THE DAWN OF PEACE.

Today's election, which is being held in many states, will be over when this issue of the Outlook reaches the most of its subscribers.

But it makes no difference to the American patriot which party shall have control—only, that no political party shall have entrusted to it the reconstruction period that will fall to the next congress.

Peace will not come in a twinkling nor unheralded, and when it does come it will bring with it problems grave and important as the problems of war.

All these notions are false and dangerous. The recent "adjournment of politics" should not result in one second's lull in war work on the part of the people.

STREET CAR MANAGEMENT.

With the P. R. L. & P. company's probable request for an increase of fares to 7 or 8 cents it may be pertinent to mention the way the street car service is being conducted in Calgary, Alberta, which is the owner of its own system.

Calgary has a population of something more than 50,000. Seventy cars are operated and because of the labor problem most of them are now pay-as-you-enter cars, with one man acting as conductor and motorman.

The Calgary system in 1910 showed a net profit of $87,206.87 and in 1911 the net profit had increased to $107,253.49.

yet each year, including the present fiscal year, just ended, has shown a profit. The fare in Calgary is 5 cents if it is paid in cash.

The Calgary street car company is in charge of a commission composed of two elected officials and the mayor, who is ex officio chairman of the commission.

CIGARETTE SMOKING.

Keen observers have noticed that more boys are using cigarettes now than a year or more ago.

Little defense has been made of the custom of giving cigarettes to soldiers because no defense has been needed.

There should be no call, however, for any lull in the campaign against the use of cigarettes by small boys.

From the standpoint of health the boy should leave cigarettes alone. When he reaches maturity he is likely to do as he pleases.

Those ancient geographies of only a few years ago had nothing to say about the rivers that have been discovered in France within the past six months.

Another food administration rule requires the skimming of cream until it contains not more than 20 per cent butter fat.

Some of the old grumps have a notion that kissing is like the influenza—once is enough.

A recent war poem rhymes "aglean" with "seen"; "sorrow" with "horror," and "hickory" with "victory."

Probably in all Germany there is but one family without a vacant chair—made so in the last four years of war.

While not claiming to be much of a prophet we are of the opinion that it will be ten years before the United States can reduce our active military strength much below 1,000,000 men.

This influenza is a good advertisement for some people. Every time they sneeze the news is telegraphed around the world.

THE EPIDEMIC.

Indications point to the disappearance of influenza in many parts of the east. In some cities the quarantine has already been raised, as the epidemic is abating.

As this portion of the country was the last to be afflicted—the course of the disease having been westward—so it will be the last to escape its ravages, and soon the people of the whole country will escape from its ravages.

Figures tend to show that the influenza has taken the lives of more American soldiers in the camps in this country than have died abroad as the result of German and Austrian bullets.

However, the worst is passing. At present the loss of life and the economic loss cannot be determined nor computed.

The people may well feel a chastened spirit as they emerge from their time of trial. They have shown remarkable fortitude and a cheerful willingness to make any sacrifice necessary to stamp out the disease.

GERMAN TOYS.

Keep a bright lookout for camouflaged toys made in Germany. Several thousand cases of such toys recently arrived in this country which were bought by American importers before the war.

Many of the toys formerly given to American children bore the made-in-Germany mark. Toy-making was highly developed in Germany, and America preferred to buy toys abroad rather than make them at home.

Now that German toys have arrived it may be difficult to dispose of them. The toys may have been made by hands that have been guilty of revolting crimes against the children of France and Belgium.

The main trouble with November weather in Oregon is that it comes just at the time of year when our summer clothes are a fright and we can't afford to buy winter suits.

So far no one has been heard from who has figured out how many stars Brigham Young could have worn on his service pin had he happened to be alive at this time.

The Yankees who are betting that the war will be over by Christmas are putting in a lot of good hard licks so as to be sure to win their wagers.

It won't be ten minutes after they surrender until they will be asking: "For Gott's sake, how long will it be till dot dinner bell rings yet, already?"

WILL YOU HOLD YOUR HEAD UP PROUDLY WHEN THEY COME HOME?

By BRUCE BARTON.

I lifted the receiver of the telephone, and almost dropped it again in surprise.

"What, back so soon?" I exclaimed. "Detailed for special duty?"

"Yes, back," he answered; and it struck me that his voice was slow and older, as though the weeks of his absence had been years.

Wounded—while here at home, I still pursued my ordinary course. Wounded—to protect my home.

Will their eyes say to us, "We were hungry for a bit of sweet, and you did not think to send it."

Or shall we stand confidently in their presence, greeting them as men who have nothing to repent—men who in their absence gave freely of wealth and time, that there might be warmth and cheer and comfort over there?

They are coming back some day—perhaps before we think.

The proposed tax on bank checks reminds one that there are a few self-developed pale blue fools in existence—also in office.

As long as the Bolsheviks have control in Russia there would seem to be a good opening in Petrograd for a coffee factory.

Keep the home warm but don't forget that ventilation is essential. Pure air will heat much quicker than foul air.

Who remembers the good old winter nights when people used to study automobile advertisements as a pastime?

The fraternity problem in colleges, however, is how the organizations are going to stay alive until after the war.

The flu scare has reached the point when all you have to do to get off for a week is to sneeze a couple of times.

Also there is a great launching of ships today to be manned by those who are going up Salt river.

The influenza may not be a promoter of prayer but it always brings a man to his sneeze.

"The fellow who doesn't shave these days is probably afraid he will have to wear a gauze mask.

A considerable portion of government costs more than it is worth.

The chief aim of life is to consume more goods than one produces.

Waterloo is on the battle line picked out by the Huns.

That motion to adjourn politics was debatable.

Weather Forecast.

Forecast for the period Nov. 4 to Nov. 9, 1918, inclusive.

Pacific Coast states; rain Tuesday or Wednesday and probably Saturday, except fair in southern California. Seasonal temperatures.

Sleep and Rest.

One of the most common causes of insomnia and restlessness is indigestion. Take one of Chamberlain's Tablets immediately after supper and see if you do not rest better and sleep better. They only cost a quarter.—Adv.

A daylight saving plan saved 1,150,000 tons of coal to the nation, according to the U. S. fuel administration. This saving has been mainly in eastern cities. No exact figures are available for Oregon, but the amount saved is not noticeable.

NOTICE OF EXECUTOR'S SALE. The undersigned, Andreas Vetsch, executor of the will of David Eggenberger, deceased, will, on Saturday, November 9th, 1918, at 2 o'clock p. m., sell at public auction the tools and household effects of the said David Eggenberger, at the farm house of Fred Sueckow on the Sandy Ridge County Road, about three miles west from Sandy. Bidders are invited to attend.

ANDREAS VETSCH, Executor of the will of David Eggenberger, deceased.

REVERSED BATTLE LINE WILL TEST GERMAN PEACE SINCERITY.

The final test of Germany's sincerity in its peace bids seems at hand, as Foch and allied military leaders are asked to lay down terms upon which an armistice can be granted.
