The Right Kind of a Man for Senator

ROBERT N. STANFIELD

Farmer, Stockraiser and Producer

The State is entitled to the active services of a man who knows how to work. Work for the State generally and work for the people of the State, both individually and collectively.

Oregon does not need any orators for orators are a drug on the market, and like constitutional lawyers, they do not get anything.

The Federal government needs all the assistance Oregon can give, but is not receiving it because it has not been put up to the department on a business basis.

Today business men are having more to do with the government affairs than ever before. We are spending twenty-four million dollars a day and the people who will pay this money are the people who actually create wealth, the farmer, producer and the toiler.

Our prosperity depends upon our continued industrial activities and every one of these should be maintained at maximum capacity.

The prosperity of the small farmer, the small producer and the small manufacturer is as essential to the State and the Nation as the prosperity of the big man, every one of our occupations should be given equal consideration regardless of the amount produced.

Every encouragement must be given to increase production and this can be obtained only through assurance that the small farmer as well as the big man is going to receive his proportionate share of the war expenditures, and that there will be a market for his products and a profit to him for his work, based proportionately upon his cost of production.

There must be equality in all phases of our State and National industry and the small fellow must not be forgotten, overlooked or crowded out through the rush for big things and big orders and big accomplishments.

If the people of the State want a business man, a worker, a man who knows, is thoroughly acquainted with every phase of the industrial situation in Oregon, a man who is capable, honest and fearless, a man who has by his own labor and through his own advancement aided in the progress and development of Oregon, they want Robert N. Stanfield.

LET US BACK THEM.

We all have heard of Washington,
And the story of the hatchet;
But that ain't such an awful coin,
We have a man can match it.
We know of Woodrow Wilson,
And touch our hats to him;
But we have a J. O. Wilson
Who's true blue to the brim.
So all the boys gone to the war,
The clouds or darkness come,
Feel sure that they are fighting for
A solid camp at home.
Then let us scatter sunshine,
And do our very best;
For every boy that's in the line
And they will do the rest.

FAIRVIEW

Fairview Red Cross unit met last Tuesday with a large crowd. The afternoon was spent in finishing up bed shirts. Donations have been coming in for the French babies and we have purchased twenty yards of flannel to be made up. Mrs. Wilbur and Mrs. Gerlinger, of Portland, were at the meeting and gave a talk on war savings stamps, which resulted in organizing a club of 15 members, consisting mostly of the children. Mrs. Maude Heslin was elected president and Mrs. Leslie St. Clair, secretary. Anyone who wishes to join the club should see the president or secretary and they will be glad to give a card and any information desired.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Shute, formerly of this place but now living at Boyd, Washington, are receiving congratulations on the arrival of a baby girl.

Mrs. Chappel, of Camas, will spend some time with her daughter, Mrs. Iola Copeland. Mr. Copeland is working in Camas.

Mrs. J. P. Province and son Harold of Gervais, Oregon, made a short visit on friends here this week. She has been visiting in Hood River and was on her way home.

SANDY BLUFF

Everett Browning returned home Sunday and is doing nicely.

Mrs. Ella Douglass and daughters Helen, and Mrs. McNeil with her husband and children, visited with Mrs. Douglass' mother, Mrs. Laura Barnes and sister, Mrs. Della Browning. They left for Raymond, Washington, where Mr. Douglass is employed in shipyards. Mrs. Barnes gave a dancing party in their honor in Saturday night. All enjoyed the evening.

Mrs. S. C. Crarrell, of Powell Valley, and Mrs. A. J. Ault visited with their husbands at Aims, on Wednesday.

Mrs. Paul Dunn is again at home after her treatment in a Portland hospital, and is doing nicely.

Mrs. R. H. Radford visited her son Jesse at Vancouver and reports him slowly improving.

Carrie and Jerome Brook visited home over Sunday.

Jim Allen, of Portland, visited a few days with his brother Frank and family.

PLEASANT HOME

Mr. and Mrs. Shinnaman and family, of Portland, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. I. G. Denny.

Alma Larsen, who underwent an operation for appendicitis, is sick in the hospital.

Mrs. Zahn, of Portland, visited her father, A. C. Wihlon, over Sunday.

The Methodist Ladies' Aid will meet for an all day session at the Methodist church Wednesday.

On Sunday morning at the Baptist church, the pastor, Rev. A. J. Ware, will preach at 11 o'clock. All are cordially invited to this service.

TERRY

The School of Terry now has two members in the third Rainbow Regiment, Frances Welling and Eugene Welling.

The Red Cross auxiliary has purchased another sewing machine.

With the extra call for Red Cross work the ladies are now going to meet on Tuesday of next week. Regular meeting will be resumed after that on Wednesdays and Fridays.

Mrs. B. N. Hall is able to be at home again. She has been ill for some time of quinsy but is recovering.

TROUTDALE

The Troutdale Ladies' Aid will meet next Wednesday, May 1, with Mrs. T. J. Skirvin, instead of with Mrs. Lumsden, as formerly announced.

The Epworth League will meet at the church next Sunday evening at 6:30, followed by a sermon by the pastor, Rev. F. S. Ford, at 7:30. A cordial welcome will be extended to all.

A Splendid Record Achieved.

H. W. Snashall, president of the Farmers Mutual Fire Relief Association, reports the association has broken all former records in 1917. The annual statement shows 385 new members gained, 17 fire losses paid, aggregating $4911; $1,036,677 of insurance written, one assessment levied, and $700 invested in liberty bonds during the year. The association is entering its 14th year, and has over 4000 members carrying $4,250,000 insurance. It has made an annual saving of over 50 per cent to its members. At the annual meeting in January Andrew Brugger of Gresham was re-elected director for the ninth year. Farmers desiring to join may obtain information from H. W. Snashall, Gresham, R. A, or Herman Loeding, secretary, 409 Stock Exchange Bldg., Portland.—Adv.

Some Good Advice.

"Don't think too much of your own methods. Watch other people's ways and learn from them." This is good advice, especially when bilious or constipated. You will find many people who use Chamberlain's Tablets for these ailments with the best results, and will do well to follow their example.—Adv.

COLUMBIA HEIGHTS

The announcement that G. Chamberlain was going to France in connection with the Y. M. C. A. caused considerable of a stir here. Mr. Chamberlain has established a very satisfactory business on the Highway and it surely will prove a good investment for the right party to take up the business already in such a good shape. His buildings are new and neat looking. Mr. Chamberlain's sacrifice is surely great as he leaves a wife and five little children behind. His war spirit is to be commended, and his many friends are wishing him much success. Mr. Chamberlain has been a member of the Christian church for many years, and was instrumental in the building of the new church here at Corbett heights and foremost in all religious work connected with that institution and no doubt will be greatly missed in this community.

We have reason to be proud of the soldier boys from this neighborhood as several of them has been promoted to more responsible positions. W. Deaver, oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Deaver of this place, was home for a short visit on Saturday and Sunday. He has been promoted to the position as master gunner down at Ft. Stevens and his sole ambition now will be to practice perfect aim with his big guns so as to be able to deliver the crash that will take the scalp of big Bill over there. G. Knieriem, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. Knieriem, is now in France after holding a position as government inspector of camps here and he holds the distinction of having in his possession a personal letter from President Woodrow Wilson in regard to his service.

A. Ross, second son to enlist, of Mr. and Mrs. D. Ross will leave, together with G. Chamberlain, for Camp Lewis in a few days.

Ralph Kincaid, only son of Mrs. Lucy Kincaid of Corbett, was tendered a surprise party on Wednesday evening by a large gathering of friends. Everybody enjoyed the evening and the time passed playing games. Dainty refreshments were served and at midnight friends departed, wishing Mr. Kincaid good luck.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Knight of Corbett heights, are receiving congratulations over the arrival of a baby daughter. The little miss has been named Katherine Evelyn. Mrs. Knight and baby are doing well.

Mrs. Alice Landine, of Portland, was out to spend the week-end with her folks. Mrs. Landine has two beautiful little boys.

County Superintendent Alderson and wife visited the Mountain school last Friday evening and Mr. Alderson gave a fine talk. The entertainment in charge of Miss Ferguson was a fine success, the pupils all doing their parts well. Mr. Cannon spoke in behalf of the liberty bonds. Refreshments were served after the entertainment.

Stand by Our Fighting Men

From hundreds of thousands of American farms, in answer to the call of their country and in obedience to the law of their country, American boys have gone and today are fighting side by side with hundreds of thousands of American boys from the cities and towns of the country, confronting danger and death.

The duty of us who remain at home in safety to afford the means to make these boys powerful and victorious is a most imperative one.

A Unique Suggestion.

A constable in a Vermont town recently rounded up a number of hoboes.

"Come along," he said to them. "You have all got to have a bath."

This announcement was, of course, received with considerable perturbation, especially by the eldest of the men.

"What!" he exclaimed. "A bath! A bath with water?"

"Look here, Mr. Constable," said the apprehensive one. "Couldn't you manage it with one of them vaccum cleaners?"

Constitpation and Indigestion.

These are twin evils. Persons suffering from indigestion are often troubled with constipation. Mrs. Robert Allison, Mattoon, Ill., writes that when she first moved to Mattoon she was a great sufferer from indigestion and constipation. Food distressed her and there was a feeling like a heavy weight pressing on her stomach and chest. She did not rest well at night, and felt worn out a good part of the time. One bottle of Chamberlain's Tablets corrected this trouble so that she has since felt like a different person.—Adv.
