The horn or conductor of the sound, in the Symphonola, is made with the finest skill from the most carefully selected vertical grain spruce. This horn is made of this wood in its entirety, eliminating the cast iron throat with which a majority of the machines now on the market are equipped. We guarantee the Symphonola to be equal in tone quality to any talking machine on the market, regardless of price.

PLAYS ALL STANDARD DISC RECORDS

The Hawthorne Symphonola plays all disc records of any standard make, without any special attachments whatever. In playing Victor or Columbia records the steel needle is used. Edison and Pathe points are furnished with your instrument.

PLUCKY STEVE MARSTON OVERPOWERS CHICK THIEF

money, invested for him by Mr. Emery. Failing to realize cash on his investment at once, he bothered the Emerys and their son, Dr. Mark Emery, in Portland, and finally engaged an attorney, B. W. Taylor, in the Chamber of Commerce building in Portland, who wrote the Emerys regarding the money. Thoroughly disgusted with the man's actions, they presented a bill for his board and room during his uninvited stay in their home and paid the balance to the attorney. Constable Squires expressed the belief that the man had repaid their friendship by stealing their flock of hens.

Judging by the memorandums in the man's pocket, issued to him, T. Poland, by Toft & Co., a firm of commission merchants on Front and Stark streets in Portland, he found poultry stealing and selling a profitable game. Two memos correspond in date and in the number of chickens sold, to the dates and numbers missed from the Marston pens. It has also developed that he has consigned other flocks to firms in Portland, where they are held now pending their sale.

Among other interesting finds in his clothes was a diagram labeled "Morden place—the old Ireland place", situated on the Bairsdale road. At this place two men were surprised inside the unoccupied house by some young people, not long ago. A great quantity of chicken feathers was found in the woodshed. This would seem to indicate an accomplice working with Mr. Poland. An investigation is under way at present.

Before starting to the Marston neighborhood the thief spent some time in the neighborhood of the Emery home. At the Karl A. Miller residence Mrs. Miller discovered him skulking about the yard, but the arrival of an auto load of young people across the street, scared him off. He returned later and was rolling up the Miller's hose and putting it in a sack, when Mrs. Miller threatened to shoot him, whereupon he left without ceremony.

The trial of T. Poland, the vagrant who was captured in the C. Marston poultry house Saturday night, was held in the courtroom of Justice of the Peace Brown on Monday morning. The defendant entered a plea of guilty to the charge of stealing the Marston chickens, denying other recent chicken thefts out here, however. It is reported that he has consigned poultry to the Front street commission houses on eleven different occasions in the past couple of months.

He was ordered committed to the Multnomah Farm by Mr. Brown, who considers him demented.

C. V. Brauer Visits Hi.

C. V. Brauer, erstwhile member of the faculty of Union high, and later an artillery man in France, spent several days in Gresham and vicinity last week visiting with friends. On Wednesday he visited at the high school, receiving a warm welcome from teachers and students. He has been in England, Belgium, France, Luxemburg and Germany. In Luxemburg the boys received a welcome that made them loath to move on. On Christmas day Mr. Brauer was one of a party of thirty doughboys who were entertained in the home of a gracious hostess in the small duchy.

In Mr. Brauer's company, the 348th field artillery, was Dick Johnson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Marion Johnson of Gresham. The men became great friends, with Gresham a common bond between them. They returned from Brest together. Mr. Johnson is stationed at Camp Lewis at present.

Mr. Brauer was a dinner guest of Mrs. Arthur Fieldhouse last Tuesday and Wednesday evenings. He made his home there while teaching at the high school and Mrs. Fieldhouse has received many interesting letters from him while he was soldiering abroad. He is planning to leave for Chico, California, where his mother resides.

Community Center.

Sentiment is growing in favor of a community center for Gresham. There is seldom a public gathering of any size that some one does not broach the subject in some form. The suggestion has been made that it take the form of a permanent memorial of our appreciation of our soldiers.

The need of an amusement center for young and old is patent. An auditorium with a stage ample enough for community entertainments has been mentioned as a growing need out here. Some discussions have included a swimming tank, gymnasium and showers in the tentative plans for such a center.

A drive, properly launched at this time, would receive the support of the outlying districts of this county and adjacent Clackamas neighborhoods, if the plan guaranteed some benefit to them. And it should, if a true community center is in prospect.

GRESHAM LOCALS

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Kaddery of Portland were dinner guests recently S. C. Jones. Their son, Ralph, who went to France with the 162d Infantry, has arrived in the United States and is expected home soon.

Lieutenant C. A. Aylsworth has left for his home in San Francisco, after a short visit at the home of his brother E. W. Aylsworth. He has been in charge of his company in the 62nd Infantry at Camp Lee, Virginia, for many months. They were stationed at Camp Mills at the time the armistice was signed, some of the troops being recalled after a day's voyage to the front.

Mr. and Mrs. Latourell, Miss Lyons and Mr. and Mrs. Bauer enjoyed a trip to Salem on Sunday, going south by way of Newberg and returning from the capitol from Canby and Oregon City. They report the roads in good condition.

Miss Ruby Emery is making a brief visit at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Emery.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Aylsworth and Mr. and Mrs. Howitt motored to Clatskanie on Sunday, spending a pleasant day on the lower Columbia. They towed a broken-down autoist over one stretch of heavy road.

Mr. and Mrs. Kirk Thompson of Enterprise, are guests at the home of Mrs. Thompson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. Cameron. Mrs. Thompson will remain for several weeks.

Mrs. O. A. Eastman is planning to attend the convention of the Women's Home Missionary societies of the Methodist church at Newberg this week.

Miss Wyeth Hostess to Seattle Matron.

Mrs. B. G. Mitchell, of Seattle, with her little daughters, Eleanor and Louise, spent the week-end with Miss Adeline B. Wyeth. Mrs. Mitchell's husband is with the American Siberian expedition as Y. M. C. A. secretary.

During their stay the visitors and the Wyeths enjoyed an afternoon on the Columbia highway, going as far as the Cascades Locks. The party found Gordon Taylor's big car was quiet, speedy and comfortable and that Gordon was a skillful driver.

E. SCHWEIDLER STATES WHY HE LOST LAW SUIT

Gresham, Ore., April 28, 1919.

Editor Outlook:—In the issue of your paper of March 28, an article was published stating that the First State Bank and Archie Meyers had won their law suit instituted by me for fraud, in connection with the sale and purchase of the Archie Cornutt place.

In reply to this article, wish to state the suit was lost by me, not on the merits of the case, but on account of the misleading statements made by Mr. Meyers' attorney, and the neglect, wilfully or otherwise, of Mr. Schnabel who was my attorney. The case was never allowed to come to trial, on account of a technical error only. The lapse of more than two years from the date of sale, barring me from any recourse on account of alleged fraud.

I wish to make this statement in order that my friends and others will have a clear understanding of the case.

E. SCHWEIDLER.

BAPTIST CONVENTION OVERFLOWS CHURCH

The convention of the Willamette Baptist association opened this morning with a large attendance of delegates and visitors from all parts of the district. Already the sessions have overflowed the local Baptist church and plans are under way to hold two meetings tonight—one in the Methodist and one in the Baptist church.

A choir of fifty voices from the Arleta Baptist church will present a song service and sacred concert. At least two hundred visitors are expected from Portland. The choir will be divided between the two churches.

Fill the Joke Box.

Munichota, the school annual of the Union High School, will go to press on May 7th. In the meanwhile "Fill the joke box," pleads the joke editor, Grace Fieldhouse, who has placed said box conspicuously on the desk on the assembly hall platform. Too prominent a place, Grace. Some of us are a little bashful about traipsing up there and dropping in our efforts at wit before the whole student body.

For Sale.

For $2200, the third five-acre tract south of Powell Valley road, on first road west of Gates road, all fenced and cultivated. Good well, three-room shack, small barn. Two and a half acres, including improvements, $1500. R. F. Walters, Gresham.
