

SCHNEIDER IS HEARD FROM OVER THE SEA

Dear Mother:—Your letter came day before yesterday and I should have answered it last night only I did not get started until late so put it off until tonight—you see the lights go out at a certain time each night, and the only thing to do is to "roll in." Am glad you sent Ike's address, for now I can write to him. Just learned also that one of the Brown boys of Gresham is in this part of the country, (he was in Paris but is now a little nearer my location) and I intend writing to him in a few days; he is in the banking department of Wells Fargo & Company, I believe.

Yes, it's a busy place over here all right, but I wouldn't want to be this far away from home without being busy. I enjoy my work and have a good deal of time for study beside. I have a good place to work and comfortable quarters to live in, much better in fact than I had expected to find under the circumstances, even have a genuine mattress and springs to sleep on and that is most certainly appreciated.

We traveled over some historic country on our way here. France is a beautiful country and I have been fortunate in seeing a good deal of it. I went for a hike one Sunday not long ago and was able to see in the distance the birth place of one of the most noted girls of France. Everything is so quaint and old fashioned here. The buildings are of stone, brick, or tile construction and some of them look like they might have been built shortly after the beginning of time. The house and barn is built in one and the same building, and you have to look twice to tell the barn from the house and vice versa—it's no doubt very fine for the cows, horses, etc., and I presume 'tis all right when one becomes used to it but personally I prefer the customs of good old Oregon. One of our boys drew a cartoon of a Yankee sight-seeing in a small town near here. The Yank was represented to be walking on stilts and wearing a gas mask—the cartoon was not so badly overdrawn at that, either.

If you should happen to hear any of the girls back home worrying for fear they will have no chance to get married after the war is over, just tell them to rest easy for if the English and French girls I saw during my travels can be taken for a sample of the beauty they have over here, there will be plenty of single men left when the war is over. I have yet to find a solitary Yankee who intends to get married and stay over here even though they do have such beautiful country.

FOURTH LIBERTY LOAN SOLICITORS AT WORK

Solicitors for the Fourth Liberty Loan are at work over the county today, rounding up those who have not taken the opportunity to subscribe during the few days in which the campaign has been under way. The results cannot be given in today's Outlook but it is believed that a large amount will be pledged and that the county will go over the top. As on former occasions, the work has been under the general supervision of the roadmasters, who have appointed captains and other helpers.

In Jas. Hillyard's district, the captains appointed are Chas. Cleveland, George Kenney, Benj. Cameron and Frank Jones for the town of Gresham, and Ralph Stanley, A. McMillan, Willard Bliss and Jas. Sterling for the territory west of Gresham to the Rockwood road and south of Gresham to the county lines.

SAW WOUNDED MEN ON THE WAY HOME

Ernest Quesinberry has just returned home from Washington, D. C. and expects to enter North Pacific Dental College soon. He stopped to see the Chicago Allied War Exposition and also the Pendleton Round-up. There were eleven soldiers on the train that were wounded while going over the top and were being sent to San Francisco for medical treatment. Among them was Charles Wilson of Portland who was Forst; Jenne's chum while in France. He left Portland with Forrest and remained with him until wounded on the battlefield.

PREMIUMS WON AT COUNTY FAIR

MANY PRIZES ARE WON IN AGRICULTURE

A full list of all awards made at the Multnomah county fair is given herewith, excepting those made to the city and country schools in the industrial division. These latter are yet in the hands of the secretary of the association but are not being made public at this time owing to some misunderstanding in regard to the difference between individual and club exhibits in the country schools, and the further fact that the money for one-half the awards on the city school exhibits has not been received here as was agreed upon. The list will be published as soon as possible. Following are all other awards made:

REMARKABLE CULT FINDS EXPRESSION

Dr. Alzamon Ira Lucas and wife of Portland were visitors at the fair on Saturday and called at the Outlook office. Readers of this paper saw his "Thinkograph" advertisement last week and probably wondered what it all meant.

Dr. Lucas represents a new line of thought which is not at all visionary. He has remarkable powers and has been of great help to many persons in trouble; also of much assistance to the juvenile court and to the circuit courts in helping to solve some of the social problems.

The doctor is a Hindu-German on his mother's side and comes from Cherokee Indian and French stock on his father's side. He was born in Rhode Island.

Mrs. Lucas is of attractive appearance and impresses one with her intelligence. She is a mixture of bloods also, her mother being English-Scottish, while her father is a Hebrew of French and German extraction. She was born in Washington City.

They have been residing in Portland for the past three years and have two interesting children. The oldest is a girl, 2 1/2 years old, the other a six-months' boy who has been named Alzamon Ira Lucas II. When the doctor was asked as to what nationality his son might be he answered promptly and proudly "American."

Dr. Lucas has a professional slogan—"We all live in heaven on earth." He will be at the state fair this week where he will be found in the new pavilion.

DIED AT CAMP LEWIS BURIED AT MT. SCOTT

Eddie E. Dakken, only son of Mrs. Axel Wallen, living on the Base Line near Gresham, died Thursday, September 19, at Camp Lewis, where he went about a month ago in the service of his country. He contracted pneumonia and when the word came on Sunday, September 15, that he was seriously ill, his mother went to him and remained until the end, and accompanied the body here, where it was held at Carlson's undertaking parlors until the funeral.

The deceased was 32 years of age, having been born in Sweden in February, 1886. He came to America when six years of age and grew to manhood in Minnesota. A few years ago he came west and worked in various places in Washington, Oregon and California but since the first of the present year he had made his home with his stepfather and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Axel Wallen. His death coming so soon after being inducted into the service is particularly sad, but it is felt that he has given his life for his country as certainly as if he had fallen on the battle field.

The funeral was conducted yesterday afternoon from Carlson's chapel by Rev. S. G. Roper and the burial was in Mt. Scott Park cemetery.

Card of Thanks.

We wish to extend our thanks to our neighbors and friends for their help and sympathy in the death of our son, Eddie E. Dakken, and for the beautiful floral offerings which covered his last resting place.

MR. AND MRS. AXEL WALLEN.

MRS. GERTRUDE M. KERR PASSED AWAY TODAY

Mrs. Gertrude M. Kerr, wife of John B. Kerr, passed away this morning, following an acute attack of diabetes. Mr. and Mrs. Kerr came to Gresham a few months ago on account of the ill health of the latter, as they felt that the quiet surroundings here would be a benefit to her. They did not dream that her condition was so serious and when the sudden attack came on Sunday morning, medical aid was summoned and Mrs. D. S. Johnson was secured to nurse her, but to no avail.

The deceased was a daughter of the late Sheriff Redgrave of British Columbia. She was born in Canada 43 years ago. She was married 22 years ago to her now bereaved husband. She leaves also one brother in British Columbia, one in Richmond Virginia and a sister in New York. She was a member of the Episcopalian church.

The funeral will be held from the Methodist Episcopal church on Thursday afternoon at 2:30, Rev. J. Montcalm Brown officiating. The interment will be in Mt. Scott Park cemetery.
