GRESHAM LOCALS

Mrs. Henry Griffin, of Cottrell, was a welcome caller at the Outlook office on Wednesday.

Mrs. Ernest Thom and Mrs. Eugene Fowler of Hammond are spending a few days visiting with their mother, Mrs. W. C. Burch.

Chas. Powell, who has been confined to his bed for some time, is so much improved as to be able to sit up a part of the time.

Rev. J. Montcalm Brown and N. O. Fuller attended an inspiring meeting in Oregon City yesterday in the interest of missionary and educational work.

Mrs. S. B. Hall recently left for Pittsburg, Pa., where she expects to spend a few weeks. She was called to her mother's bedside, who has been quite sick for some time.

There will be a special meeting of the fair board next Monday afternoon. Some business of importance is the reason for the extra call.

Miss Helen Hoss spent Saturday and Sunday last at the home of R. H. Currin in Currinsville.

Word has just been received by Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Hall that Capt. A. S. Hall is confined in Base Hospital No. 1, Paris. Captain Hall went overseas several weeks ago in command of the 56th Regiment U. S. Engineers, a Searchlight Regiment.

B. W. Emery underwent an operation yesterday at Good Samaritan hospital for the removal of a troublesome growth on one of his hands. The operation was satisfactory. It was performed by Dr. Ong, assisted by Dr. Mark Emery.

Mrs. J. J. Ryan entertained yesterday her sister, Mrs. Annie Ponney, her niece, Mrs. Ruth Bowder and baby of Portland, also Mr. and Mrs. P. Nelson of Hoquiam, Washington. The party spent the day today picking wild blackberries in the fields near Gresham.

W. P. Nelson of Hoquiam, Wash., visited Gresham yesterday in a beautiful Dodge sedan car and stopped at the Belt confectionery. When he re-entered his car he left the door open and the first awning post took it off, scattering broken glass all over the sidewalk.

W. G. Crockett and family, who went from Rockwood to Lebanon eight years ago, are spending the summer here. They went from Lebanon to New Mexico, returning from there to California. They drove here in their own car and have been calling on old acquaintances during the present week.

Mr. Coffea, from the Emerson-Brantingham company tractor factory at Rockford, Ill., has been in Gresham this week the guest of O. W. Tarr. He is looking over the field and helping to establish the local branch at 320 East Yamhill street. Three men will go on the road next week to sell tractors, of which the second shipment has just arrived.

Toru Aoki, the little son of Mr. and Mrs. M. Aoki, living on the Emil Olsen place, was drowned in Beaver Creek on Wednesday. The little boy and his sister were playing in the creek, when he got beyond his depth. The little girl tried to save him and nearly lost her own life in doing so. The funeral was conducted today at Carlson's undertaking chapel. The body was cremated.

Frank Jones has received a letter from his daughter, Mrs. Pearl Mack of Schenectady, New York, telling of the enlistment of her husband, P. L. Mack, in the ambulance corps. Mr. Mack is above draft age, but felt that the boys over there need his services. He has had five years' military experience, which will shorten his training at this time. He will train at Allentown, Pa. Mrs. Mack may return to Gresham later.

Rev. J. Montcalm Brown has been granted a month's vacation by the official board of the Methodist church and will spend a part of the time visiting relatives in California. It has been decided to omit the preaching services entirely next Sunday. Sunday school will meet as usual at 10 o'clock and Epworth League at 7 o'clock. Miss Mabel Shipley will lead the League meeting. Dr. H. J. Talbot of Kimball school of Theology, Salem, has consented to preach on Sunday morning, July 28. Announcements for other dates will be made later.

Mrs. A. Hughes has received a letter from her son Everett, who has arrived safely overseas with the 46th hospital unit. The letter was written on shipboard and told of an enjoyable trip. One item of interest mentioned was the daily news report which was made up from wireless messages and distributed by a Y. M. C. A. secretary. Sporting and war news divided the interest of the boys.

Mrs. Fred Powell, who was taken to a private hospital in a serious condition a few days ago, is reported to be slightly improved. She is suffering from peritonitis and on Wednesday it was thought that her chances for recovery were slight, but her condition became more favorable yesterday and reports this morning were that she was holding her own.

Miss Marie Misz, who has been for the past week or two at her home in Portland was in Gresham yesterday looking after business interests. Miss Misz plans to put on a special sale for one day only on the day of the Grange field meet. Her advertisement in another column offers some good bargains.

Mrs. Kent and Mrs. Kattleman of Portland, mother and sister of Mrs. S. P. Bittner, formerly of Gresham, have rented the Wirtz house on Hood avenue and Third street, where they will camp for a month.

Mrs. E. G. Kardell and little daughter, of Manzinita, are guests at the home of Mrs. L. T. Lusted. Mrs. Lineman and daughter, of Lents, are also at the same place for a few weeks.

In a letter ordering the renewal of the Outlook, Mrs. J. A. Davidson of Boyd, formerly of Gresham, said: "We feel that we can eat war bread better than do without the Outlook."

Ed. Smith, son of Percy Smith of Gresham, is in the contingent to report at Camp Lewis next Monday. He was registered in Morrow county and comes from there to the camp.

Wanted to Keep Old Russia.

I met a Caucasian princess here in Petrograd, Ernest Poole writes in the Saturday Evening Post. She sat next to me one day in the small press gallery of the hall in which the duma used to meet. Now in its place was the council. The woman by my side I learned, was here as a correspondent for a social revolutionist paper down in the Caucasus.

I had been in the Caucasus years before, and we spoke of the old town where she had been born, high up in the heart of the mountains. The Russians call the women there "the diamonds of Russia," and this woman was one of these. I was curious to learn what had drawn her to a scene like this, so many thousand miles from home. She explained that her husband had been killed in the first year of the war and that after that she had thrown herself into war activities.

"We don't want to desert the Russian cause. We are all in favor of pushing the war through to the end," she told me. "And at the same time we are doing our part in the work of the revolution. The president of the council here, and half the other leaders, too, are Caucasians. We are doing our share. But at the same time we want to be free from too much rule by Petrograd."

"What do you mean by autonomy? How free do you want to be?" I asked.

"Tell me about your United States. You have states, and a nation, too," she said.

I tried to explain the relations between our states and the federal government.

"We wish more than that," she said; "we want more independence."

I replied that in America we were moving just the other way—toward more centralized government—and I tried to explain how the growth of railroads, factories, mills and huge interstate corporations was forcing us to grant more and more control to the men in Washington.

"But," she rejoined, "we don't want an ugly land of mills. We want our Russia to stay as it is—I mean with its beautiful fields and its forests, its rivers and its mountains. You have seen the Caucasus and I know you will feel what I mean."

VAST SUMS COLLECTED AS INTERNAL REVENUE

The internal-revenue collections for the fiscal year ending June 30 last totaled $3,672,000,000. The collections for the preceding year were $800,000,000. This year's collections exceed by nearly $200,000,000 the estimates made when the war revenue measures were passed by congress last year.

Four thousand persons were employed in the work and the total cost of the collection was only $12,000,000. The patriotism roused by the war contributed largely to the success of the work, and the taxpayers assisted and co-operated with the government.

A determined effort will be made to bring to book tax evaders in every part of the country. The treasury already has evidence against a large number who have sought to evade taxes, and by checking up contracts and with other data the government expects finally to discover and punish many tax evaders, as well as recover large amounts of revenue illegally withheld.

Almost the Speed Limit.

"At Chattanooga," said a veteran of the Civil War, "one of the men in my company left early in the action and no one saw him till after the battle, when he appeared in camp unwounded and unabashed. Some of the boys accused him of running away, but he wouldn't admit it."

"I only retreated in good order," he declared.

"I heard of the matter, and a few days later I asked him if he had any idea how fast he had 'retreated.'"

"Well, I'll tell you, cap'n, he said."

"If I had been at home and going after the doctor, folks that see me pass in 'r would have thought my wife was right sick!"

Some surprises in the want ads.

Proud of "Reminder Book."

"What I used to do when I put anything away," said Mr. Blinginton, "was to bestow it with great care in some place where I would forget it completely. More than once when I have wanted something that I had thus carefully put away I have had to tear the house apart to find it."

"So it was until I evolved my 'Things Put Away' book which has proved to be a great help and comfort."

"Now when I put anything away I first enter it in that book, which is, of course, indexed, so that I won't have to look through a long list of things when I want to find anything."

"Once, soon after I started the book I put that away somewhere very carefully, and then forgot where I had put it and had a terrible time looking it up; but since then I have kept it in a spot where it can't fail to come under my eye daily; and it works like a charm."

"Really, I should say that for anybody who like myself is apt to forget things and a 'Things Put Away' book would be indispensable."

A Splendid Record Achieved.

H. W. Snashall, president of the Farmers Mutual Fire Relief Association, reports the association has broken all former records in 1917. The annual statement shows 383 new members gained, 17 fire losses paid, aggregating $4911; $1,036,677 of insurance written, one assessment levied, and $700 invested in Liberty bonds during the year. The association is entering its 14th year, and has over 4000 members carrying $4,250,000 insurance. It has made an annual saving of over 50 per cent to its members. At the annual meeting in January Andrew Brugger of Gresham was re-elected director for the ninth year. Farmers desiring to join may obtain information from H. W. Snashall, Gresham, R. A., or Herman Loeding, secretary, 409 Stock Exchange Bldg., Portland—Adv.

WARTIME INSURANCE APPRECIATED BY ALL

Secretary McAduo has received the following cablegram from General Pershing:

"All ranks of the American Expeditionary Forces appreciate deeply the generous measure the government has taken to provide of which more than 90 per cent of men have taken out insurance. To wisely provision for their loved ones heartens our men and strengthens the bonds that unite the army and people in our strong determination to triumph in our most righteous cause."

The Bureau of War-Risk Insurance up to June 28 has written $21,566,000,000 insurance, representing 2,570,455 applications. The average amount of insurance applied for is $8,387, and in some battalions and regiments, some in France and some here, every man has taken out insurance. In some units every man is insured for the maximum $10,000.

One of the American generals says that this government insurance is an element of victory. All liberty bond holders and all purchasers of War Savings stamps may feel that they had a part in this insurance—the most just and humane provision ever made by any nation for its fighting men.

In Italy a government tax—a special one-cent stamp—must be affixed to all restaurant or cafe bills amounting to more than 20 cents.

It Is Just What Uncle Sam Wants

At the request of the U. S. Food Administration our Company has loaned one of our Modern Electric Ranges to be used for the Food Conservation Demonstrations now being conducted in the Liberty Temple.

Do you want any stronger approval of any cooking device than this?

Uncle Sam asked us for an Electric Range because it fills the bill better than any other Cooking Device made.

We urge all housewives interested in the patriotic service of their country as well as all who want their kitchens equipped with the most modern, convenient and reliable cooking apparatus to visit the Liberty Temple and see for themselves just what an Electric Range will do to reduce their household burdens.
