EPIDEMIC OF BUILDING HAS STRUCK COUNTY

That we are resuming normal business is evidenced on every hand, but decidedly emphasized by the building activity in or near Gresham. Builders running into the hundreds, are putting up residences, silos, barns, garages, chicken houses, enlargements or repairs. A complete list of these it is impossible to give, but a representative few will show to some extent, what has been done or is doing, since the first of the year.

New residences have been built or are being built by W. Bliss, C. H. Babcock, F. S. Senn, G. H. Dressel, L. M. Johnston, T. J. Powell, J. Voorhees, James Burns, E. J. Judd, L. D. Smith.

Extensive repairs or additions made by Dr. A. H. Wright, J. A. Lauderback, John Roberts, Charles Cleveland, Cotton Ranch, Wilson Stock Farm.

Poultry raising hops into the lime-light with many up-to-date chicken houses. It is something to crow over to have so many chicken houses recently built that only a few of them makes a big list. Here they are: E. L. Thorpe, Schiller Bros., R. Jennings, James Jennings, F. Peak, C. H. Babcock, W. Ceschlik, W. Perry, B. Perry, E. R. Wright and others.

Barns—the cue to another business, have recently been put up by J. Zimmerman, Wilson Stock Farm, W. Perry.

Our local dealers in autos can have nothing to complain of judging by the number of garages put up. Porches, silos, pump houses, sheds and walks have been helping to keep the wheels of industry going. In this group are E. R. Wright, C. N. Taylor, W. Bliss.
