Cholera Morbus.

This is a very painful and dangerous disease. In almost every neighborhood someone has died from it before medicine could be obtained or a physician summoned. The right way is to have a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy in the house so as to be prepared for it. Mrs. Charles Eneyart, Huntington, Ind., writes: "During the summer of 1911 two of my children were taken sick with cholera morbus. I used Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy and it gave them immediate relief."—Adv.

PLEASANT VIEW

The Gladstone chautauqua programs have come and it looks as though it would be bigger and better than ever.

The Misses Isabel and Bessie Lowe spent the week-end at home.

Mr. Hult had a couple of cows poisoned recently. An analysis of their stomachs revealed that they had been given a big dose of arsenic. Whoever administered it made a mistake in their effort to do a good job, and gave too large a dose. It almost looks as though all the believers in German frightfulness don't live across the big pond.

Greely Webber and nephew, Mr. Kenney, of Owatonna, Minnesota, made a short visit on Saturday with his boyhood friend, Ed Woodard.

The Misses Hamlin and Beryl, of Portland, and Elizabeth Seidle spent Sunday with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Seidle.

Because of lack of materials, the Red Cross meetings will be discontinued for a time. Even though decoration day was a holiday, a few of the Red Cross ladies concluded to spend their Thursday afternoon in the usual way. There were only eight of them but they put out a record amount of work. Some went home at the usual time, 5 o'clock, and the rest stayed enough later to make the average time for the eight 4 1/2 hours. In that time they made six pairs of pajamas outright, put pockets and hems on five coats and all the button holes and buttons on the six suits. Can some other auxiliary offer a better showing?

Ed Nelson, Ernest Peterson and Donald Woodard invited in about fifty of their friends to spend the evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Woodard, Saturday, June 15. Dancing in their lovely big living room was the order of the evening. Hooverized sandwiches, cake and ice cream were served at a late hour and everyone went home feeling that the boys and Mr. Woodard's had been royal entertainers, and one glimpse of the happy smiling faces of the boys and girls was proof that they had enjoyed a fine time.

He kept about for a few days, but in so doing he would loosen the dressings, till the doctor ordered him to go to bed in the hospital. He is in the Sellwood hospital, where he is pretty ill from the burn.

Mrs. L. A. Harlow spent several days last week in Portland attending the Eastern Star convention. She had the honor of being appointed grand warden for the coming year. A reception is to be given in honor of Mrs. Harlow by the Troutdale chapter at their lodge rooms next Saturday evening, to which members and their families are invited.

Those who attended the county council of the Parent-Teacher circle from Troutdale last Saturday were Mrs. A. D. Kendall, Mrs. L. A. Harlow, Mrs. J. A. Larsson, Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Skirvin.
