GET READY FOR THE FAIR.

The premium list for the combined Multnomah County Fair and Land Products and Manufacturer's show is being printed by the Outlook and is expected to be off the press in about ten days. C. D. Minton, manager of the combined shows, is making great plans for this fall's exhibit and is being strongly backed by the fair board, on which are the three county commissioners of Multnomah county.

There is every assurance of the fair being the biggest and best ever held in the county. The premiums are ample and varied and should attract a greater number of exhibitors this year than ever.

The Multnomah County Fair has had a fine growth and now takes another big step ahead. County commissioners and business men are taking an active interest in the fair. A majority on the board of directors are Portland business men. This is what many have said was needed in order to enlarge the scope and influence of the fair. It ought to go forward with more zest and efficiency than ever. The money is forthcoming.

The one thing yet needed is for the producers and manufacturers to get busy, make their plans for the exhibits, and determine to pull down the handsome prizes.

Observance of the birthday of the late Theodore Roosevelt on the 27th day of October of each year as a national holiday is provided for in a bill introduced in the House of Representatives by a republican of New Jersey.

We would like to favor this, especially because the editor could by shifting his birthday a day or two enjoy the honor of a public holiday as natal day. But we are opposed to setting aside a legal holiday on which to commemorate the birth of every great and public spirited statesman. Of course the time will come when we should have a Wilson day and a day for this one and that one. There are enough distinguished men (and women) who could be thus honored to fill up the year's calendar. It is well to honor the men and keep their memory fresh but it is not advisable to have too many legal holidays.

A live bank, operated along modern lines, is one of the greatest assets any community can have. You don't need to go away from Gresham to see the evidence of this fact. Our banks are growing because they deserve to grow. They are helping to create the wealth of the community. They are carrying on campaigns to show the advantages of intensive farming, the raising of better stock, better and more poultry, etc. They are advising and aiding the farmer to provide better buildings and other facilities. They are encouraging the running of the farm on business principles. This all helps and indeed soon makes the difference between a live, progressive, and well to do community, and a back number.

It is not generally known that Portland, Oregon, is the second largest wool center in the United States, Boston only exceeding it in record of sales.

The co-operative marketing of eggs and other poultry products is the purpose of a newly organized Oregon Poultry Producers association, co-operative. C. S. Brewster of the O. A. C. Corvallis, is the secretary. Eggs will be graded and standardized, and marketed under the association label, each egg bearing the state brand. Only perfectly good eggs will be accepted for this brand, and consumers will be informed through publicity and advertising of the superior merits and reliability of the association's output. And this reminds us of the merchant who advertised, "We want your eggs, and we want them bad!"

An effort is to be made it seems to separate the treaty from the league of nations and so give the senate a chance to consider each one on its merits. This would be a great disappointment to some who have put the league first and the treaty second or considered both should be put over together. But we think each should be considered, adopted or amended on its merits and adopted or amendments suggested or advised as the senate sees fit. Each seems to present considerations that should be decided on separately.

It is not generally known that there has been erected on territory adjoining our country a full-fledged experiment in L. W. W. syndicalism. President Alvarados overthrew the constitutional guarantees and forcibly seized the government of the State of Yucatan. Backed by an army, the revolutionists have overthrown church and state, middle class and capitalist, industries and property.

We would rather they would try the experiment in Yucatan than in the good old U. S. A.

Dealers, cancel your revenue stamps. A statement issued by the Internal Revenue Service of the Treasury Department, contains this warning with the request that we pass it on. Dealers are warned that proprietary stamps by means of which the tax on toilet and medicinal articles is collected, must be cancelled when the article is sold. The penalty for making use of a stamp to denote the tax imposed without cancelling the stamp, is a fine of not more than $100.

The Outlook is still giving away 100 votes to the one who first reports to the office a typographical error in any ad in the Outlook.

The ads are being well read from all indications. Even the children are taking a keen interest in the matter. One young miss telephoned in that "mortgage" should be spelled without a "t," and another found a supposed error in the word "diarrhoea," but the dictionary gives two spellings. She was awarded the votes, however, just to encourage her and others. We want to give them away.

PLEASANT VALLEY

Henry Croucher of Olalla was a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Dahlquist one day this week.

F. S. Akin, of Portland, was a valley caller last Sunday.

Mrs. C. A. Ekstrand and little son, Clarence, have returned from Albany where they spent several days visiting with relatives and friends.

Lester Richey has returned home from France, having received his discharge from Camp Lewis last Thursday. Lester was a member of the 20th engineers and was one among the first to enlist from this place.

F. A. Richey is erecting a modern chicken house on his premises. Another testimonial that the chicken business is profitable.

Anyway the 33 per cent of the voters who cast their ballots on last Tuesday did their duty.

And next Monday is school meeting day, another opportunity to show your patriotism.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Richey motored to Salmon Creek, Wash., last Sunday. Rev. Mr. Childs, of Medford, was a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Garrison a few days last week.

Everybody went to the rose show this week. Those who couldn't ride, walked.

Chronic Constipation.
Perhaps you have never thought of it, but this disorder is due to a lack of moisture in the residual matter of the food. If you will drink an abundance of water, eat raw fruits and take lots of outdoor exercise, you may be able eventually to overcome it entirely. In the meantime use the most mild and gentle laxatives. Strong and harsh cathartics take too much water out of the system and make a bad matter worse. Chamberlain's Tablets are easy and pleasant to take, and most agreeable in effect. Give them a trial.—Adv.
