"The Linotype
Way is the Way that Wins."

Official paper of the Town of Gresham
Official paper of the Town of Fairview.

Entered as second-class matter March 2, 1911, at the Postoffice at Gresham, Oregon, under the Act of March 3, 1879.

Build now. This is your opportunity.

Has Italy stopped fuming about Fiume?

Oregon's hog crop in 1918 sold for $24,500,000.

If you don't own a home—buy one. Make a start, however small.

Feeling like thirty cents isn't so bad as it used to be. These are days of war prices.

You helped to win the war. Now help to make this the busiest year in all our history.

Last year you raised a war garden. Make it a victory garden this year—a big one.

The cost of delay in proceeding with road building programs is more serious than the increased cost of production.

Nihilism, class hatred, I. W. W. ism, or idleness will not feed and clothe a population. Industry, ambition and thrift will.

Whether you own a farm, or only a town lot, look around and see what improvements can be made. Start something.

When you go to the polls with western development in mind vote for the Roosevelt highway, the coast military highway that will open up scenic Oregon to the world.

There is only one way to be sure of a harvest in the fall and that is to sow the seed in the spring. Money wisely invested in improvements will bring certain returns in years to come.

Get behind the home industries and payrolls, as part of the general campaign for readjustment and reconstruction. The prosperity and welfare of the community depends on its industries and loyal support of home merchants.

The biggest factor in the business outlook at any given moment is the subtle factor called "confidence." When business men have courage, all the producing elements get out to produce to their capacity, which keeps everybody busy earning money.

An awakened Oregon, thoroughly aroused to opportunity, will vote for all the construction measures on the June ballot. To arouse the state is the duty of all who wish to live in an Oregon that is developed to a parity with progressive sister states to north and south.—Oregon Voter.

Mary's Little Man.
Mary had a little man,
Insure his life? Oh, no!
"Many better ways," said John,
"That I can use my dough."
After John "cashed in his checks,"
Mary paid the expense,
And found she had—just listen now,
Five kids and thirty cents.

Oregon still leads in thrift work, the first text on thrift education having been prepared by Dean J. A. Bexell, of the O. A. C. school of commerce, and published by J. B. Lippincott's, Philadelphia. It has been recommended by the United States treasury department for its eighth grade detailed course of study. The text is made a part of the Lippincott thrift series, and is strongly recommended by the publishers.

That there are many thriving progressive communities in the eastern part of the county is evidenced by the fine lists of items sent to the Outlook by our correspondents. Again and again we feel our heart glow with pride and praise for their good work. Note for instance the correspondence from Pleasant Valley in today's Outlook; also Kelso, Troutdale, Fairview, Boring, etc. And others from time to time.

HOME SWEET HOME
by Jack Wilson

AHA, HALF DAY OFF AT LAST—NOW WHAT WAS IT I PLANNED ON?

YES—AND WHAT WAS IT I WANTED TO HAVE YOU DO?—WHAT WAS IT?—IT'S FUNNY I CAN'T REMEMBER.

SAY, GET AWAY AND QUIT ASKING ALL THOSE QUESTIONS IF YOU WANT THIS FIXED—BEAT IT! BEAT IT!!

AHA!—NOW I REMEMBER WHAT I WANTED OF YOU—TO BEAT THOSE RUGS.

NOW SEE WHAT YOU GOT US INTO!

MEMORIAL DAY.

You realize, do you not, why May 30th has been set aside as a holiday by forty states of the Union? It is the "national Sabbath of patriotism." Do not plan for a joy ride or a tennis tournament or a ball game or a prize fight.

Give pause. Take the time to tell your children the story of the blue-clad men who saved the nation. And take a lesson in these reconstruction times from the high-hearted men in the blue and the grey, who, when the fighting was done, rebuilt their nation.

THE TIME HAS COME.

Social and economic problems confronting the country today will be worked out under the American flag and not under the "red emblem of destruction and disorder." Ole Hanson, mayor of Seattle, declared before a throng of thousands who packed the White House ellipse here tonight.

"In the capital of the nation," said Mayor Hanson, "I request the governmental authorities to punish all men who advocate the overthrow of our government by violence. As an American citizen, I request that the alien scum who are trying to dye the flag red be deported and deported at once. Citizens of this country who are traitors to its flag should be incarcerated. The time has come for a firm hand."

"The welfare of the community is not served by refusing to act together, and so long as the farmer or business man carries a chip on his shoulder conditions will not change.

ALL TOGETHER, NOW!

Why is it that no matter where you go you meet some who refuse to get along with the business man in their home city? Why do they object to working with him for the interests of the entire community? And why do the merchants permit farmer Smith to do his trading in some other city, thereby alienating him from his own? The welfare of the community is not served by refusing to act together, and so long as the farmer or business man carries a chip on his shoulder conditions will not change.

LITTLE POTATOES POOR SEED.

Little potatoes taken from the bin are likely to be very poor seed, being from run-out or diseased hills. Small potatoes taken from the hill that bore a good yield of market sized potatoes are as good seed as equal sized pieces from the large potatoes of the same hill. Taking seed from the clawed over spuds rejected as too small for table use to save seed costs generally serves also to save harvest cost, for but little work harvesting is apt to be grown.—O. A. C. Farm Crops Bulletin.

EVERYBODY DIPS POTATOES.

The practice of dipping potato seed is becoming universal in Multnomah county, says County Agent S. B. Hall in the Farm Bureau News. Growers report cleaner, smoother and more potatoes. Soaking for 1 1/2 hours in a solution of four ounces mercuric chloride—corrosive sublimate—in 30 gallons of water, before cutting, is the Multnomah practice. Too long or too strong treatment will cut down the yield.

HIDE PERSHING REPORT.

Secretary of War Baker and General March, chief of staff, are charged by members of congress with having entered into an apparent agreement to prevent General Pershing, hero of the war with Germany and a republican from making public his plan, based upon actual experience in command at the front, for the reorganization of the service after the treaty of peace has been actually signed.

General Pershing's report, made to the Secretary of War, lies securely tucked away in a War Department pigeon hole. Meanwhile March and Baker are hurrying through the details of a plan prepared far away from the front in Washington by those not directly in the fight. This scheme gives concentrated powers to the chief of staff. Proposed to members of the military affairs committees of the house and senate, it resulted in a snub for General March. Hence one of the first military acts of the new republican congress will be to demand of the War Department that it turn over the Pershing document so that a policy may be developed based upon facts gained from the war's battles and organization.

Hatches Chicks in Parlor.

"This year she has been running sixteen incubators in her parlor, but plans on building an incubator cellar next year," says C. S. Brewster, Oregon Agricultural College poultry specialist, in telling of the work of Mrs. C. B. Chandler of Waterloo, Or. She has only a small flock of O. A. C. stock, but is doing a thriving business in selling day-old chicks. She buys eggs from her neighbors who carry only straight college stock. A poultry demonstration farm has been established on her farm.

THE SWEET-TOOTH ERA.

The people of the United States spent three-fourths of a billion for candy last year.

If national prohibition ever gets completely established these figures will be easily doubled.

As a nation we are substituting caramels for cocktails and popcorn balls for highballs.

Candy kettles and chocolate dipping tables are being installed in breweries and sweet-shops in saloons. The old-time tippler is turning to bonbons and the booze fighter is nibbling at walnut creams.

Indirectly this means a boom for the sugar beet industry, for the real estate dealer and farmer.

The victims of the sweet-tooth age will not have such evils to contend with as delirium tremens and cirrhosis of the liver and there will be more employment for labor.

The west is fortunate in having a number of big sugar companies that are bending every effort to develop sugar beet raising and manufacture.

Words of Wisdom from Abraham Lincoln.

The prudent penniless beginner in the world labors for wages awhile, saves a surplus with which to buy land or tools for himself, then labors for himself another while, and at length hires another beginner to help him.

"This is the just and generous and prosperous system which opens the way to all, gives hope to all, and consequent energy to progress and improvement of condition to all."

The principles of advancement quoted above were enunciated by Abraham Lincoln, and while he lived in the first half of the nineteenth century, were he here in the first half of the twentieth, he could not more fittingly interpret the personal and patriotic need for industry, frugality and investment.—The Manufacturer.

Let us deport the agitators or worse yet make them work.

The socialists who seized upon unusual times and conditions to drive home their doctrines must, by now, realize that some doctrines will not stick. Not in America.

"Bolshevism is the double-distilled, copper-rivited, essence of kaiserism with the brains left out. It is the germ of revolt against law and order and would betray the Saviour for 30 cents and loan the money to pay the debt."—Fleetwood Oregon, Tribune.

In writing to a personal friend Col. Leonard Wood uses this expression: "One thing certain; we have to get the feet of our people back on the earth and steady things up a bit. Organized government throughout the world is shaking uncomfortably; we don't want the tremor to get over here."—Industrial News Bureau.

Clay products that are basic building material are also dropping and making this use possible.

In all building, whether of concrete, steel, brick or tile, lumber enters as a big factor.

It is the one universal material, employed in mining, building farm fences, railroads or skyscrapers.

Cause of Headache.
By knowing the cause, a disease may often be avoided. This is particularly true of headache. The most common cause of headache is a disordered stomach or constipation, which may be corrected by taking a few doses of Chamberlain's Tablets. Try it. Many others have obtained permanent relief by taking these Tablets. They are easy to take and mild and gentle in effect.—Adv.

The annual report of the Farmers Mutual Fire Relief Ass'n of Portland filed with the Insurance Department of Oregon shows $1,301,634.00 insurance written by the Ass'n in 1918, and 475 new members gained during the year. The Ass'n is now in its 15th year, and has about five million insurance in force.
