GARDENING QUESTIONS

treatment, the affected plants should be taken up and burned.

In my last article, I should have said the Early Jewel tomato plants can be bought at any seed store, but the Puget Sound at Lilly's only, unless there has been a change this year. The nights have been too cool to set tomato plants so far. They generally do well if set out later.

Carco bought at the seed stores is diluted 1 part to 125 of water. (1 tablespoonful to 125 spoonfuls of water will last a good while.)

Pyrethrum (not poison to human beings) 1 ounce of the powder to 2 gallons of water. Boiling water should be poured over the powder and let cool before using. It will mix best if first made into a paste with warm water. It may also be used in its full strength as a powder, with fellows or sifter.

Pyrethrum powder dusted well in a room infested with flies, and the room tightly closed, the flies will soon die. Pyrethrum powder is the remedy for fleas also. Any animal having fleas it will not affect.

Nicotine Sulphate.

Nicotine sulphate 1/2 ounce.
Soap 1/2 ounce.
Water 2 gallons.
Arsenate of Lead Solution.
Arsenate of lead 1 ounce.
Water 6 quarts.

Stir well while spraying. This is poisonous to human beings and should not be applied to vegetables soon to be used. As a precaution wash all vegetables well.

Bordeaux Mixture.

Copper sulphate, blue stone or blue vitriol 3 ounces.
Lime 3 ounces.
Water 2 1/2 gallons.

Bordeaux-Arsenate of Lead Combination.

To make this, use Bordeaux mixture instead of water when preparing the arsenate of lead. Add a little soap to the combination.

Paris Green has been used much but arsenate of lead is considered better.

Poisoned Bait.

Wheat bran 1 pound.
White arsenic 1/2 ounce.
Cheap syrup 1 or 2 ounces.
Add an orange or lemon (to make good.) Water to make a thick mash. These solutions can be purchased in concentrated form at seed stores but the home made mixtures are better and cheaper. If one has extensive spraying it is better to make fresh sprays as needed.

FARIS FARM IS SOLD TO SEATTLE RESIDENT

One of the largest deals in farm property in this vicinity for several years, was the sale recently of the J. N. Faris farm to Marion Johnson of Seattle. The farm contains 31 acres and has buildings upon it worth approximately $7,000. It is understood that the purchase price was about $15,000. The deal was put through by John Brown, a local agent.

Mr. Johnson, the purchaser, is a resident of Seattle, where he has been manager of the Washington Children's Home society, of which he was the founder and builder more than 20 years ago. He has a son, Everett A. Johnson, who is a Portland attorney with offices in the Northwestern Bank building.

It is Mr. Johnson's intention to make the property a high-class farm. He will spend about $1000 at once in cattle and hogs so as to make the place an asset from the start. He expects to move here in about two months.

POWELL VALLEY RED CROSS PLANS

At the meeting held under the auspices of the Red Cross last Tuesday afternoon, a committee was appointed to arrange for a patriotic meeting and program to be held at the schoolhouse on the evening of May 25. Plans are now well under way. It is announced that a good program will be given by local talent and that in addition some speaker will be invited to give an address. Refreshments will be served and an offering will be taken for the purpose of raising money with which to buy sewing machines for the Red Cross.

The committee to take care of the Red Cross drive in this district consists of Mrs. Homer Williams, Miss Florence Johnson, Miss Helma Truedson, Miss Lilly Johnson, Mrs. Hally Christensen and Mrs. Ed. Sell. The Red Cross will resume meetings on next Tuesday, May 21. The meeting is called for 1 o'clock sharp and the time will be spent in sewing.

FARM TRAINING SCHOOL WAS BEGUN WEDNESDAY

A branch of the Boys' National Working Reserves has been instituted at the Multnomah county farm by J. W. Brewer, state farm labor specialist, and the training of boys for farm work was begun there Wednesday morning under his direction by competent instructors.

The boys to be trained have been enrolled principally from the Portland high schools, and are boys who have had little or no previous training in farm work. Mr. Brewer has secured adequate equipment in addition to what may be found on the county farm, also a good team of horses from the city of Portland which has been loaned for the work.

About 300 boys are already enrolled and more are expected to sign up as their school term ends. The course is short, lasting only three days, and began Wednesday with 15 boys. On Thursday fifteen more arrived and today the same number. The first class will now go back to Portland. Thus there will be 45 boys in constant training.

When those who have enrolled have all had their three days of training the course will end. County Agent Hall will assist in the work and when farm help is needed he will be able to certify some of these boys for active work. Three days is not a very illuminating course in farm labor, but the boys will get an idea along some of the practical lines and many of them will soon become proficient if given an opportunity.

Road to Happiness.

Be amiable, cheerful and good natured and you are much more likely to be happy. You will find this difficult, if not impossible, however, when you are constantly troubled with constipation. Take Chamberlain's Tablets and get rid of that and it will be easy. These tablets not only move the bowels, but improve the appetite and strengthen the digestion.—Adv.

Some surprises in the want ads.

PORTLAND IS TO HAVE "WAR OF THE ROSES"

While there will be no Rose Festival, yet there will be as stirring a battle of the "whites and reds" as the Yorks and Lancasters ever knew. It will be a bitter, cold and merciless struggle for existence. The plum to be awarded will be leading Red Cross honors in the Second War Fund of the American Red Cross.

Following a suggestion by Robert H. Strong, the teams in the "City Center Campaign" will be divided into divisions—the "Whites" and the "Reds." The "Reds" will wear red roses and the "Whites" white roses.

City Chairman Wilber E. Coman is already facing the problem of "red" leaders, trying to use business affiliation to induce "white" captains, lieutenant-sergeants, corporals and privates to desert color and vice versa. The novel idea of reproducing the medieval war of the Roses in twentieth century, Portland has created immense enthusiasm among Red Cross Leaders.

Women Are Enlisting.

American women are enlisting for service in Y. M. C. A. work overseas. One hundred and fifty are needed immediately. Special qualifications are required as the work is most exacting and exhausting.

Training School at Sea.

The American Y. M. C. A. has developed a training school at sea. On steamers going to France instructors teach secretaries their duties overseas.

The total amount of foodstuffs shipped during March from the United States and Canada to the allies, according to the Food Administration, was about 1,100,000 tons, compared with 750,000 tons in February.

Enlistments in the regular army since April 1, 1917, have been more than 379,000.

KEEP YOUR LIBERTY BONDS
It is quite natural and to be expected that "wild-cat" schemers and "blue-sky" promoters should seek a new field for their activities among the millions of thrifty people who have subscribed to the government War Loans.
Already in many parts of the country beautiful descriptions of the get-rich-quick variety are being prepared and presented for the benefit of the uninitiated. Promoters will cleverly tell, in letter and in person, just how Liberty Bonds can be exchanged for "Big Things" and "Wonderful Opportunities," alleged to pay anywhere from twenty-five to two hundred per cent profit.
Don't give up a dependable security for a hazardous chance.
