MELROSE AND VICTORY

Last Sunday marked the 58th wedding anniversary of Rev. and Mrs. J. H. Wood. The event was celebrated by a dinner at their home, in which those participating, besides the aged couple, were Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Larsen, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Wood, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Wilson, Rev. Earl B. Cotton, D. T. Williams, Mrs. Alta Gentry and son, Russel, the latter being a great-grandson. Mr. Wood is a veteran of the Civil War, in which he was a chaplain and his wife was an army nurse.

Mrs. M. Douthit, mother of H. L. Douthit, is seriously ill at her home in Portland with erysipelas.

Cecil Duke of the 29th Engineers arrived home on Sunday from service overseas. Home looks good to him, but he says he does not regret the service which he gave his country. He was on board the ill-fated Tuscania and suffered considerably before he was rescued.

PLEASANT HOME

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Lake have moved to Portland where he is a carpet layer for Meier & Frank.

Mannice and Charlotte Milsted, of Oregon City, are visiting relatives here. Mannice has just been discharged from the service. He has been in active fighting overseas.

Mrs. H. D. McCreary visited her daughter, Mrs. Cecil Coffman over Sunday.

The Baptist Aid society will meet at the home of Mrs. A. E. DeHaven on next Thursday afternoon.

POWELL VALLEY

Albert Shuholm was given a complete surprise on Friday night by about thirty of his young friends. A most enjoyable evening was spent and the festivities closed with the serving of ice cream and cake.

The Girls' Sewing club will meet at the home of Mrs. Alta Gentry on Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Girls who are contemplating taking up canning are asked to be present at the same time.

15,000 Votes Free for Goddess of Liberty

A word building contest open to everyone. Three prizes. To the person submitting a list containing the greatest number of words made up from the use of the letters contained in the name "BANK OF GRESHAM" we will give 10,000 votes; to the person submitting the next longest list 4,000 votes and to the third longest list 1,000 votes.

The prize winners may use their votes for anyone of the contestants that they may choose. All that is necessary to enter this contest is a pencil, paper and a dictionary.

All words submitted must be found either in Webster's International or the Standard Dictionaries, and completed lists must be left with the Bank of Gresham on or before June 20th, 1919.

Now get busy with your pencil—this is absolutely free to all.

Yours for a grand and glorious 4th of July,

BANK OF GRESHAM
GRESHAM, OREGON.

FAIRVIEW

A number of friends and relatives gathered on Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. H. Peterson, where a miscellaneous shower was given in honor of her niece, Miss Beulah Jenkins, whose marriage to Lawrence Harvey will take place this month. A pleasant afternoon was spent in conversation and music. The guests were the Mesdames W. Copeland, Jack Richards, J. W. Anderson, Leslie St. Clair, C. H. Stone, J. W. Moller, E. Burlingame and Hattie Jenkins, the Misses Edith Jenkins, Rachel Peterson, Sue Lewis, all of Fairview; Mrs. A. L. Harvey, Mrs. A. D. Keen, the Misses Ivy and Sylvia Robertson, Hazel Camp, Mabel Wagner and Ada Cree, all of Portland; Mrs. Belle Stockton and daughter, Miss Dalla, of Rockwood; Miss Anna Wagner of Cottrell and Miss Helen Bliss of Terry.

A silver tea will be given at the home of Mrs. Julia Snover next Thursday afternoon from 2 to 5 o'clock under the auspices of the Women's society of the Presbyterian church. Refreshments will be served and a specially interesting time is promised all who will attend.

The regular services—Sunday school at 10 o'clock and preaching at 11 o'clock—will be held at the Presbyterian church next Sunday, to which you are invited.

Fairview grange will meet in regular session next Saturday, June 7. The morning session will be followed by the usual fine grange dinner. A good program will be given at the lecture hour, to which the public is invited. At this time Miss Ruth Montague of Gresham will talk on the subject of the local library and will also outline the Boy Scout work with a view to organizing a patrol here.

Mrs. H. S. Stone has returned from Spokane where she spent two weeks visiting with her niece.

Interesting closing exercises were held at the school last Wednesday evening by the school, under the direction of the teachers, the Misses Macklin and Benedict. County Superintendent Alderson and County Club Leader Ethel Calkins were present and gave illustrated talks on club work which were much enjoyed. The school picnicked at Laurelhurst park.

TROUTDALE

Memorial Day was generally observed at the Douglas cemetery here by citizens decorating the graves of their relatives and friends. John Coons, superintendent of the cemetery, had cut the grass and cleaned up until it looked very neat and well kept, and when the graves were covered with the abundance of beautiful blossoms laid there by loving hands, the cemetery gave the appearance of a well-kept flower garden in full bloom.

Herbert Bradley, principal of the school, moved with his family to his property in Portland this week. Mr. Bradley has signed his contract to teach next year, but could find no house to live in. It was necessary to vacate the one he was occupying so had to move back to the city until a house becomes vacant.

J. M. Randall fell from a ladder last week and hurt his back quite seriously. Sunday he was taken to the home of his daughter in Portland in order to have better care, as his daughter, Fern, at home is not at all well. It is especially unfortunate at this time as he has just begun picking strawberries.

Our town had quite an interest in the eighth grade graduation exercises at the library last Thursday. The five graduates were there to receive their diplomas, having all passed with exceptionally good grades. The graduates are, Thelma DuPuis, Bertha Weathers, Sam Harlow, Clyde Monahan and Harold McGinnis. Others who attended the exercises were, Mrs. H. McGinnis, Mrs. Ed DuPuis and Mrs. A. D. Kendall.

The two pupils of the school having perfect attendance for the year are, had perfect attendance for the year Alice O'Neill and Elizabeth Thomas. As the guests of their teacher, Mrs. Janet Grant, they attended the exercises at the library Thursday and received their certificates of attendance there. In the afternoon the party, augmented by Bertha Weathers and Donald Grant, occupied a box at the Strand and hugely enjoyed the show. The best time they ever had, the children reported.

SANDY BLUFF

Mr. and Mrs. Randolph Spier visited last week with Mr. and Mrs. Alonzo Radford.

Sylvester Barnes and daughters Vesta and Ruth visited with Mr. Barnes' mother, Mrs. Laura Barnes, on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Crose visited recently the latter's sister, Mrs. A. J. Ault.

Mrs. Robert Lansdowne and Mrs. Sutton visited with Mrs. Hengstler last week.

Mr. and Mrs. James Chandler visited over Sunday with Mrs. Chandler's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Brook.

Electric starters installed in Fords. C. E. Osburn & Co.

THE UNIVERSAL CAR

We are in hopes that the farmers will not make the same mistake they did last summer, by not ordering their Tractor until Fall.

There will be a shortage and you will be unable to get Fordson Tractors when you want them. We are in a position to deliver three machines at once. We are unable to say when there will be more for delivery.

Raker & Son

Order now and learn to operate your machine by the time you need it to harvest your crops.
