TERRY

Edward Hanning was host to a party on Tuesday afternoon, the occasion being his ninth birthday. The play started off with a peanut hunt which was followed by other games and luncheon, where the big birthday cake was the center of attraction. All left declaring they had enjoyed the day and wishing Master Edward many more birthdays. The children present were Thelma Naylor, Robert Holgate, Eva Baker, Elsie and Veri Hestline, Luella Welling, Alta Hanning, Satsuki and Shigeki Takao. The grown-ups present were Mrs. C. A. Baker, Mrs. E. J. Hestline, Mrs. E. M. Coons and Mrs. W. T. Sherwood.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Baker received a telegram last week announcing the birth of a baby girl to their daughter, Mrs. Leo Sharp of Vancouver, B. C. The new arrival has received the name of Doris Mildred. The young mother will be remembered as Miss Gertrude Baker.

A. W. Coons has finished digging a well on Mrs. William Powell's place on Cleveland avenue, south of the Base Line road, getting a good supply of water.

Recent callers at the home of Mrs. E. M. Coons were Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Shields, Mr. and Mrs. Gustafson, all of Portland and Mrs. Newman of Cherry Acres.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Takao, on Tuesday morning, March 25, a son.

Alice Powell had her tonsils removed yesterday. She is at home again and is doing nicely.

POWELL VALLEY

A joint debate will be held at the Powell Valley schoolhouse on Friday evening of this week, to discuss the county unit bill. County Superintendent Alderson and others will speak for the measure and Attorney B. F. Mulkey will lead the debate against it. An interesting evening is assured. The ladies will provide cakes and refreshments will be served at the close of the evening.

The name of Axel Johnson was among those mentioned as coming on a troop train through Portland today from the east. He will go to Camp Lewis for an early discharge. Mr. Johnson is part owner of the Powell Valley store.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Palmblad had as callers on Sunday Mr. and Mrs. David Palmblad and baby, Paul Palmblad, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Palmblad, Mrs. Chas. Unis and daughter and Richard Staffanson.

Rev. Axel Anderson, a missionary of the Swedish Mission church, was a caller today at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Palmblad.

Miss Ida Unis has gone to Portland to spend a few days with her sister, Mrs. Dave Palmblad.

Mrs. John Palmblad spent the day Friday with her daughter, Mrs. Swan Magnuson.

HALEY

The Ladies' Aid society of the Baptist church will have an auction sale of fancy and useful articles, at the church, next Saturday evening, Mar. 29th, at 7:30. Coffee and cake will also be sold. All are cordially invited to be present.

J. W. ROOT'S FUNERAL SCHEDULED TOMORROW

The funeral of James W. Roots of Boring who passed away in Los Angeles last Friday, has been announced for 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon at Oregon City, under the auspices of the Elks lodge, of which Mr. Root was a popular member.

Mr. Root's health had been poor for several months, and it was with the idea of benefiting him by a change of climate that Mrs. Root and a nurse accompanied him to California a fortnight ago.

A sturdy pioneer, coming to eastern Clackamas in 1867, where he became a pillar of community life, Mr. Roots will be mourned by a large circle of friends who regret his passing. A member of the Congregational church, an Elk, an Odd Fellow, a progressive farmer and later a substantial business man. Mr. Root's life is a splendid record of upright living and honest achievement. He crossed the plains with a prairie schooner train.

Surviving him are his widow, two daughters, Mrs. Wallace Telford and Mrs. Wm. Morand of Boring, and son Thos. A. Root of Clackamas. A third daughter, Mrs. Hattie S. Knox died two years ago.

The interment will be in Clackamas cemetery under the auspices of the Odd Fellows.

TROUTDALE

The Ladies' Aid supper Saturday evening was a big success. A large crowd attended and enjoyed the bounteous supper served on tables gaily decked with daffodils. The fish pond, always enjoyed by the young folks, was again very popular, and delicious punch was served to assuage the thirst of the company. After the supper the evening was spent in playing games, among which the one which might be called "personified spelling" evoked much interest from the players and the audience. It was calculated to give pointers to Mr. Webster himself. The party ended at an hour early enough that all wished for another one soon.

Forty dollars were taken in during the evening.

Former residents, of Troutdale, who attended the Aid supper were Mr. and Mrs. C. I. Raker of Gresham, Mr. and Mrs. Kummer of Portland and Mrs. A. Delaney and son Leland, of The Dalles. Mrs. Delaney gives us the news that her son Wilford has been married for some time and happily settled at house keeping in The Dalles.

There is to be a community sing in the church here next Sunday evening led by the pastor, Rev. Earl B. Cotton. Mrs. L. A. Harlow will be organist. Several special numbers of music are promised. Everybody is invited.

H. E. Waite, of Madras, is the new dispatcher at the Troutdale station. Mr. Waite, with his wife, is settled in Mrs. Helm's cottage.

New Ford owners in this community are the J. R. Knarrs, who have been taking advantage of the beautiful weather in several pleasant drives.

Mickley & Pleasant are moving their garage this week from their present location to the Masonic hall building, three blocks west. The Masonic hall room will be used for a stock room, and the barn back of the building is being fitted up for a repair shop.

Audrey Richardson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Richardson, was buried in the Douglas cemetery at Troutdale Sunday. The family, now residing in Portland, where she died, formerly lived in Troutdale, where she spent her childhood. Audrey was about 18 years old, and the youngest of the family.

BORING

The F. E. Comstock farm has been sold to Portland people, the Comstocks planning to leave for Minnesota at the end of the school year.

The McCausland family are occupying the old Ed. Siefer place. They have gone into poultry raising on an extensive scale.

Miss Rosie Boese is visiting her sister, Mrs. Irvin Hackett, in Oregon City.

Thomas Lovelace, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Lovelace, is convalescing nicely in the hospital at Oregon City. He is expected home soon.

Miss Vivian Lovelace is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Fred Anderson, at Lents.

PLEASANT VIEW

Services will be held at the church next Sunday, March 30, when Rev. Mr. Ford will take for his subject, "Going the Second Mile." Though bearing the same name as the present pastor of the church, this is a different person. He is a native of Australia and a man who has traveled extensively. This service will be a rare treat. Don't miss it.

Forgot What He Needed.

From the Republican, Mt. Gillad, Ohio: The editor had an interesting experience some time ago, when a young gentleman came to this office and asked for a copy of the Morrow County Republican. He scrutinized it carefully when a copy was handed him, and then said: "Now I know! 'What is it you are looking for,' we inquired. 'My wife sent me after a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and I forgot the name. I went to several stores and the clerks named over everything in the line on the shelf except 'Chamberlain's.' I'll try again, and I'll never go home without Chamberlain's Cough Remedy." The Republican would suggest to the proprietors of stores, that they post their clerks, and never let them substitute. Customers lose faith in stores where substituting is permitted, to say nothing of the injustice to makers of good goods and the disappointment of customers.—Adv.

Calls Silo Green Pasture.

"A silo is a green pasture under cover, which can be used any time of the year," declares E. L. Westover, extension dairy specialist of Oregon Agricultural College. He shows by analysis that in water, nitrogen, crude fiber, ether extract and ash, ensilage and blue grass are quite similar, though the protein of the grass is twice that of the silage. No other farm building will pay so large a dividend as the silo, he asserts.
