GRESHAM LOCALS

Mrs. Guy Fieldhouse is about again after an illness of several days. Mr. Fieldhouse has had a setback in the shape of an attack of quincy. He is reported as improving.

The Frank Gibbs family are enjoying the extra hour of daylight in the evenings, motoring in their new Chevrolet.

Miss Edith Murray, a senior at O. A. C. registering from Iowa, is spending the spring vacation at the A. Ruegg home here as the guest of Miss Pearl Ruegg, who came home for the holidays. Mr. and Mrs. Ruegg, Mrs. George Sleret, Miss Ruegg and Miss Murray motored up the highway to Eagle Creek recently, taking the trail from that point up to the punch bowl. They had a delightful outing.

Mr. and Mrs. Barrett Randall and Mrs. C. F. Cathey of Portland and the latter's daughter, Coleen, were callers Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Jones.

Dr. H. H. Hughes has cabled from France that he expects to be home in June. He expects to resume practice here on his return. Dr. Hughes writes that he is having a wonderful experience in his line. He is in a large hospital at Bar-sur-Aube, where he has charge of two wards.

Miss Inez Lusted, who has been visiting relatives and friends in Newberg for a week, returned Saturday night.

Mrs. C. Merrill had as Sunday callers Mrs. F. B. Stuart of Stansfield, Oregon, Mrs. Stuart's daughter, Mrs. Harry Kerr of St. Paul, Minnesota and the latter's son, also Mrs. Wirtz of Woodland, Washington, a sister-in-law of Mrs. Stuart.

Miss Grace Allen, a returned missionary of 30 years' experience in South Africa, will speak at the Free Methodist church next Sunday at 2:30 p. m. Special invitation is extended to all.

J. W. Johnson, of Mt. Pleasant, Michigan, is here on a visit with his brother, D. S. Johnson. The two had not met for 30 years and the visit was a surprise, being unannounced. A family reunion was held at the Johnson home on Sunday, those present being Ralph, Harry and family, Mrs. E. E. Johnson and J. W. Johnson, besides the host and hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Cianahan were entertained at dinner on last Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Bates at their home in Portland. Other guests at the dinner table were Mr. and Mrs. Cummins, and Miss Pearl Durst, of the Lincoln High school library, formerly librarian of the Gresham branch library. The table was tastily decorated with Easter colors and fairly groaned under its load of delicious "eats." By special arrangement on the part of Mrs. Bates, other friends of the Cianahans who called during the afternoon were Mrs. J. P. Forrester, Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Bosserman, all former residents of Gresham. Mrs. E. C. Giltner, who recently returned from several months' Red Cross work in France, was expected to be present but was detained by illness.

Sergeants Gordon Smith and Geo. D. Hoban of Portland, both of Co. B, 162d Infantry, called on Sergeant Guy Jones yesterday afternoon.

Mrs. S. J. Bennison has returned from Portland where she has been assisting in caring for a sick friend for the past five weeks.

Miss Mildred St. Clair is spending the week at Pleasant Home, the guest of Mrs. M. Lennartz, where she is recuperating after an attack of influenza.

Dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gibbs on Sunday included Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Schopper, of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. James Turnbull, Hector and Robert Morgan of Victory. Mrs. Schopper will spend the week visiting her mother, Mrs. Turnbull, and her sisters, Mrs. Frank Gibbs of Gresham and Miss Dolly Morgan of Victory.

A. E. Hill, formerly on the Outlook force, has again accepted a position as printer in the Outlook's job department which is an exceedingly busy place. Several publications are under way which are keeping the large force busy night and day.

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Wilkinson, Mr. and Mrs. Thompson and Lang Goodwin tried their luck at smelt fishing last evening. Made a large haul.

There will be no Red Cross meeting at the library Friday afternoon, on account of the soldiers' and sailors' reception in the evening.

Miss Grace Ogelbee, the fourth grade teacher here is suffering with an infected foot as the result of being stung by a wasp.

Saturday, April 5, will be the last day of grace for the payment of taxes.
