About Rheumatism.

Rheumatism causes more pain and suffering than any other disease, for the reason that it is the most common of all ills, and it is certainly gratifying to sufferers to know that there is a remedy that will afford relief, and make rest and sleep possible. It is called Chamberlain's Liniment.—Adv.

BORING

The general public are advised to practice looking both directions before crossing a road. Isaac Scott and John Anderson will soon be testing the speedometers on their new cars, which they are expecting to receive this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Erick Bartell motored to Haley where they attended church services on Sunday.

The uniforms are being gradually displaced by civilian clothes. That will make us appreciate the baseball suits that the Boring team will be wearing—if they get organized.

Think of the diplomas that have to be framed! From union school comes news of the spelling contest held at Damascus last week. Of the eleven who went there with 98% averages, for which they get merit certificates, eight returned with 100% champion diplomas—as far as can be learned the best average of any district. From the seventh grade Clara Hoffmeister and Estelle Johnson; fifth, Ailie Bartell, Eldore Johnson, Dora Hoffmeister; fourth, Nettie Boese, Helen Karlen, Marjorie Heacock. In addition to the spelling, there was an arithmetic contest. This was a test of pupil's understanding of problems and the processes to work them by, rather than how fast they could figure. To qualify, an average of not less than 90% must have been made in four regular school tests, and from all who did qualify, but one representative from each grade was permitted to take this final. Clara and Dora Hoffmeister carried off the laurels for their grades, seventh and fifth respectively, while Helen Karlen became the star number worker for the fourth grade.

The evening Albert Hoffmeister was returning home from Camp Lewis he happened to be passing Alfred Wellman's house. It is not known exactly what he thought when he heard a regular buzz of chatter and laughing, but soldier instinct prompted him to look into the matter. He found Mr. and Mrs. Wellman still looking big-eyed from the surprise given them by thirty-six of their neighbors who had come to celebrate Mr. Wellman's birthday. It turned into another celebration, a real welcome home for Albert. The community wishes Mr. Wellman many happy returns of the day.

TROUTDALE

Walter Shirling, of Mont Matre, Saskatchewan, Canada, is visiting Mrs. Shirling's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Burdine, and other relatives here. He is looking over the valley with the view of purchasing a farm home. Mrs. Shirling and family will come soon.

The Troutdale Ladies' Aid meets this week Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. J. R. Knarr. All members and friends of the Aid are invited to be present.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Thomas, of Corvallis, are visiting their son, C. I. Thomas, of this place.

The last meeting of the season of the Parent-Teacher association will be held Friday afternoon at the schoolhouse. Election of officers will be held, also two delegates to the State Congress of Mothers and Parent-Teachers' association to be held at Medford this fall. Other business of importance is to be transacted, and a full attendance is desired. The Troutdale chapter of Fairview

BANK OF GRESHAM

GRESHAM, OREGON

Lodge No. 92, A. F. & A. M. met Saturday evening at the Masonic hall here. It was a large meeting, the East Gate lodge from Montavilla being the principal guests, bringing a candidate along with them and initiating him at the meeting. Guests were present also from the lodges of Gresham, Sunnyside and Sandy. The refreshments, other than cakes sent in by the Eastern Star women, were under the management of Will Wright, and were pronounced exceedingly excellent and satisfying. The company numbered about eighty.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bramhall and family drove Sunday over to Battleground, Washington, and spent the day with relatives there, returning in the evening, bringing with them Mrs. Mary Bramhall, Mr. Bramhall's mother, who will visit here with them.

Fred Laudan came home Monday morning from Camp Lewis, where he received his discharge from army service. He was with the famous 91st division.

Mr. and Mrs. Haskell Cole and family of Wallowa, have recently come to live in this neighborhood, and are renters on the Mercer place.

T. J. Mull, who recently moved to the W. Hull place near Troutdale, is an experienced grower of cane in the territory west of Portland. He is quoted as saying that the soil near here is ideal for that purpose. Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Bothwell plan to try the experiment on the Beaver Douglass garden. Anyone interested in the project should get in touch with them at once. A mill will be set up on the place.

Mrs. J. O. Bothwell has returned from a 5-weeks' trip to eastern Oregon, where she visited with her daughter, Miss Irene Douglass. Mrs. Bothwell brought nine young lambs home with her, which she is raising by hand.

PLEASANT VIEW

Little June Woodie, while playing one day last week, ran into a wire fence and cut her face so severely that a couple of stitches were required to help repair the damage.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Preston, at Portland, a son. Mrs. Preston was formerly Miss Mary Seidl.

Word has been received from the Frank Wand family who, are making a long visit at Mrs. Wand's old home in Illinois. Their baby, who had pneumonia soon after arriving there at Christmas time has been very sick again since, but was beginning to mend a little again.

Many of his friends will be pleased to know that Ralph Kincaid has returned to the good old U. S. A. and at present is stationed at Camp Mills.

Glory has again made Pleasant View a brief visit—this time because of the winning of the prize War Savings Stamp by one of its pupils, at the Thrift meeting held at the high school Friday evening. Lloyd Bramhall made the winning 4-minute Thrift speech, Edwin Shelley of Springdale also made a good speech and had it been of the required length the judges would have had a hard time deciding which one had won the prize.
