TROUTDALE

Evelyn Kendall entertained several of her friends at her home Friday evening. The young people enjoyed themselves with games and dancing, and the dainty lunch served by Mrs. Kendall added to their pleasure. Besides the hostesses those present were Elizabeth and Isabel Low, Merle Monahan, Agnes Seidel, James Seidel, Jack Harlow, Wilford Delaney, Hugh Hurt, and Otto Weller.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Herman Anspach in Portland Sunday, May 26th. Mrs. Anspach who was Miss Edith Cook, has many friends in Troutdale, having often visited her sister, Mrs. L. M. Kummer, when she lived here.

Little "Buddy" Bailey, who was run over by an auto last Wednesday, is getting along fine and they expect to bring him home from the hospital the middle of the week. Buddy is a great favorite in Troutdale, and his many friends are rejoicing with his parents over his apparently miraculous escape with not a bone broken.

Mr. and Mrs. Ran Bailey are both quite ill with the measles. T. J. Skirvin is sick, and it is reported that he is also a victim of the popular malady.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Knarr spent the first of the week at their home here. Mr. Knarr was taking a needed rest from his work in the shipyards.

Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Kummer spent Decoration day at Troutdale.

Many people visited the cemetery here Thursday, and decorated the graves of their relatives and friends. The cemetery looked very neat and well kept, and the many beautiful flowers gave it the appearance of a flower garden in full bloom.

All the members of the 8th grade passed at the recent examination. They are Opal Monahan, Gladys Parker, George Billeter, Fred Billeter, Leland Delaney and Ellery Cummins.

George Wells was down from Camp Lewis Sunday visiting his sisters, Mrs. Geo. Luumsden and Mrs. Harry Berry.

The Red Cross meeting will be on Thursday as usual this week, from 10 a. m. to 5 p. m.

The Ladies' Aid will meet at the Red Cross rooms this week Wednesday afternoon. Regular business meeting and sewing.

George Thomas, of Hood River, spent last Thursday with his brother, C. I. Thomas. He left for Fort McDowell Friday with the Hood River contingent of soldiers. He left his Ford at Hood River to be sold, the proceeds to be used in purchasing war saving stamps.

Clarence Parsons was taken suddenly ill Sunday afternoon with appendicitis. He is under the care of a physician and is resting as easy as can be expected.

The 22-day-old infant of Mr. and Mrs. Will Cummins died yesterday and was buried this afternoon. The young parents have the sincere sympathy of a large circle of friends in their bereavement.

SCENIC

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Duncan during the week were Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Stansberry and Ed. Morgan of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Counsel of Milwaukie, and Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Payne and Mr. and Mrs. Holmes of Leita.

Miss Ellen DeHaven, who spent the week visiting friends, left Saturday evening for Spokane where she will visit her aunt for a few days, then will go to Clairholm, Canada, where her parents are staying.

A wood cutting bee is to be held Thursday at B. C. Altman's to cut wood for the Baptist church. The Ladies' Aid will meet with Mrs. Altman and finish a quilt they have on hand and serve dinner to the wood cutters.

Wm. Miller, of Forest Grove, was a week-end guest of his grandmother and aunt, Mrs. P. M. Miller and Miss Ida.

COLUMBIA HEIGHTS

A transposition of lines in last Tuesday's issue seriously mixed up our soldier boys and their parents. The item referred to boys from this community who are now in France. It should have given them as Charlie Hicks, son of Mrs. W. Hicks; Frank Bell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Grant Bell; George Knieriem, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. Knieriem and Oskar Morgan, who enlisted early in the war and was wounded once while in action.

FAIRVIEW

Mrs. E. A. Steere and daughter Miss Ester of Kallspeil, Montana, are visiting the former's brother, Sam Dixon and family.

Mrs. L. R. Robertson and daughter Mildred of Washougal, Washington, spent a few days here with relatives and friends.

Mrs. Robert Stone, her daughter, Mrs. Noble and children, are visiting in Hood River.

MELROSE AND VICTORY

A public gathering and basket dinner at noon were held on Sunday at the Victory schoolhouse in honor of Carl Alder and Harold McCreary, who departed in the afternoon for the south for military training.

WHO ARE ELIGIBLES FOR SPECIAL WORK

Army men now in training are not eligible for the special work in technical and mechanical training to be conducted at the Oregon Agricultural College and other institutions under contract to train U. S. soldiers. So many inquiries have come to Frank H. Shepherd, district supervisor of the War Department committee on education and special training, from men now in the service asking how they can get transferred to the college training camps that he wired War Department committee on Education and Special Training. In reply to the telegram he has received the following wire from Washington, D. C.:

"Call just about to be issued through local draft boards in Oregon, Washington, and Wyoming for quotas of men for detachment about to be formed at various institutions. Men should be advised to await such call. Local boards will allow five or six days for volunteering before men are drafted to fill quota. After this drafted men can be locally inducted only to fill vacancies caused by rejections of men so selected. No provision for enlisted men. Men desiring to be locally inducted to fill vacancies will apply to commanding officers of institutions who have necessary instruction and forms including induction order."

It will be seen from the Washington telegram that at the present time the training ranks are to be filled by men now not in active training or service, and that at this time at least no provision has been made for training of any other in these special classes.

FUEL WEEK IS PASSING. ORDER YOUR FUEL NOW

Portland, Ore., June 3.—Yesterday marked the beginning of Fuel Week in Oregon. It has been officially proclaimed by Governor Withycombe as the time for all citizens to order their fuel supplies for winter use.

Two days have gone by and the week will not be one for brass bands and parades, according to Fuel Administrator Holmes, but rather one for serious activities designed to fill the fuel wants of people and industry early, to the end that the strain on already overburdened railroads can be relieved.

"The best procession I can imagine" said Holmes "is one of citizens on the march to the fuel dealers, and a line of fuel wagons delivering their contents to the homes of Oregonians."

"The people will help themselves and the Government a lot by ordering their fuel now. With orders booked, dealers will be in position to make intelligent estimates as to the wants of their patrons, and the administration in turn will be able to secure proper fuel distribution.

"The prospects for a shortage this fall are such that every citizen will do well to heed the warning and not delay. Thousands, I am glad to say, have already got their fuel ordered and delivered. Others should do the same or chance heatless days later."

Fuel Week is being observed throughout America on request of the National Fuel Administration.

SUPPER AND DANCE BENEFIT RED CROSS

The Pleasant Home Red Cross has received into its treasury the sum of $155.50, as the result of the supper and dance given at the hall at Orient last Saturday night. The supper, given by the Red Cross, netted $59.50. The material for the supper were donated, so the receipts were practically clear. The members of the Red Cross auxiliary are grateful to all those who so willingly and liberally donated for the supper.

The O. T. T. C. girls, who arranged the dance which followed the supper, turned over to the Red Cross the proceeds, which amounted to $96. Both organizations extend thanks to the grange for the use of their hall. The girls will give another dance on the evening of June 22, the proceeds of which will go to the Red Cross.

CRADICK SERVICE

GRAMMAR GRADE MEN HAVE OPPORTUNITY

Oregon is called upon for army volunteers—309 of them—from grammar school graduates who have had some experience along mechanical lines and some aptitude for mechanical work.

These 309 men are wanted for special army mechanical work, following a course of training that will be given them at Government expense.

Draft registrants who are qualified for this service and wish to volunteer should present themselves immediately to their local boards for induction, according to instructions received from the War Department by Adjutant General John M. Williams. After June 7, no volunteers will be accepted.

"The men selected for this service will receive a course of training at Government expense, fitting them to serve in army positions," says the War Department order, "requiring knowledge of auto mechanics, general mechanics, blacksmithing, sheet metal working, plumbing, carpentry and radio operating incident to many kinds of military service, both at the front and behind the lines.

"The men taking this course will receive thorough instructions which will be of great personal value in working their way ahead, both in the army and in civil life.

"This is an exceptional opportunity for energetic, ambitious men. Qualified registrants should present themselves to their local boards for voluntary induction. When volunteers present themselves, local boards will induct qualified men until their allotment has been filled.

"The voluntary period will continue until June 7. After June 7, no more volunteers will be accepted."

Sour Stomach.

This is a mild form of indigestion. It is usually brought on by eating too rapidly or too much, or of food not suited to your digestive organs. If you will eat slowly, masticate your food thoroughly, eat but little meat and none at all for supper, you will more than likely avoid the sour stomach without taking any medicine whatever. When you have sour stomach take one of Chamberlain's Tablets to aid digestion.—Adv.

Whooping Cough.

In this disease it is important that the cough be kept loose and expectoration easy, which can be done by giving Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Mrs. P. H. Martin, Para, Ind., writes, "My two daughters had whooping cough. I gave them Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and it worked like a charm."—Adv.
