BACKING UP FREEDOM.

Continued patriotic advertising by the business houses and the patriotic citizens of Gresham is certain to reflect upon the ardor of those who are backing up the efforts of the liberty loan committees of this part of Multnomah county.

This is the sixth successive issue of this paper in which these contributed ads have appeared. Today's donation to publicity is the entire list of the city's officials.

The situation is important and the action of those who are helping the cause demonstrates that there is a good deal more in the purchase of liberty bonds than the matter of backing up our soldiers, vitally important as that is.

With the strawberry season not sixty days away, the person who cannot die an optimist needs to consult a liver plumber and get his machinery fixed up.

Castor oil is being used to lubricate flying machines. It ought to do the work, judging from observations of how it makes the small boy fly.

Seen in a Portland show window. "Pants, 1-3 off." It looks to a man from the country that "Pants, 2-3 on" would look better.

The war gardens of the country merit a much larger attention this season than the roof gardens.

The German language is becoming more noticeable lately—by its gentlemanly non-appearance.

The evolution of the careless informative remark—a mouthful, an earful, a grave full.

The rule against killing poultry does not prohibit anyone from swatting the fly.

While we are striving to make the disloyalists respect the flag, and, in some parts of the country making the sedulous kiss its starry folds, there are two other enemies of the banner which are scarcely noticed.

Notice is hereby given that Edwin A. Arrington, of Palmer, Multnomah county, Oregon, who, on April 16, 1915, made Homestead Entry No. 94192, for the SE 1/4 SW 1/4, Section 8, Township 1 North, Range 6 East, Willamette Meridian, has filed notice of intention to make Commutation Proof, to establish claim to the land above described, before the Register and Receiver of the United States Land office, at Portland, Oregon, on the 26th day of April, 1918.

Department of the Interior. U. S. Land Office at Portland Oregon. March 18th, 1918.

Notice is hereby given that Edwin A. Arrington, of Palmer, Multnomah county, Oregon, who, on April 16, 1915, made Homestead Entry No. 94192, for the SE 1/4 SW 1/4, Section 8, Township 1 North, Range 6 East, Willamette Meridian, has filed notice of intention to make Commutation Proof, to establish claim to the land above described, before the Register and Receiver of the United States Land office, at Portland, Oregon, on the 26th day of April, 1918.

Claimant names as witnesses: William Gordon, of Palmer, Oregon; W. H. Franklin, of Palmer, Oregon; E. J. Arrington, of Palmer, Oregon; J. Teuscher, Jr., of 1910 Wilbur St., Portland, Oregon.

W. H. CAMPBELL, Register.

When these enemy allies get in their work, the colors become dingy, the blue nearly white, and the white color scheme is blended with the red in a mess of rainbow colors fading into the atmosphere, and the whole banner is being torn to ribbons.

And when these enemies accomplish their task, and the flag whipped to ribbons and faded out, becomes only a remnant of its former self, it is often permitted to fly over edifices whose owners are well able to replace it.

More flags should be flown from office and industrial buildings and from homes, but they should be whole flags and clean flags.

You do not have to subscribe to the liberty loan. No one will force you. You can step out of the back door now if you want to and let your neighbors bear your burden and pay your debts—but you will have to live among them till you die, and with your conscience a long time after.

It is said that a direct descendant of old Israel Putnam is in a Massachusetts unit in France. We are quite confident that more than a few descendants of Adam are in the Oregon units, but we haven't time to climb their genealogical trees to give full information on the subject.

There was some talk about the farmers being a little shy about buying bonds, but it is noticed that it was the farmers of eastern Multnomah who put the Gresham district over the top and then doubled the quota.

The St. Joseph's Blatt, a German language paper published at Mount Angel, has quit. Lack of advertising in a paper that few Americans would patronize has killed it. Let the good work go on.

Rye has been taken off the list of substitutes; rye whiskey was taken off the list in Oregon more than a year ago, and some of the fellows have wry necks in consequence.

Whatever else Bolo Pasha found in France, the activities of zealous patriots indicated that he failed to find much sympathy when he stood up before the firing squad.

"What shall we call the profiteers?" asks the inquisitive subscriber. That hasn't bothered us a little bit, but we can't tell it over the phone nor put it in print.

With the strawberry season not sixty days away, the person who cannot die an optimist needs to consult a liver plumber and get his machinery fixed up.

Castor oil is being used to lubricate flying machines. It ought to do the work, judging from observations of how it makes the small boy fly.

Seen in a Portland show window. "Pants, 1-3 off." It looks to a man from the country that "Pants, 2-3 on" would look better.

Fires and explosions continue to confine themselves mostly to places where they will most seriously embarrass the nation.

The kaiser is the world's greatest gambler, but he seems to have forgotten that old saying, "He who plays pays."

The war gardens of the country merit a much larger attention this season than the roof gardens.

The German language is becoming more noticeable lately—by its gentlemanly non-appearance.

The evolution of the careless informative remark—a mouthful, an earful, a grave full.

NATURE DAREDEVILS.

It is not enough for some persons to be nature fakers in the golden sunshine of summer, but in the springtime of the year it seems natural for the average boy to express a desire to shed his shoes and socks. He assures his mother that the weather is plenty warm enough; that there is no danger of colds, coughs or other serious disorders.

Perhaps something of the same spirit seizes so many of the young society damozels who attire themselves scantily and gambol on the green. Classic dancing is what they call it. Easy money is how some of the instructors have been known to speak of it.

If it were my kids they wouldn't be out on a cold day like this, barefoot and without even a nightgown amongst the lot of 'em. They'll have pneumonia, or worse, and I don't know but it serves 'em right.

Of course he was looking at the practical side of the question. It does seem strange when one finds a girl who dresses modestly, who is careful about the arrangement of her clothing and all that—but who suddenly doffs everything she usually wear, and appears in the strong sunshine, clad in aestheticism and maybe a little cheesecloth.

The devil sat by the lake of fire on a pile of sulphur kegs; his head was bowed upon his breast, and his tail between his legs. A look of shame was on his face—the sparks dripped from his eyes—he had sent his resignation to the throne up in the skies.

"I am down and out," the devil said, and he said it with a sob, "there are others now that have got me beat, and I want to quit my job. Hell isn't in it any more, with the land along the Rhine; I'm a has-been and a plker, and therefore I resign. One ammunition maker, with his bloody shot and shell, knows more about damnation than all theimps in hell. Give the job to the kaiser, the author of this war—he understands it better—a million times by far.

"I hate to leave the old home, the spot I love so well, but I feel that I'm not up to date in the art of running hell."—A. Simpson of Montana.

COTTRELL.

Mrs. Joseph Manary spent a couple of days last week in Portland visiting her husband, who is at the Portland sanitarium for treatment. She reports him doing nicely.

Mrs. Ida Holmes spent a couple of days last week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Blackburn.

Mrs. E. E. Quay gave a surprise party on her daughter, Vada, Saturday evening. There were quite a number present and all report a most enjoyable time.

A. Ball, of Vancouver, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Blackburn.

Nature Cures, the Doctor Takes the Fee. There is an old saying that "Nature cures, the doctor takes the fee," but as everyone knows you can help Nature very much and thereby enable it to effect a cure in much less time than is usually required.

KELSO

Leo Canning, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Canning and for the past two years a student of Columbia University, enlisted in the U. S. naval service and left on Friday for San Francisco. Leo is the second son from this family to answer his country's call. His brother Joe enlisted a year ago and is now a first class machinist "somewhere on the Atlantic." Leo is a former Gresham high school student.

Kelso has now $3,000 subscribed to the third liberty loan. Let those who have not rallied to the call, speed up. It is absolutely our duty to do all we can to aid our country in her time of need. Picture our splendid men at the front, giving their all. How little even our best is in comparison. Loan your money now or pay heavy indemnity afterwards.

From a financial point of view we cannot afford to lose and what is far more important we cannot afford to lose in the cause of right and humanity. Therefore buy liberty bonds if impossible to do that buy war savings stamps, but do something—do everything to co-operate with our government. Liberty bonds will mature in ten years and draw 4 1/2 per cent interest.

Through a card catalogue system 109,487 men have been transferred out of army divisions into technical units to function according to individual educational, occupational, and military qualifications.
