PLEASANT VIEW

Mrs. Lucy Kincaid returned Saturday from a three months' visit in Colorado and Oklahoma.

Owing to a possibility of small pox breaking out in the school here, the school has been closed for a week.

The dance given at Troutdale by our boys last Saturday evening was a decided success, and every one had a nice time.

Little Bobbie Bates and Raymond Berney are both sick with pneumonia but are getting better.

Claud Woodie is moving his family back to their cottage here again.

Mrs. M. A. Bramhall is visiting at the home of her son, C. E. Bramhall.

Mrs. Hunt, who has been quite ill, is some better.

COTTRELL

Mr. and Mrs. Avin Sutton and two children of Parkdale, Oregon, are visiting with Mrs. Sutton's parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Pitts. Another daughter, Mrs. Paget and husband, of Portland, spent Sunday at the Pitts home.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gilbraith, of Portland, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Andre.

W. E. Craswell left Saturday for Bend, Oregon, with expectations of finding relief from bronchial asthma.

Bad Taste in Your Mouth.

When you have a bad taste in your mouth you may know that your digestion is faulty. A dose of Chamberlain's Tablets will usually correct the disorder. They also cause a gentle movement of the bowels. You will find this to be one of the best medicines you have ever become acquainted with.—Adv.

MELROSE AND VICTORY

A Bible reading will be held at Victory schoolhouse next Sunday afternoon at 2:30, conducted by John Peterson. All are cordially invited.

SANDY BLUFF

Mr. and Mrs. Brook received the good news that their son, Jerome, had arrived safely in the United States. They are eagerly looking forward to seeing him soon.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Dunn are the proud grandparents of a little girl, born to Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Bell, of Sandy.

Mrs. Laura Barnes gave a social dance for her children, Mr. and Mrs. M. Widner, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Browning and Mr. and Mrs. Kretz and John Matthews. Quite a number of the neighbors were present to help make a most enjoyable time.

Mrs. Ida Duke and her brother, Vernie Radford, are suffering from an attack of the "flu." They are being cared for by their mother, Mrs. Lizzie Radford.

C. F. Pulliam Dies in Hospital.

C. F. Pulliam, a resident of the Corbett district died this morning in the tubercular pavilion of the Multnomah Farm. Mr. Pulliam had been a sufferer from a bronchial trouble for several months. During the holidays he was ill with Spanish influenza, which later developed into tuberculosis. He was taken to the hospital for treatment three days ago.

Surviving Mr. Pulliam are his widow and several children, ranging from six to seventeen years of age. Funeral announcements have not been made.

WALLACE BALL REPORTED KILLED IN ACTION

The sad intelligence was received by relatives here yesterday of the death in action in France on October 9, of Wallace Ball, formerly of Pleasant Home.

Mr. Ball leaves a widow and a little son six years of age, at Nampa, Idaho, besides four sisters and two brothers. The latter are Mrs. G. H. Blackburn of Pleasant Home, Mrs. L. C. Newell of Portland, Mrs. Harry Lusted of Lents, Mrs. C. R. Lee of Georgia, E. O. Ball of Nampa, Idaho, and W. S. Ball of Sandy.

Mr. Ball entered the service from Idaho last June. Just before going he visited relatives here in company with his wife and son. The last word heard from him was a letter written the latter part of September, in which he stated that he had not been in action.

The Good Old Life Once More

With the passing of the war clouds come the good times, the jolly week-ends and sport activities that young chaps like so well, and in which smart clothes play a prominent part specializes in young men's sport clothes—the style hits of the season bear the Kuppenheimer label.

Have you seen the new ideas in suits—the clever seam effects, the welt belts, the square patch pockets and other exclusive features?

It is in the company of well dressed men that the exclusiveness of Kuppenheimer design shows to best advantage.
