, under the auspices of the Junior Red Cross. H. C. Campbell will show the stereopticon scene along the Nile, in Egypt and Palestine and will present photographic records in the Assyrian language. R. L. Sabin will speak on the Third Liberty Loan.
