PATRIOTISM—A DEFINITION

You won't have the same patriotic enthusiasm to put over the Victory Liberty Loan as you had in the other four loans. That's a statement you often hear these days.

I don't believe it. I disagree with the idea that silencing the guns of battle has put out the fire of patriotism in the hearts of real Americans and the Victory Liberty Loan is going to be the acid test of Americanism, patriotism.

What is patriotism? Weaving the flag—marching in parades and beating drums—buying bonds under the spell of war hysteria—yelling about the hellish Hun—is that all there is to patriotism?

Those may be the exhaust valves of patriotism but patriotism is something nobler and higher, something deeper. Patriotism is love of country, respect for its institutions—a love which insists that the country's honor be upheld in all matters at all times.

The honor of the country was at stake in Flanders' fields. How gloriously it was upheld by the thousands who lie there dead where poppies grow!

The honor of the country is at stake today. The nation has contracted bills to pay for the war. Honor demands that those bills be paid.

And we who really love our country are going to see that its honor is upheld—just as did our boys at St. Mihiel, Chateau Thierry, the Argonne.

We're going to pay those bills by subscribing to the Victory Liberty Loan.

BATTLESHIP "OREGON" COMING.

The United States battleship "Oregon" will arrive in Portland April 27 and will leave the 29, visiting the harbor in behalf of the Victory Loan. This will be the first visit for several years of the famous fighting ship to the principal harbor of the state which was so signally honored by its wonderful record in the journey around the Horn in 1898, and its distinguished service in the destruction of the Spanish fleet at Santiago.

People of Portland will tender the officers and men of the "Oregon" a monster reception, coupled with appropriate public ceremonies. The battleship will be open to inspection during a portion of the time it is anchored in the harbor.

Treasury Department, internal revenue service, announces a tax, effective May 1, on toilet articles, patent medicines and preparations (proprietary articles), payable by placing proprietary stamps on each container. One cent on each 25 cents or fraction will be charged on perfumes, essences, cosmetics, powders, dentifrices, pills, pomades, plasters, liniments.

DO YOUR BIT.

Edward Cookingham, state executive chairman of the Victory Loan, has issued the following proclamation to the people of Oregon to do their part as individuals in subscribing the quota of the state to the loan:

"In some counties of the state, the banks are underwriting the county's entire quota of the Victory Loan in order that Oregon may be the first state over the top. While I commend the enthusiasm of the banks and the high purpose which actuates them in doing so, I desire to make it clear to the people of Oregon that the government is exceedingly desirous that the Victory bonds should be distributed as widely as possible among the people and not concentrated in a few hands. Moreover, it will be necessary for the government to continue financing its additional requirements in the future by sale of treasury certificates of indebtedness which must largely be purchased by the banks. In order that the banks may continue participating in the purchase of these short time obligations, their funds must be kept in liquid form. Furthermore, the needs of the industrial and commercial borrowers must be cared for, and if the banks lock up their funds in the Victory bonds they will be able to respond to but few requests for current loans.

"I have therefore asked the Liberty Loan committee in each county to conduct a popular campaign, even though its quota may already be underwritten, and I appeal to the people of Oregon to subscribe to the Victory bonds as freely and as cheerfully as they have to the other Liberty Loan issues. By so doing, they will very materially add to the public welfare, and facilitate the readjustment process from war to peace conditions. That this readjustment be made as speedily and as smoothly as possible is of the greatest importance to the people of Oregon."

LISTEN TO THIS!

Two Portland rosarians are claiming the honor of the first-rose of the season, in bloom, this week. Mrs. Elm brought full blown roses to this office a month ago!

GRANT COUNTY LEADS.

Grant county with a quota of $99,000 has subscribed $145,000 to the Victory Loan. This makes Grant the leader of Oregon in percentage subscriptions for any county.

State Director of Organization, Etheridge, reported twenty-three counties have completed their quotas at noon today. Crook and Clatsop counties completed their quotas Wednesday.

Crane, Harney county, with a population of 200 people, reports 100 subscriptions.

CHARGES BRITISH TRADE TACTICS

Charging that England was building up South American trade while American ships were busy transporting our troops to help save them from defeat, Representative C. F. Reavis of Nebraska, just back from Panama, issued warning that Yanks must look to their trade there if they are ever to get their share.

MRS. MARSHALL AS "FIRST LADY"

Being the wife of the vice president of the United States offers a very enticing role when the president and his wife take occasional trips to Europe. Mrs. Thomas Marshall as "the acting first lady of the land" has entertained extensively in Washington during the last few weeks.

TEACHERS INSTITUTE PASSES RESOLUTIONS

At the teachers' institute at the courthouse Saturday afternoon resolutions were adopted regarding the death of J. F. Grubbs, principal of Park Rose school, who died in a hospital in Portland last Monday following an operation for intestinal trouble. Drafted by a committee of school principals, T. J. Skirvin of Gresham, Miss Macklin of Fairview, and Mr. Searle of Pleasant Valley, the resolutions read:

Whereas, It has pleased the Almighty to take unto Himself J. F. Grubbs, our esteemed and worthy friend and co-worker in the education of the young; and,

Whereas, His life among teachers and pupils was an inspiration and an example of the far reaching effects of high ideals. Therefore, be it

Resolved, That we, the teachers of Multnomah county, extend to the bereaved family our heartfelt sympathy; and be it further

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the family of the bereaved; and, be it further

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be spread upon the minutes of our April meeting and published in the daily papers.

Mr. Grubb's death brought forth many expressions of sorrow from the teachers of the county, by whom he was held in high esteem. A beautiful floral emblem was sent to the funeral—an expression of the regard of his co-workers.

Superintendent Alderson addressed the teachers assembled, calling to their attention the many projects under way in the schools, which must be brought to a successful conclusion before the summer vacation. An address on primary grade work was delivered by one of the educators.

Of especial interest to the teachers is the securing of a county school club building at the county fair grounds, where the members of the many school industrial clubs are planning to hold exhibits this fall. That the schools may furnish the price of the labor for the erection of this building for which the fair board has agreed to furnish the material, the teachers in many of the schools are planning to raise funds by popular subscription among the school patrons and by benefit entertainments.

It was announced that three Gresham pupils, Marjorie Stillions, Mary Patterson and Regina Hammar, of the sixth, fourth and second grades respectively were awarded the thrift stamp prizes for the best note books in their respective grades, in the county.

BUY BONDS.

The success of the Victory Liberty Loan means that the people of the United States have not dropped the handles of the plow until the furrow is done.

What Is a Calorie?

When you invite luncheon guests are you able to sit down calmly and figure their energy before you plan the menu? The high school girls have learned to do that heady piece of work in Mrs. Allen's domestic science cookery classes. Feeding a victorious football team is a lot different from teasing the appetites of the artists of the Girls' Glee club. Men must have cream pie and roast beef and other substantial food, while the girls will rave over watercress salad and raspberry trifle.

This is the season for practical work in cooking, serving and entertaining. In pairs the girls demonstrate their ability as finished hostesses. They purchase the food on a very limited allowance, cook it, serve it to at least four guests, one girl engages the guests in small talk while the other serves the meal.

On Tuesday Gladys Wright and Mabel Metzger invited the four doughty class presidents, David Peterson, Howard Jones, Lyle Winters and Gordon Johnson (acting president of the Freshmen) to partake of their hospitality.

Easter favors would have done justice to any caterer's table. There were yellow and white tarlatan bows and streamers. The daintily petaled candle shades were the girls' handiwork; so, too were the hand painted place cards.

The food itself was excellently cooked and served. The appreciation of the guests must surely have repaid the hostesses for their trouble. And the disposal of the dishes and utensils after the meal is an important part of the lesson. That range is a thing of beauty. It must be cleaned and oiled; the tea cloths scalded and hung on the pulleyed towel rack; the favors and decorations carefully stored away for future use; the spices and condiments placed each in its proper niche.
