Christmas exercises will be given at the Methodist church next Tuesday, December 24. There will be recitations, songs and readings and at the close a collection will be taken for the Armenian Relief Fund. It is expected that those who wish will bring presents for distribution to their friends.

CORBETT

The dance at Becker's hall Saturday evening was made exciting by a couple of pugilistic encounters by Portlanders.

Fred C. Reed accompanied his mother to Portland Saturday at which time Mrs. Reed took a special treatment by Dr. McKenzie.

Mrs. Ethel Smith Stewart came out from the city Wednesday to spend the remainder of the week with her mother, Mrs. Clara Smith. Mr. Stewart motored out Sunday morning, both returning in the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Bratley, of Portland, were week-end visitors at the home of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Reed.

Extra Outlooks of the Christmas issue will be mailed at 5c each.

To the Public.

Beginning with January 1st, 1919, the banking hours of the Bank of Gresham will change and we will close daily at 4 o'clock p. m.

Kindly bear this in mind as we will lock the door at that hour in order that we can finish up our work before 6 o'clock.

Few Escape.

There are few indeed who escape having at least one cold during the winter months and they are fortunate who have but one and get through with it quickly and without any serious consequences. Take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and observe the directions with each bottle, and you are likely to be one of the fortunate ones. The worth and merit of this remedy has been fully proven. There are many families who have always used it for years when troubled with a cough or cold, and with the very best results.—Adv. Spotlights and electric horns. C. E. Osburn & Co.

THE BOY WHO DIDN'T BELIEVE.

He didn't believe in Santa Claus
As the king o' the Christmas crowned;
"How can he come down a chimney,
An' he so fat an' round?"
An' where's the reason an' where the proof
'Bout reindeer runnin' across the roof?"
An' so it came, on the Christmas eve,
He built the biggest fire
The chimney ever had known, an' said
"I'll find where your Santy Claus is at,
I'll b'lieve in him if he comes through that!"

An' Santy Claus, he came along
With a merry laugh an' shout,
An' he called to the North Wind, brave
An' strong:
An' down he came as the North Wind blew,
An' the little boy said, "I b'lieve in you!"

Extra Outlooks of the Christmas issue will be mailed at 5c each.
