Chamberlain's Cough Remedy a Favorite for Colds.

J. L. Easley, Macon, Ill., in speaking of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy says, "During the past fifteen years it has been my sister's favorite medicine for colds on the lungs. I myself have taken it a number of times when suffering with a cold and it always relieved me promptly."—Adv.

Everybody Hooverize! Every little bit helps!

A Splendid Record Achieved.

H. W. Snashall, president of the Farmers Mutual Fire Relief Association, reports the association has broken all former records in 1917. The annual statement shows 383 new members gained, 17 fire losses paid, aggregating $4911; $1,036,677 of insurance written, one assessment levied, and $700 invested in liberty bonds during the year. The association is entering its 14th year, and has over 4000 members carrying $4,250,000 insurance. It has made an annual saving of over 50 per cent to its members. At the annual meeting in January Andrew Brugger of Gresham was re-elected director for the ninth year. Farmers desiring to join may obtain information from H. W. Snashall, Gresham, R. A. or Herman Loeding, secretary, 409 Stock Exchange Bldg., Portland.—Adv.

GRESHAM LOCALS

E. W. Stratton and wife returned last night from Salmonberry, Tillamook county, where they have been for two weeks past.

Miss Della Hughes, Miss Kathryn Honey and Andrew Brugger, students at the University of Washington, are at home for their Easter vacation.

Mrs. F. V. Winsor, of Miles City, Montana, who has been in Portland for two weeks taking treatments, is the guest of her sister, Miss Emma Johnson.

Mr. and Mrs. Mark Nickerson have moved from their farm east of Gresham to the Enos place, recently purchased by W. F. Honey, and will make their home there.

A reading notice elsewhere will notify the public that the Ford garage and the Overland garage will close every evening on weekdays at 8 o'clock and on Sundays at noon.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Honey have received a recent letter from their son John, who is driving an ambulance in France, and on last Tuesday a cablegram came from him, assuring them that he was well.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Hessel have bought the Stoner cottage on Wailua Heights and will make their home there in the near future. The house is occupied at present by Mr. and Mrs. V. H. Calhoun.

William Childers has moved with his family to the Middleton house west of the Hotel Congdon. He is undecided what to do next, now that he is out of the mail service, but is thinking of moving to central Oregon.

There will be a meeting of the county fair board next Monday afternoon at the usual hour. The principal business on hand will be the adoption of the new list of premiums to be awarded at the coming fair.

A curiosity in the shape of a carrot which grew through the neck of a bottle was brought to the Outlook office this week by Chas. Wilson, who dug it from his garden in Gresham a few days ago. The bottle neck had caught the seeds which germinated, sending its roots to the soil below.

Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Ross have received letters from their son Joe, who has now arrived in France. Joe was sick in a hospital when his company went over in December. He is delighted to be with them again, after being separated four months. He is well and busy and says that camp conditions are favorable and food good.

A big black horse, owned by the Japanese farmers, became mired in a slough east of the O. W. P. depot last evening. It was finally rescued after much hard work lasting over two hours. The water was almost over the animal's back but its head was kept up until a rope could be placed around its body, when a team drew it out onto dry land.

Services appropriate to the day will be held at the Methodist Episcopal church next Sunday, beginning with a sunrise prayer meeting at 6 o'clock which have been arranged by the Epworth League. At 10 o'clock the Sunday school will study the Easter lesson and at 11 the pastor, Rev. J. Montcalm Brown will preach. At this service a duet will be sung by Miss Grace Hartley and Mrs. Myrtle Myers. Epworth League and preaching service will be held at the usual hours in the evening. The church clock will be turned ahead an hour and all services of the day will be held accordingly.

WASHINGTON BARRACKS SEEN IN PANORAMA

J. S. Hall has received two panoramic views from Washington City barracks where his son Major Alfred Hall is stationed for the present. One of the views is of the barracks the other being a line of officers on duty there. The two views form a splendid representation of army life in the capitol city.

Major Hall is a brother of S. B. Hall County Agriculturist. He is a native of Eastern Multnomah and is well known. He is a graduate of the O. A. C. and later took an electrical course at Schenectady, New York and for six years was in charge of important power stations, notably at Hood River and Pasco.

When war was declared he enlisted in Portland and took the special officer's training course at Fort Leavenworth, Kansas, attaining to rank of Major. J. H. Hall is rather proud of the promotion his son has reached. He has a grandson, John Zumwalt, in the army from this state who will leave Portland next Monday. Also more than a dozen relatives from the middle west are serving under the colors. He feels that his family is well represented in the fight for democracy.

Spread your butter thin. There's a war to win.

War-Savings Stamps are worth self-sacrifice.

CONGDON BIDS HIS FRIENDS FAREWELL

W. H. Congdon, who will take charge of the Home restaurant at Oregon City next Monday desires to convey to the people of Gresham and all others who were his patrons at the Hotel Congdon an appreciation of their friendship and patronage before leaving. He says:

"I want to thank my friends in Gresham, should there be any, and the surrounding country for their liberal patronage while in the Hotel Congdon. I have tried to do my best to serve you. Had I listened to some I might have done better, but I listened to the cry of the hungry but now my fortune is changed and I must be going. I have a good partner who will assist me, and I won't be alone and among strangers entirely. I feel somewhat like the old colored preacher. He said 'Sisters and brothers, I am agoin' to be chaplain at the penitentiary and where I go, I go to prepare a place for you all.'"

"So, as I go to Oregon City I go regretting to leave this little city, where all the friends that I have—if any—in the west are living, and will prepare a place for them all. And should any of my old friends ever sojourn in Oregon City they will find that place within the walls of the Home restaurant."

"When I look around and think of my many friends it is in a measure a recapitulation of what I passed through some four years ago; and when the only boy that I have gave himself to fight for the old stars and stripes, I can only say, 'God bless him and all of the boys that have done the same, for the time of reckoning will come and the wisest knoweth not to the contrary how soon we will all be called to serve in a better place where there will be no shedding of blood, for that part of the battle will be over. Thanking one and all again, and inviting you to Oregon City, I am your humble servant.'"

W. H. CONGDON.
