REPORTS.
The latest estimate of the potato crop for the United States is 385,000,000 bushels as compared with 442,536,000 bushels last year.
The clover seed crop is reported very short this year and it may be necessary to import into the state for use next spring. We usually ship out.
Market reports show that over twice as much hay has been shipped into Portland up to date as in years before. At present the price seems to be pretty well established and the supply about equal to the demand.

SANDY BLUFF
Peter Hauglum came down from Camp Lewis Saturday evening, returning Sunday evening.
A good many from this locality visited the fair at Gresham.
Jesse Radford is slowly improving after another operation.
Callers at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Browning Sunday were, Mr. and Mrs. Mose Widner, Mr. and Mrs. Kretz, Mr. and Mrs. J. Matthews, Mrs. Elsie Andrews and children and Mrs. Laura Barnes.
Albert Ault visited home over Sunday, driving out on his motorcycle.
Fifty orphans have been adopted by the University of Wisconsin, and more than $2,000 raised for their support. Instead of taking a child here and there, the committee made arrangements through the Madison committee for relief to take all the children in one town, and the village of Montreuil sous Bois was selected.

STANDARD OIL COMPANY (California)
Mr. C. A. McCarty, Special Agent, Standard Oil Company, Gresham

Gladly Took "War" Bread.

"Oh, mother, must I get war bread?" Little daughter had been asked to go to the bakery for bread for her school lunch.
"It's wheatless day, dear."
"But I don't like war bread. It's so dark and different. And the rules aren't for children, are they?"
"No, but you know we were asked to send one million bushels of wheat to the allies by May first. We have given our word, and our baker is trying to help by making this special bread, which has almost no white flour in it whatever. But, of course, if you don't feel you can help in this way, you may buy a lighter loaf."
Little Daughter started off. In a few moments she returned. Mother unwrapped the package. There was the small, dark loaf, indeed different, but really most palatable and nourishing. Little Daughter's eyes were glowing.
"Mother, the baker asked me if I liked war bread, and I said I did."
Mother looked up in astonishment. "But, my dear, you just said—"
"Yes, mother, I know I just said to you I didn't like it, but I was afraid if I told it to the baker, he would think I was a German."

Large Feet and Bad Cough.

Muggins was the possessor of very large feet and a very bad cough. He entered a bootshop and the young assistant turned the shop upside down to find something to fit his "out size" Muggins had just tried on the fortieth pair when he started coughing.
"It's a nasty cough you've got," said the assistant.
"Yes," gasped Muggins. "Doctor says I've one foot in the grave now."
"I shouldn't worry," said the assistant. "You'll never get the cough in; it's too big."
