COMMUNITY FLAG IN FAIRVIEW CHURCH

A beautiful community service flag was dedicated at the Presbyterian church at Fairview last Friday evening, when an appropriate program was carried out. The flag was presented by Mrs. A. L. Stone, teacher of the U. S. class of the Sunday school, which arranged for the flag. The acceptance was by Cedric Stone, mayor of Fairview. The speakers were M. L. Pratt of Portland, a veteran of the Civil War; C. J. Meussdorffer, Jr., formerly lieutenant in Co. F., 2 Oregon Volunteer Infantry during the Spanish American war; and Mrs. Louise Palmer Webber, of Boston, one of the foremost authorities on dietetics in the United States and a fine speaker. All the numbers and the addresses were good and inspiring.

Two gold stars were displayed on the flag, representing Alva Linn and Robert Venable, who have paid the last sacrifice in their country's cause. An impressive salute to the dead was led by the pastor, Rev. I. B. Self.

Thirty stars appear on the flag, representing the following young men, a large number of whom are already in France; Alva Linn, Robert Venable, Adreas Albrecht, Theodore Albrecht, Harry Brooks, Llewellyn Bill, Will Ledbury, Leslie St. Clair, Earl Stanley, Caryl Heslin, Claud Heslin, Raymond Dunbar, Robert Pettingill, George Rice, Forrest Jenne, Emerson Brown, Lloyd Tegart, Albert Hensley, Guy Osborne, Willis Cree, Albert Hall, Clark Stillions, Harvey O. Miller, Raymond Wanger, Harvey Fisher, Rolland Quesinberry, Rolland Dustin, Ralph Dustin, Arthur Dustin, Fred Crane.

POWELL VALLEY

A number of friends of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Palmblad met at their home one evening last week to give them a charivari. The young people were invited in and spent a very pleasant evening. Mr. and Mrs. Palmblad are at home to their friends on the John Palmblad place, which they have rented. The reception to the young couple following the wedding was held at the home of the bride, not at the home of the groom, as was erroneously reported in the last Outlook.

The regular meeting of the young people will be held on Wednesday evening instead of on Saturday evening.

Rev. J. Johnson will preach at the Swedish Mission church on Thursday evening of this week. The sermon will be in English. He will also preach at the church next Sunday, both morning and evening.

On Friday night of this week Staff Captain Gebrielsen of the Tacoma Salvation Army will hold a meeting at the church. All are invited.

A meeting of women will be held at the Powell Valley schoolhouse on Friday afternoon, at 1:30, in the interest of War Savings Stamps. Good speakers from Portland are promised and all women are urged to attend.

Unless unexpected complications set in, it is thought he will soon recover.

ALFRED TRIMBLE DIES AFTER LONG ILLNESS

Alfred B. Trimble, father of William Trimble, died at the latter's home yesterday afternoon after an illness extending over more than two years. He was in a Salem hospital but was brought here on Sunday last and taken to the home of his son at Gillis.

The deceased was 74 years of age, having been born in an Indiana town December 7, 1844. His funeral will take place on Thursday with burial in the Pleasant Home cemetery.

Let's turn the clocks ahead a whole day or week, if it will help us get into Berlin on time.

APPEAL TO WOMEN OF MELROSE AND VICTORY

Come to the Red Cross sewing room and do your bit, ladies. I was urged at the headquarters to urge every lady to come and do her bit at our sewing room as the demand is so great, and growing greater every day that they can not get hospital sewing enough done to fill the orders. I spoke to the head lady there in regard to slacking up and meeting twice a month and she said don't think of it, but do more if you can. Our boys are in the fight so just stop and think of them with legs and arms shot off and other wounds and sickness caused from this terrible war, and in need of this very work we are doing and not enough to go around. Think if it was your husband, son or brother, how terrible you would feel to know he did not have the things he needed to make him comfortable and only a few going out to do this work. We all have work at home. No doubt one of us is really as busy as another if we put our own work ahead of this great work which is a duty now. We used to have from fifteen to twenty and now we have from six to twelve at our work room. Always the same hands, no new ones. Now I would like to have more come and let us turn out all the work we can. It is needed badly. Let Melrose and Victory go over the top too with our relief work. Come one and all.

MRS. G. W. ALLDER, Chairman.

RED CROSS SALE BRINGS LARGE SUM

The auction sale at the Orient grange hall on Saturday evening in the interest of the Red Cross was one of the most rousing events ever held in that neighborhood. The crowd was all that could be asked for, and all did their best to make the big sale a success. So well did they succeed that when the sale closed at a late hour, $320.25 had been turned over to the work of the Red Cross.

R. I. Anderson was in charge of the sale. He was ably assisted by J. T. Wilson, the well-known auctioneer of Portland. The two auctioneers were kept busy crying the various articles for more than five hours. A pony was brought into the hall and put up for sale. Bidding was spirited. The animal was finally knocked down to Simon Lind. A large amount of canned fruit and many chickens were sold. Mrs. Mary Milne gave a beautiful silk quilt, which brought $48. Mrs. H. F. Wihlon is now the proud owner of the quilt.

The Red Cross workers are deeply grateful to all who contributed articles for the sale, to the auctioneers and the solicitors and to all who helped make the affair a success.

Some Good Advice.

"Don't think too much of your own methods. Watch other people's ways and learn from them." This is good advice, especially when bilious or constipated. You will find many people who use Chamberlain's Tablets for these ailments with the best results, and will do well to follow their example.—Adv.

Constitpation and Indigestion.

These are twin evils. Persons suffering from indigestion are often troubled with constipation. Mrs. Robert Allison, Mattoon, Ill., writes that when she first moved to Mattoon she was a great sufferer from indigestion and constipation. Food distressed her and there was a feeling like a heavy weight pressing on her stomach and chest. She did not rest well at night, and felt worn out a good part of the time. One bottle of Chamberlain's Tablets corrected this trouble so that she has since felt like a different person.—Adv.
