BEN W. OLCOTT GOVERNOR.

It was a man's job to which Governor Olcott committed himself when he subscribed to his oath of office on Friday morning. That he realizes the weight of responsibility placed upon him was evidenced by the nature of the brief statement he made after the oath was subscribed before Chief Justice McBride. Following an exchange of felicitations with the members of the supreme court, state officials and friends who were in the executive offices for the ceremony, he said that he had just faced what was probably the most stupendous moment of his life, and declared that he approached his new duties in a very humble spirit.

Commenting upon the pleasant relations that had existed between himself and Governor Withycombe since the primary election when both men sought nomination for governor, he spoke feelingly of the late executive, relating instances when they had discussed reconstruction and other problems together.

We look for an able administration of Oregon's affairs under Governor Benjamin W. Olcott's stewardship.

The far-seeing mother of us all, the American Red Cross, has set aside an appropriation of a $100,000 scholarship fund to induce graduate nurses released from army and navy service to train for public health nursing. A maximum scholarship of $600 for an eight month's course with a minimum of $300 for four month's training will be granted.

The fund will be administered by the Red Cross department of nursing; and scholarships will be granted on the recommendation of the Red Cross division directors of public health nursing.

Public sentiment in Gresham appears to be overwhelmingly in favor of night police in the business section of town.

HOOVER'S APPOINTMENT PLEASES.

The appointment of Herbert Hoover as director-general of the American Relief Administration created under the new $100,000,000 European famine relief bill, with full authority to direct the furnishing of foodstuffs and other urgent supplies purchased out of relief funds and to arrange for their distribution and administration, was a move that met with general satisfaction. The President's action in the appointment was really a confirmation of the regard in which the food administrator is held in both hemispheres.

Mr. Hoover had already been made director of allied relief by the commission sitting in Paris. He has been given full power to determine to which of the populations named in the relief bill the supplies shall be furnished and in what quantities. He also is to arrange for reimbursement so far as possible as provided in the relief act.

Edgar Richard and Theodore F. Whitmarsh who have been directing the affairs of the food administration during Mr. Hoover's absence in Europe, have been appointed by him joint directors in the United States of the newly-created relief administration.

MT. HOOD LOOP ROAD.

The large delegation who waited upon the state highway commission in Portland on Friday in the interests of Mt. Hood loop highway met with the reassurance that the commission felt itself committed to this project, having gone on record almost two years ago as in favor of building this road.

In the minds of our capable highway commissioners, there are two tasks that must be completed at once. The Pacific highway and the Columbia river highway must be finished. It is stated that within three months every important contract on these two main trunk roads will have been let; that Oregon's idle labor will have ample opportunity of employment, and that it will probably be necessary to import labor for highway construction.

The next consideration of the commission will be the matter of federal co-operation in building the Mt. Hood loop road. Mr. Cecil, of the forestry department announced that the government is anxious to create labor and will go fifty-fifty on the Mt. Hood loop and other projects. At the April meeting of the commission more definite action will be taken in this matter. Work is now being done on the Zig Zag section, $48,000 having been advanced by the commission some time ago. The entire highway construction program will move right ahead. No longer will the "Californians" roll their eyes at the mention of Oregon roads.

BIRTHDAY ANNIVERSARY OF MRS. J. N. CLANAHAN

On Sunday Mrs. J. N. Clanahan celebrated her birthday anniversary with a well-appointed dinner at the family home on Main street. Guests on this occasion were the Rev. and Mrs. E. A. Leonard, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Beable, Richard and Roy Deadle, and Mrs. B. Johnson, affectionately known as Grandma Johnson, who shared the honors with Mrs. Clanahan, the two anniversaries falling on the same day.

The parlors of the home were bright with pots of jonquils, while a large centerpiece of fragrant violets adorned the dining table. Shamrock place cards were effectively used, and were quite in keeping with the sentiment of "Annie Laurie" and other old Irish and Scotch airs sung by the guests. Mr. Clanahan especially delighted everybody with some Scotch ballads and a sailors' lilt or two.

Rev. A. J. Ware called in the evening and remained for tea with the other guests after extending birthday felicitations. Other callers were numerous during the day, and a great stock of birthday cards and greetings arrived, bespeaking the esteem in which Mrs. Clanahan is held by her many friends about the county and state.

Birthday candles and goodies from the Sterling twins, whose birthday is the same as Mrs. Clanahan's, especially delighted her, as well as greetings from Mrs. C. E. Russer, who likewise claims the same natal day.

MANY FARM BUREAU COMMITTEES ACTIVE

Much enthusiasm for the farm bureau program was evinced by the people of the Lynch district on Saturday evening when they met in the schoolhouse and elected committees for the different branches of the work. The chairmen are Andrew McMillan, crop improvement; W. H. Lynch, soil improvement; J. P. Lynch, lime and fertilizer; C. W. Lawrence, poultry; W. H. Hornecker, live stock improvement.

A similar meeting at Corbett Monday night resulted in the placing of an order for a carload of lime for the farmers present. Chairmen elected were J. W. Evans, crop improvement; J. Pounder, lime fertilizer; Mr. Campbell, poultry; A. J. Salzman, livestock; and F. M. Lussley, soil improvement. The committee stayed late to formulate plans for extended community enterprise.

The Farm Bureau News seed issue will soon make its appearance. Hurry along your seed listing, farmers. They should appear in the next issue.

Baptist Services.

At the Baptist church on Sunday, Rev. E. A. Leonard spoke in the morning concluding a series of lectures on "Incidents in the Life of Moses," showing why Christ was more honored than Moses. Rev. A. J. Ware's evening topic was "The Overcoming Faith." Attendance was large at both services.

Plans are under way for the meeting of the Willamette Association of the Baptist church here late in April. Between fifty and seventy-five delegates will be present from the Dalles, Astoria, Hood River, Hillsboro and other points. Committees have been appointed to take care of the housing and entertaining of the delegates during the two days of the convention. Arrangements are being completed for serving luncheon and dinner on both occasions at Gresham grange hall. The Gresham and Pleasant Home Baptists will be joint hosts in these occasions.

The people of Gresham will have this opportunity to open their homes to the delegates who will need rooms and breakfast served to them during their stay here. Gresham has always responded hospitably to such calls and will without doubt do so again.

Party at Bliss Home.

Miss Helen Bliss was the hostess at a jolly party of young people at her home on the Base Line road Friday evening. Some laughable stunts and games, extensive operations with a Ouija board, and the singing of popular songs to Miss Della Towle's piano accompaniment made the evening speed by happily and all too quickly. Delicious "cats" formed no small part of the entertainment. Those present were the Misses Rosalie Balmer, Miss Edella Towle, Michel, Grace Fieldhouse, Bertha Spencer, Gladys Wright, Winifred St. Clair, Eva Tacheron, Helen Bliss and Merrill Good, Gordon Taylor, Edward Strong, Maurice Botkin, David Peterson, Joe Peak and Emmett Welling.

Word has been received of the death this morning at Good Samaritan hospital of Godfrey Anderson, a former resident of Gresham. The funeral will be held on Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the Miller & Tracy establishment, with interment in the Mt. Scott cemetery. Mr. Anderson leaves five children from 12 to 21 years of age. The youngest, Zada, has been cared for by Mrs. Albert Ekstrom since her mother's death a year ago.

WARNING REGARDING INCOME TAX PAYMENT

A person who waits for an income tax man to pull his door-bell or his coat-tails, may find himself a delinquent subject to severe penalties, is the warning sounded today by the internal revenue bureau officials. The duty of getting the payments and the returns in by March 15th, lies solely with each individual and corporation. The bureau has sent every man it can spare directly to the people to aid in an advisory capacity, said Commissioner Roper. But our men have no time to canvass people at work or in their homes. Every person liable to a tax or a return must take the initiative in performing the duties required by the revenue law. If he needs information, blank forms, or advice, he should seek an income tax officer. The big thing now in income tax is to get the first payment in between now and March 15th. That is the due date under the new law.

Frankly speaking, the government needs the money to meet its obligations falling due on that date. The returns of 1918 income are due at the same time. Either a complete return showing the true tax, or a tentative return of the estimated tax, must accompany each and every payment made between now and March 15th. The tentative return of estimated tax is a relief measure adopted by the bureau for taxpayers who cannot complete their full returns on time. A taxpayer who needs additional time for making a return cannot be relieved of the payment of the tax due or the estimated tax due. But, on making the required payment between now and March 15th the taxpayer can secure further time up to forty-five days in which to file the complete return. The bureau in this way meets the convenience of taxpayers who are pressed for time, but it cannot relieve them of the requirement that their taxes due on March 15th must be paid between now and the due date.

It is urged that every taxpayer who can do so, make payment in full when filing his return. This method will greatly aid the revenue offices and relieve the taxpayer of the necessity of guarding against oversight on future installment dates. In each case where payment in full is not made, the first payment must be at least one-fourth of the total tax due, or at least one-fourth of the estimated tax due. No matter which of these methods is used in paying taxes due March 15th, the payment must actually be in the collector's office by the due date, accompanied by a return.

MILTON A. MILLER, Collector.
