Model Love Letter.

Dr. John Timothy Stone, a Y. M. C. A. war work secretary at Camp Grant, Rockford, Ill., has the distinction of writing a model love letter which scores of soldiers have used with wonderful success.

An exchange remarks that the Mexican crisis is passing. Of course it is. They pass as regularly down there as the moon's phases.

If that German drive on the western front was a defensive—and the kaiser insists his war is a defensive one—we should not like to witness a German offensive.

The kaiser's partnership with Gott on the western front is rather distracting his mind from his alliance with Mahomet on the eastern line.

Serve plenty of potatoes and you won't miss the bread.

Stabilizing Letters.

Y. M. C. A. war work secretaries overseas urge relatives of boys in the service in France to write them as often as possible as the letters from home is the great stabilizer.

Greet First Soldier.

The first soldier to land at a pier in France, June 8, 1917, was met by a Y. M. C. A. secretary and a Y. M. C. A. tent was there for him to make use of when he set foot ashore.

GRESHAM LOCALS

Miss Peggy Highland of Portland spent the week-end with Miss Laura Davis.

Harry Squire, who has been sick for the past week, is reported to be improving.

Mrs. Mary Preston was the dinner guest Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. St. Clair.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Stone have moved into the Helney bungalow on Third street. Mr. Stone will work for the Ekstrom Truck service.

Henry Voss of Medical Lake, Washington visited over Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Walrad. Mr. Voss has sold a big wheat farm and is looking impressed with this country.

Principal and Mrs. Elmer P. Goodwin and Miss Mary Good went to Pleasant Home last Sunday evening, where the latter read a very helpful and interesting paper.

Charlie DeHaven, who went east by way of the Panama Canal last December, has written that he is now on board the U. S. S. Madawaska in Atlantic waters.

The regular meeting of the Women's Christian Temperance Union will meet at the library next Thursday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. All women are invited to attend.

Initials got mixed in a local item in the last Outlook, which gave the credit for the new service flag at the Catholic church to W. R. Kern. The flag was the gift of his father, M. D. Kern.

Harvey Raney, who has been for about a year in California and Arizona, has written his parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. N. Raney, that he has joined the navy. He has gone into training at a California training station.

Mr. and Mrs. John Palmquist had a letter recently from their son Ray, who is practicing with big guns at night with the Field Artillery in France. Mr. Palmquist reports that he has had an early swarm of bees this year, which swarmed on May 1.

H. W. Cooley & Son of the White Knoll poultry yards have been busy this season operating incubators and caring for young chicks. They have hatched over 12,000 chicks and have sold about 9,000. Mr. Cooley says it has been a fine season for hatching and the demand is good.

A Junior League was recently organized in the Methodist Episcopal church, which meets every Friday afternoon at 3:45. Mrs. C. O. Branson and Mrs. A. W. Shipley are in charge. The meetings are interesting and all children between the ages of 8 and 14 are urged to attend.

Mrs. E. T. Wilkes of Rockwood has recently heard from her son, Thomas M. Watson, who is in France and reports that he is well. He is a member of the 13th Co., 2d Motor Mechanics Regiment. The report was current a few weeks ago that he had died of disease in France, but he says that he has not been sick.

Oscar Noreen, who has been for several months in the navy in Atlantic waters, has been promoted to the position of Second Class Gunner's Mate. He likes his work and is glad to do his part in the winning of the war. His parents, and Mrs. E. C. Noreen, received a window card several months ago indicating that their son was serving at the front.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Davis went to Culver in Eastern Oregon last week, where they joined their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Thompson and came back with them by automobile, arriving in Gresham yesterday. While there, they had the pleasure of catching trout in Crooked river. Miss Irene Miller, niece of Mrs. F. W. Fieldhouse accompanied them home from eastern Oregon.

Charles Latourell and wife returned Friday from spending the winter in California. Most of their stay was in San Diego, but they made a trip to Tia Juana on the Mexican border. Their return was by auto over the route through Lakeview, but they were compelled to ship their car from Hood River to Cascade Locks on account of highway being closed.

A recent letter from Herold Kern from France informs his parents that he is now working on gas engines and speeders and doing various repair jobs. He likes the work but is anxious to get to the front. Herold says that a great amount of good work is being done by the Knights of Columbus, the Y. M. C. A., the Red Cross and the Salvation Army. He speaks of free picture shows and church services which are conducted regularly by the K. of C.

A number of Gresham people attended Evening Star grange last Saturday and reported a fine program. The dinner was a "Made in Oregon" repast, everything being grown or manufactured in the state. About twenty-five samples of Oregon products were donated by manufacturers of the state, and were distributed to members of the grange present. Those going from here were Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Kern, Mrs. D. W. Metzger, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Kern, Mrs. R. H. Todd, Judge and Mrs. George W. Stapleton.

The Outlook as received the announcement of the marriage of Miss Ella Grace Walbeck to Walter L. Lund on May 1, at Sioux City, Iowa. They will make their home at Newcastle, Nebraska. The bride is the sister of Mrs. Myrtle Myers of the Gresham grade school. She spent several months here two years ago and made a host of friends, who will join with the Outlook in wishing a long and happy life to the young couple.

A good attendance is anticipated at the meeting of the Women's Home Missionary society tomorrow at the home of Mrs. A. W. Shipley. This is annual mite box opening day and a good program has been arranged in that connection.

Tom Parker, who is serving with the 162d Infantry in France has written Gresham friends that he is very busy and happier than he ever imagined one could be in this world.

District Attorney Walter H. Evans has been secured to make an address at a patriotic meeting to be held at the Methodist Episcopal church on Sunday evening, May 19.
