It Is Just What Uncle Sam Wants

At the request of the U. S. Food Administration our Company has loaned one of our Modern Electric Ranges to be used for the Food Conservation Demonstrations now being conducted in the Liberty Temple.

Do you want any stronger approval of any cooking device than this? Uncle Sam asked us for an Electric Range because it bills the bill better than any other Cooking Device made.

We urge all housewives interested in the patriotic service of their country as well as all who want their kitchens equipped with the most modern, convenient and reliable cooking apparatus to visit the Liberty Temple and see for themselves just what an Electric Range will do to reduce their household burdens.

GRESHAM LOCALS

Mr. and Mrs. George Page have bought a home in Rose City Park and will take possession in a short time.

Mrs. D. R. Shoemaker has returned from the hospital in Portland where she recently underwent an operation.

Dr. Emily F. Bolcolm left today for a month's vacation. She will return to her practice on or before September 10.

Mrs. Earl Linn and a friend, Miss Hill, from Astoria were week-end guests of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Burch.

Mrs. C. M. Zimmerman and family and Mrs. O. A. Eastman left today for Gladstone Park, where they will camp during the Chautauqua session.

W. H. Harris, proprietor of the Mount Scott Herald and C. D. Minton, Portland manager of the Pacific Homestead were Outlook callers last Friday afternoon.

The Camp Fire girls will meet at the library on Wednesday evening at 7:30 o'clock to make plans for a week-end hike. All members are urged to be present.

Mrs. Catherine Harman and Mrs. H. M. German, of Lents, came to Gresham this morning and will occupy the former's cottage on Powell street for a few weeks.

First Lieutenant C. A. Aylsworth of the Regular Army is visiting with his brother, E. W. Aylsworth. Lieutenant Aylsworth is stationed at a training camp in California.

Mrs. Clark Radford, of Boring, was in Gresham on Saturday, calling on friends. Mr. and Mrs. Radford moved to Boring recently, where Mr. Radford is employed as assistant substation operator.

The business meeting and picnic of the Baptist Missionary society will not be held this month as planned, on account of the sickness of some of the members and the urgency of work in caring for the fruit.

Ray Frohman, who reported this end of the county for the Oregon Journal a few years ago, was a caller at the Outlook office recently. Mr. Frohman is now special feature writer on the San Francisco Examiner.

The regular meeting of the Women's Christian Temperance Union will be held at the library next Thursday afternoon at 2:30. All members are urgently requested to send in the proceeds of the soap sale on that day.

Ernest Brugger enjoyed a brief furlough last week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Brugger. Ernest is making good at the aviation school in St. Paul, where he is in training, and has been given a responsible position.

Ernest Christensen and a friend from the spruce forest at Sequim, Washington, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Hally Christensen on the 4th. Louis Christensen, who is in training at Benson Polytechnic visited relatives here on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Kottke of Hayfield, Minnesota visited over Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Mark Nickerson at the home of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Honey. Mrs. Kottke has visited here before as Miss Harriett Davidson.

The regular meeting of the Women's Home Missionary society will be held at the Methodist Episcopal church on Wednesday afternoon, July 10 at 2:30 o'clock. The August meeting is planned for the home of Mrs. Thos. Wiles.

Mrs. Ethel Miller, daughter of D. L. McLain of Gresham, who has been teaching at Lakeview, Coos county, has sent word that she is taking her summer vacation in the railroad office there as ticket agent. She expects to come home for a visit in September.

Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Astell returned to their home in Gresham on Tuesday of last week from Venice, California, where they have been for nearly two years past. They left Venice on June 17 and drove all the way in their automobile, spending several days on the road in camping and fishing. They will again make Gresham their home.

A special to the Oregonian on Sunday informed the public that B. W. King of Gresham had been elected as superintendent of the St. Helens public schools. Many persons thought for awhile that it was Milo C. King, the only person of that name known here, but the latter says he is not the man. There is probably a mistake in the name of the town where B. W. King lives.

Some surprises in the want ads.

Mrs. Jas. Sterling entertained last week her brother, Byron Conkle, who was last year principal of the Camas, Washington high school. Mr. Conkle has recently undergone a surgical operation which he hopes will enable him to join the army.

Gresham grange has been invited to visit Lents grange in a body for dinner on Saturday next. While not everyone can get away it is expected that quite a number will avail themselves of the chance to sample the good things that Lents is famous for providing.

W. W. Yoe, of Portland, is the new agent of the Portland Railway Light & Power company in Gresham.

Raise Ducks.

A steer reaches the beefsteak stage at the age of three years. A hog is ready to lay down his life for the frying pan at the age of 1 year. A chicken becomes a serviceable 2-pounder when it is four months old. But it takes a duckling only three months to attain a weight of six pounds and be ready for the market. Therefore, a short cut in the program to provide meat for the American people in a hurry is to raise ducks and more ducks in all parts of the country, according to P. Q. Foy, a New York provision market expert, who talks by the book in matters close to the tummies of men.

"I wouldn't suggest for a minute that anybody should abandon raising cattle, hogs, and sheep and go in for ducks," Mr. Foy said, "but I do believe that the quickest way to produce the necessary supplies of meat food is for all who can to turn to duck raising. For every pound of pork that can be raised for the market in three months, just so many pounds of beef, pork and other animal foods can be saved for another time or for mouths that will need it more than the persons who dine on roast duck.

"Here's where the economy of raising ducks comes in. A breeder duck will lay from 75 to 80 eggs a year. Probably the hatch would be from 50 to 60 ducklings. At the end of three months those ducklings would weigh 300 to 350 pounds. The wholesale value now is 23 cents a pound, and figuring at this price the worth of the ducks to the grower would be $84 to $100.80. If the mother duck weighs six pounds she will have raised 50 times her weight.

"Now take the calf, which at birth, weighs 50 pounds. At the end of three months it will tip the scales at 150 pounds. The market value of veal now is 17 cents a pound, and thus the calf would be worth $25.70. The calf will weigh 300 pounds at the end of the year, and it has taken the cow 12 months to produce less than one-fifth of her weight.

"A breeding sow will weigh 300 pounds. Her litter of pigs generally runs from nine to 12. Eight is a large average of the pigs that live. At the end of a year these pigs will weigh 200 pounds each. Thus a breeding sow in 12 months has produced more than five times her weight.

"It will be seen therefore, that the quickest route by which we can get a meat supply, adequate for our purposes, is by the establishment of duck farms. This is one line that the government has ignored, although it has advocated poultry raising.

"Down on Long Island seven or eight duck growers went out of business this past year, because of the high price of feed. About 40 other Long Island growers raised more than 1,000,000 ducks weighing 6,000,000 pounds or about 400 carloads, during the year. One grower on two farms raises 150,000 ducks annually. Ducks can be raised anywhere with success where there is plenty of fresh water and light loamy or sandy soil.

The Old Trick Didn't Work.

The fiction of the friend who is going to occupy the seat in the railway train that one has really secured as an extra for oneself sometimes works and sometimes doesn't. A passenger hurrying along the platform just before the train started, flung himself upon a seat that was already occupied by a large bag.

"That seat is taken," snapped a morose old gentleman; "my friend has kept it with his bag."

"Indeed," said the wily passenger affably; then I'll occupy it till he comes."

Of course the friend never came and therefore, just as the train was moving out of the station the wily passenger seized the bag and deliberately threw it out of the window.

"What are you doing with the bag sir?" thundered the old gentleman, furiously.

"Anything the matter?" inquired the other calmly. "You don't want your friend to lose his bag, do you?"

Following a jaunt into the country last evening we are this morning more than ever convinced that we are going to bite into a luscious cherry pie on some fine Sunday afternoons next winter.

TRACTOR MEN WANT TWO HUNDRED ACRES

There was a meeting of the implement and tractor dealers of the Northwest in Portland last Friday. It was held at the Commercial club rooms and was largely attended.

O. W. Tarr of Gresham, president of the Farm Tractor & Implement Co., was there. He reports that a movement was started to hold an exhibit somewhere this coming fall and that a tract of 200 acres will be needed for demonstration purposes.

Mr. Tarr is trying to locate that many acres in eastern Multnomah for the exhibition.

Gets Great Welcome.

Rev. Jas. Webster, late of Manchuria, went to France to do Y. M. C. A. work among the Chinese labor contingents. When he spoke Chinese to them they shouted, "Laò sien sheng chih fan la?" which means, "Hello, old man! How are you?"

Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy

Now is the time to buy a bottle of this remedy so as to be prepared in case that any one of your family should have an attack of colic or diarrhoea during the summer months. It is worth a hundred times its cost when needed.—Adv.
