

PROTECT THEM

YOU KNOW the fate of the children of Belgium and Northern France.

Protect your own children from a like fate.

Our soldiers are ready to fight for them - - to die for them - - to make the world a fit place for children to live in.

If you can't fight, support those who can.

The Roumanian crown prince has fled from Roumanian territory and arrived in Odessa, according to the Ukrainian newspaper, Krewshai-mysl. Queen Marie of Roumania is looking forward hopefully for the time to come when the Roumanian army can again take the field against the German oppressors of her little country. It is known that she will rally her army whenever the time seems favorable and the entente allies request it.

Stalling on Public Work.

Collier's publishes a letter from a workman in a San Francisco shipyard, who signs his name and gives his address.

Here are some things he says can be seen in a shipyard: 75 per cent of the men doing 50 per cent of a fair day's work, losing thereby to the country at least $3,000 per day on one single ship.

He would have heard foremen tell their men: "Now, take it easy and hang on to this."

He would have heard at every turn men boasting how little they have done and what a pay check they received.

You may ask how do I know all these things. Because I am one of the chief offenders. I am working, or rather stalling, in a large shipyard.

The last time I asked a foreman what to do next, he said: "For sake, can't you find a place to hide? I did. I have been in the lazzar for three days, receiving $9.99 a day and haven't done one single bit of work."

The author of this nefarious confession should be stood up against a wall. By his side should be the foreman to whom he refers and a few others further up the line.

This labor slacker filched from the government the price of 119 triffl stamps. The work of 119 little boys and girls, saving their pennies and nickels, has been nullified, by this bloodsucker.

The most astonishing feature of the incident is the fact that such stalling could be practiced with impunity. Try to imagine a private industry in which such a thing would be possible.—Rocky Mountain News.

GRESHAM LOCALS

Ellsworth Raker, who is stationed at Seattle, came home last evening on a few days' furlough to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. I. Raker.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Harrison entertained on Sunday Rev. and Mrs. A. C. Brackenbury of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Rusher and Mrs. S. R. Bradford.

Announcement is made of the marriage yesterday at Vancouver of Miss Leta Matthews of Gresham to Jack Morningstar of Portland. They will make their home in Portland.

Mrs. F. L. Mack has arrived from her home in New York and will remain with her father, Frank Jones, during the absence of her husband, who is in military service in France.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lusted and son, of Lents, came to Gresham Sunday, and in the afternoon in company with the former's mother and sister, Mrs. L. T. Lusted and Miss Inez, went up the Columbia Highway.

Mrs. Johanna Anderson, who has been for the past two weeks or more at Emanuel hospital in Portland for treatment, has returned to her home on Wallula Heights, where she is slowly regaining her strength.

Edgar A. Kent, formerly of the Rockwood neighborhood, was in Gresham on Saturday, having come to attend grange. Mr. Kent is living with his daughter, Mrs. Addie Hageman at 319 48th street east, Portland.

President Meyers, of the First State Bank, is the proud owner of a new Sedan touring car. He took it out for a trial trip on Saturday and enjoyed his ride so well that he remained away over Sunday, returning yesterday.

Mrs. H. C. Larsen of Boring, well known in this vicinity as a practical nurse, offers the following effective disinfectant: place in a saucer or other dish a half inch of salt and a half inch of sulphur. Wet well with formaldehyde, cover with a cloth and keep in a warm place. Keep it moist with the liquid.

Sales of war savings stamps reported by the First State Bank up to the close of last week amounted to the sum of $18,064.35, present or purchasable value at the time they were sold. Other purchases through the Bank of Gresham and the post-office will probably increase the sum total to $30,000.

David Culy was taken to a Portland hospital last week for treatment where he is under the care of Dr. J. M. Short. He has been in failing health for several weeks past and his condition is regarded as serious. His sisters, Mrs. Percy Giese of Gresham and Mrs. John Miller of Portland are with him daily.

S. P. Stockton received a telegram on Saturday from his sons Elvis and Loda, announcing their safe arrival at Newport News, Virginia. Both boys are in the navy and a few weeks ago went on a convoy with troop ships. So far as is known, this is their first round trip. The boys are brothers of Claude Stockton and Mrs. L. M. Arthur.

Word has recently been received from Mr. and Mrs. John Bliss of their arrival in Lowville, New York. While there, after an absence of over thirty years, Mr. Bliss will visit his old home to which he came at the age of eight years with his parents from Switzerland. During their absence, Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Robertson of Dunde, Oregon, are in charge of the farm.

Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Manning had as guests on Sunday Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Howard and family, Lafayette Kronenberg and Carl Stitts, Mr. and Mrs. Riley Chapman and little son, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Dissenbaugh, all of Portland. Mrs. Howard is a daughter and Lafayette Kronenberg a grandson. Callers at the Manning home on Monday were Mr. and Mrs. Harve Harvard of Bull Run and Alfred Guenther of Gillis.

Mrs. George W. Stapleton, chairman of the Gresham Red Cross auxiliary, has announced that while the usual meetings of the auxiliary cannot be held, sewing may be taken to the homes of the members and that the demand for such sewing is great. The garments to be finished immediately by this auxiliary are 13 little French pinafores, and ten outing shirts for men. The work can be had from Mrs. John Metzger.

Director General McAdoo has issued a statement boasting of his achievements as head of the railroads. Some of the claims set up as to Mr. McAdoo's triumphs may be questioned, but upon one point there is no dispute; there is nothing the matter with his press agents.

FATHER OF VICTIM MAKES STATEMENT

The following statement is repeated in the Outlook at the request of S. R. Kuhlman, father of George Kuhlman, such corrections and additions having been made as suggested by Mr. Kuhlman as more clearly stating the facts in relation to the shooting:

The events that led up to the tragedy as reported are to the effect that the boy victim was on his way home with a small wagon filled with tomatoes. He was accompanied by his brother Frank and was nearing the Base Line on Tegart avenue. The meeting with Oliver was purely accidental. The latter was carrying a shotgun and it is stated that he began a boyish prank by throwing some of the tomatoes to the ground in a spirit of aggravation to George, who protested the action, saying that they were being taken home to his mother for preserving.

Just all that was said or done is not fully revealed, but George said he raised the gun, then he fired the fatal shot, the leaden pellets striking the victim in the stomach, chest and face. That the two were not close together when the shot was fired is proved by the way the missiles were scattered almost over the whole upper portion of the victims body, which would not have been the case had the discharge been at close range.

Richard Tegart, living nearby the scene of the tragedy, was at his barn and was one of the first to the scene of the shooting. He says he heard the report of the gun.

The wounded boy was taken to the hospital where he lingered fully conscious to the last and knew that his wound was fatal.

George was the oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Kuhlman, who live just west of Ruby near the railroad track. Oliver is the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Brown, whose home is on the Base Line, north of Ruby. The two families have lived near each other for a dozen years.

Mr. Kuhlman, who is employed at Camp Lewis, was sent for and arrived in Portland before his son's death. The dead boy was a grandson of Mr. and Mrs. George R. Stockton, who also live close by.

It is now said in behalf of Henry Ford that he spent only about thirty thousand dollars in his "kept us out of war" advertising campaign in behalf of Mr. Wilson in 1916. Henry announced at the time that he intended to spend a million. Henry's performances do not seem to keep up with his prospectuses.

President Wilson has written a campaign letter in behalf of the opponent of Senator Francis Warren, of Wyoming, one of the most indefatigable war senators in the present congress. Doubtless this letter is based upon the theory that it would discourage the kaiser to know that General Pershing's father-in-law had been licked at the polls. O, yes.

OLIVER

The Nos. 111 and 222 Steel Beam Full Chilled Plows. 12 and 14-inch cut.

Will you please try this plow in soil where you think only a steel plow will scour?

You can't lose — the Oliver No. 111 or No. 222 Full Chilled Plow is guaranteed to scour in any soil where any other plow made will scour.

It does it because it is full chilled—share and landside as well as mouldboard—by the celebrated Oliver process. Harder than steel, higher polished, free from corrosion, and wonderful in its wearing quality, this metal as now utilized—produces a plow that will last three times as long as a steel plow and do better, cleaner plowing with lighter draft.

This may sound like a big claim, but remember that only a little while ago you were very sure that an airship couldn't fly—and you were wrong.

Put this plow to the test without risk to yourself and give it a chance to make good. See it anyway; it surely is a beauty.
