MULTNOMAH GRANGE WAS LARGELY ATTENDED

A record attendance enjoyed the program of the all-day session of Multnomah grange on Saturday. Mrs. I. T. Wood received the first and second degrees in the grange during the morning session.
Following the fine grange dinner, the program as announced in last Tuesday's Outlook was given. An unannounced number was a stirring Victory Loan talk by Captain Neace of Portland, a returned artillery officer. The selections by the ladies' glee club of Portland were most enjoyable. W. T. Fletcher, principal of St. Johns high school talked breezily along educational lines. His estimate of the value of music in the school curriculum is high.
Visitors included Professor and Mrs. S. F. Ball and their daughters, Catherine and Elizabeth, who came out from Portland, where Professor Ball teaches in Franklin high school.

Thrift Talk Contest.

In a recent thrift debate at Gilbert school with teams from Gilbert, Russellville, Lynch, Pleasant Valley and Rockwood schools competing, Kenneth White of Gilbert took first honors and a war savings stamp, and Earl Olson of Pleasant Valley won second place, with thrift stamps for the premium.

LUSTED

Mrs. Millie Moulton and daughter, Myrtle, visited Mrs. Moulton's mother, Mrs. H. T. Cummings at Good Samaritan hospital on Saturday. She found her mother very low with small hope for improvement.
Frank Williams is building a new barn on Dr. J. M. Short's place.
Mrs. Jake Hosner and granddaughter, Rose Trombling, visited with friends in Portland on Sunday.

Do You Sleep Well?

To be at his best a man must have sound, refreshing sleep. When wakeful and restless at night he is in no condition for work or business during the day. Wakefulness is often caused by indigestion and constipation, and is quickly relieved by Chamberlain's Tablets. Try a dose of these tablets and see how much better you feel with a clear head and good digestion.—Adv.

Home Packing Company Wants Fruit.

Will keep up our custom of paying more than any other concern for fruit and berries, starting the season with gooseberries and ending with blackberries. If you have never sold us anything, ask your next-door neighbor—he has. Phone 991.

Electric starters installed in Fords. C. E. Osburn & Co.

BORING

Phil Schantlin is keeping bachelor's hall and saving up the dishes while Mrs. Schantlin and son Harry are enjoying a few days in Portland.

Mrs. Franks, rural carrier, is busy off hours breaking in a balky Ford which she intends to use on her route as soon as she gets it trained to stand still while she writes out a money order.

Stowed away in the attic with the hoop skirt, family album and the square dance is the old-fashioned spelling "bee." Instead, are the hobbie skirt, snap shots, one-step and spelling "contests." And that reminds one of the contest taking place at Damascus today. The pupils of that district and nearby districts are working for championship diplomas. It is a decided honor to compete for these diplomas, for only those are eligible who have received 98% in four preliminary tests, for which merit certificates are given. Then, on top of that, 100% must be made in today's grand finish in order to get a championship diploma. The entire contest work is done in writing, thereby doing away with old-fashioned nervousness, to say nothing of the stomach ache, incident to the old way of spelling down. Union District 26 boasts of these spellers who are at Damascus today: Carl Witzel, Estelle Johnson, Clara Hoffmeister, Annie Boese, Ernest Karlen, Dora Hoffmeister, Airlie Bartell, Lola Lingle, Eldore Johnson, Helen Karlen, Nettie Boese, Mildred Gran, and Marjorie Heacock.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Knox spent Sunday with Mrs. Knox's father, Mr. Len Siefert. Mrs. Knox has just returned from France.

Miss Edith Anderson and Miss Erica Johnson went to Estacada to see the high school play, "All of a Sudden, Peggy."

We haven't come to doing figures in the air yet, but we are having our share of them on the ground. The latest thriller is the one Frank Irving performed with his auto Saturday evening. The "ad" where others have been doing fancy diving was too tame for him. He chose the Boring hill, and then found his brakes refused to work. Well, Mr. Irving is all right, and the machine is a little better by now, although it overdid somewhat in its cross country plunge.

Wouldn't it be a surprise if, on waking some morning, to find that hard-surfaced road running right through the potato field? Friday evening at Damascus, the discussion of two weeks ago will be continued. Stump speakers and good listeners are wanted.

If I Were a Farmer.
If I were a farmer I would keep at hand a few reliable medicines for minor ailments that are not so serious as to require the attention of a physician, such as Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy for bowel complaints.
Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for coughs, colds and croup.
Chamberlain's Liniment for sprains, bruises and rheumatic pains.
Chamberlain's Tablets for stomach troubles, biliousness and constipation.
By having these articles at hand it would often save the trouble of a trip to town in the busiest season or in the night, and would enable me to treat slight ailments as soon as they appear, and thereby avoid the more serious diseases that so often follow.—Adv.

PLEASANT VALLEY

Mrs. Theodore Jeffries of Newberg, who was the guest of her sister, Mrs. G. H. Richey a few days last week, has returned to her home.

Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Lehman motored to Hood River Saturday afternoon, returning Sunday.

A. G. Sager, of Lents, called on friends and relatives at this place Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Burts, of Clackamas, visited with Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Richey Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Richey received a telegram Saturday from their son, Verne, stating that he had arrived in New York safely from France and expects to be with the home folks soon.

Mr. and Mrs. Skinner are driving a new Briscoe these days.

TROUTDALE

The funeral of Mrs. Bertha Lumsden was held last Tuesday at the Methodist church. It was the largest funeral that has been held in Troutdale in recent years, the church not being large enough to hold the people. The great profusion of beautiful flowers was a mute tribute to the love and esteem held for the deceased in this community. Mrs. L. A. Harlow and Mrs. J. A. Larsson sang two songs. The pall bearers were Ran and Jay Bailey, H. C. McGinnis, John Burns, C. I. Raker and Will Wright. The services were conducted by Rev. Earl B. Cotton, the minister, and Rev. F. S. Ford, the preceding pastor.

The Helming girls have recently opened a confectionary on Main street in the Helming building. Saturday night when they returned from the grange hall dance up the highway, some one was in the store helping himself or themselves, to merchandise. On being discovered, the thief made his get-away, dropping the sack containing the loot, however. Chase was made after the miscreants, but they were not caught.

Mr. and Mrs. Z. G. Schanck and family, who have been making their home with Mrs. Mary Parsons the past few weeks, have moved to Bridal Veil, where Mr. Schanck has employment.

Patrons of the school will be pleased to learn that the present teachers have been re-elected. Mr. Herbert Bradley, principal, and Mrs. Janet Grant, primary grades. The school is doing excellent work, and we are fortunate in having such competent instructors in charge.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hudson and family have gone up to Stevenson, Washington, to remain during the fishing season.

Vancil Evans, another of our eastern Multnomah soldier boys, has returned home.

Friday was Roy Hensley's birthday, and his mother, Mrs. Ella Hensley, surprised him with a family dinner party on Sunday, all of the family being present except Lieutenant Albert, who is still in France.

Jack Wells, of Roseburg, was here Tuesday to attend the funeral of his sister, Mrs. Lumsden.

The Troutdale Ladies' Aid meets next week, Wednesday, May 7, with Mrs. J. R. Knarr. All members and friends are invited to attend.

Announcement.

A Young Man Has $4,000.00 in the Bank

A few years ago a hard working lad of 19 came into a bank and said: "I am going to open a savings account. If I carry my money around with me, I will spend it." He began with $5.00 per month and gradually increased his deposits until for some time past he has been adding $19.00 a week to his account. He now has $4,000.00 to his credit.
Have you that much money in the bank? Are you saving regularly?
Many a big successful business started on the capital of a savings account.

FAIRVIEW

The Rev. I. B. Self has resigned the pastorate at Smith Memorial Presbyterian church Fairview after nearly five years of service. He passed his 75th birthday April 14, and next September he will have been preaching 50 years. He goes to Portland for the present and expects to go to California in the fall to spend the winter. Arrangements are being made to unite the Fairview church with one in Portland. Rev. Self will still supply for a few Sundays until that arrangement is completed.

The regular services at the Smith Memorial Presbyterian church this coming Sabbath, May 4th. Sunday school at 10 a. m. Preaching by Rev. I. B. Self at 11 a. m.

Verne Pitts, of Portland, spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Pitts.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Blackburn spent Sunday with their daughter, Mrs. Iva Robertson.

Robert Manary recently purchased a new team.

All-day meeting at Cottrell community church, Sunday, May 4. Rev. J. A. Hopper will preach in the morning. Preaching in the afternoon, also. The McPhees and Randalls of Portland will furnish special music. Basket lunch at noon. Everybody invited.

County P. T. A. Council.
The County Council of the Parent-Teachers' association met at Central library, Saturday afternoon, with Mrs. J. P. Lynch, first vice president presiding. A goodly number were present. Mrs. Curry and Mrs. Hayhurst of the Victory Liberty Loan committee gave us eloquent talks on the financial and patriotic part of the victory loan which was enjoyed by all.

The presidents of the different associations gave interesting reports of the work they were doing.
Mr. Mulkey presented some points against House Bill No. 45, Consolidation of County Schools. Miss Wood of the library told us of the value of the Back-to-the-School movement, which was very helpful. The meeting closed with the invitation of Gilbert Parent-Teachers' association to meet at Gilbert school on June 21.

Cut this out, carry it for reference.
