CHILDREN MAKE THE DAY MERRY

It was children's day at Gresham grange on Saturday, and the occasion was celebrated in happy manner.

Routine business of the grange and the conferring of the third and fourth degrees on Mrs. Charles Powell, occupied the morning session.

In trooped the children at noon, all eager for the grange dinner in their honor. Directed by George F. Honey and Mrs. W. R. Kern they formed a procession in the grange hall and marched gayly in to the long central table spread for them.

The afternoon program was entirely in the hands of these young grangers-to-be. Fond parents and grandparents beamed their appreciation of the children's efforts. There were recitations by Helen Exley, Iise Schwedler, Gwen Metzger, Florence Kern, Frances and Luetta Welling that quite captivated every one. Helen Kern and Margaret St. Clair sang sweetly of flowers and happy children, their young bird-like voices quivering a wee bit with stage fright. Hearty applause to reassure them!

Willene Botkin contributed a pleasing piano number; Herbert Eling tooted bugle calls, and Mrs. Janet Grant of Fairview gave a funny reading of a lazy schoolboy with a long string of perfectly good reasons for not setting the world on fire. Vocal duets by Mesdames Brugger and Schwedler closed the program.

Followed then some jolly stunts by George Honey. He's the man who can pluck a rabbit from your silk hat, or squeeze a dollar into a dime, or find a nickel in your ear. He had everybody squealing with joy. Tied some intricate knots and untied them with one flip, and lined up a row of juveniles for a lame duck contest. Business of tortuous limping. It took several heats to decide the winners.

Of considerable interest to the community is the action of the grangers in endorsing the project of a community mill for Gresham and the surrounding farming community. The matter was presented to the assembly by Dr. A. W. Botkin, who, with F. E. Clark of Cherryville, and others, has had the matter under consideration for some time. So favorably impressed by its possibilities were the grangers that they decided to have Mr. Clark explain the project at Pomona grange in the Multnomah grange hall at Orient tomorrow, at which time some definite action may be expected.

E. E. Welling, master of the grange, presided on Saturday. He is still shaking hands with his left, the right one being still in a sling as the result of a painful accident several months ago when the hand was caught in his windmill and badly torn and crushed.

Visitors from Portland were Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Sleret and children and Mrs. Sleret's mother, Mrs. Mary Shattuck. They were enthusiastically greeted by many old friends present.

County Council to Meet.
The County Council Parent-Teachers' association will meet at Gilbert school, District No. 45 on Saturday, June 21, at 11 o'clock a. m. All county Parent-Teachers' associations are requested to be present. It will be election of officers. There will be an interesting program. Visitors are requested to bring sandwiches for one. Take Estacada or Gresham cars First and Alder to Gilbert station.

AUTOMOBILES COLLIDE BROKEN RIBS RESULT

About 9 o'clock, Sunday evening at the junction of Powell street and South Roberts avenue there was another automobile mix-up. Byron Pullen leaving the town in his Chevrolet collided with a Jap who was just coming into town in his truck. The Jap had swung on to his side of the street, but it seems that the Chevrolet drove too close and the accident occurred.

Byron escaped without any injuries, but the other was not quite so fortunate. Dr. Geo. Inglis was called, and upon examination found that the Jap had two ribs broken.

The machines were only slightly damaged.

LARGE ACREAGE OF POTATOES FOR GRESHAM FACTORY

(1) Getting ready for the big job. (2) Temporary home of the men during the May planting season. (3) Fordson tractor drawing the double plow, with disc and harrow attached; all one operation. (4) Tractor drawing potato planter.

Using a Fordson tractor to plow and seed with, H. O. Proebstel, of Portland, recently planted to potatoes the second largest single field ever given over to the spud in Oregon, it is said.

The place is in Baker county and is an old grain field, never having grown spuds before. It is irrigated land. The seed was prepared by machine, two men handling 80 sacks of potaatoes a day. Using a single tractor the field of 102 acres was plowed in 14½ days and seeded in eight days. The lessee expects to take from 12,000 to 14,000 sacks off the place.

Victory Goddess Contest Nearing End; Votes Must Be in by June 26, 6 P. M. Only Five Candidates Now in the Race

According to the rules of the contest all candidates who did not have 25,000 votes on June 17 were dropped off the ballot. Next Friday, June 20 all contestants who have less than 35,000 votes will be out of the race.

There are only four candidates left in the field now. Iris Gullickson withdrew last week. LaVerne Mauling, the Boring representative has withdrawn, as has also the Japanese contestant. With the exception of Miss Shipley the goddesses are running even at present. Below is the summary to date:

R. C. AUXILIARY MAKES REPORT

Boring Red Cross, Union Auxiliary No. 1, held a meeting recently, at which time they had intended to disband on account of the busy season now coming on for housewives in the country. With urgent requests from headquarters, showing still the need of workers, the ladies decided to continue with the organization. Mrs. S. Dallas was re-elected president and Mrs. E. Bartell, treasurer.

The auxiliary has not only done sewing and knitting, but has also taken active part in the different relief drives.

Since its organization in August, 1917, this small body of workers has turned out hundreds of garments. Among the big machine-made pieces are: 50 women's skirts, 40 children's dresses, 160 chemises, 30 pinafores, 114 pairs pajamas, 30 pairs underwear, 60 hospital shirts, 46 robes, 24 coats, 36 shoulder wraps, 72 abdominal bands, 60 arm slings, 43 pairs of bed socks, 24 tape skirts, 18 surgeon's aprons, 13 pillow cases and one sheet. A total of 1008 pieces. Smaller articles were also made in creditable quantity. One hundred and thirty substitute handkerchiefs, 100 wash cloths, 23 napkins. It took many a snip of the scissors to fill 23 pillows with clippings; 1465 gun wipes were neatly piled and tacked in bundles; 78 needle cases were made.

The knitting needles were kept warm day and evening every spare moment, at least during the first winter of the war, when there was such a demand for woolen garments. It would be interesting to know how many miles of yarn were consumed in knitting 41 sweaters, 90 pairs of socks, 27 long mufflers, 16 pairs of wristlets, and three helmets. A total of 177 pieces.

A good record surely.

LAWRENCE HARVEY WEDS MISS BEULAH JENKINS

On Tuesday evening of last week Miss Beulah Jenkins, youngest daughter of Mrs. Hattie Jenkins, became the bride of Lawrence Harvey of Portland. The wedding took place at the home of the bride's brother, Elmer Jenkins of Portland. Rev. Mr. Longart read the ceremony. The bride was beautifully attired in a gown of white beaded Georgette crepe, and carried a bouquet of white carnations and sweet peas. The bridal party entered the room to the strains of the Lohengrin wedding march played by the bride's cousin, Miss Hazel Camp, of Portland. Miss Edith Camp sang, "I Love You Truly." The attendants were Miss Rachel Peterson, cousin of the bride, who was attired in a gown of pink voile and carried a bouquet of pink carnations, and Kenneth Harvey, brother of the groom.

Following the ceremony ice cream punch and cake were served. The house was beautifully decorated in pink and white. The young couple received a number of costly presents. They are spending their honeymoon in Fairview and Portland at present, while Mr. Harvey is recovering from a broken arm which he received shortly after the wedding in trying to make his get away from the crowd. About fifty friends and relatives attended the wedding.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey extend their sincerest wishes for a very happy future. They will make their home in Portland where Mr. Harvey is in business.

Fair Grounds to Be Cleaned.

On Fourth of July, Gresham is going to entertain as everyone knows. Of course, everything must be in apple-pie order. The fair grounds must be cleaned and prepared for company. On Wednesday evening at 7 o'clock, men and boys are asked to come with shovel and hoes to help get the fair grounds ready for the Victory celebration, only two weeks from Friday.

ANNUAL REPORT DISTRICT NO. 4

The annual school meeting of District No. 4 was held at the schoolhouse yesterday afternoon. The attendance was very small and, it would seem, not in keeping with the importance of the business transacted. Perhaps the fact proves the efficiency of the school officers, or does it point to the indifference of school patrons? At any rate, outgoing officers were re-elected and a splendid report of the business for the year was read by the clerk, C. J. Lundquist. W. C. Metzger succeeds himself as director for three years. A. Dowsett is now chairman of the board and L. L. Kidder director for two years.

School District No. 4 is the largest and wealthiest district in the county outside the city of Portland. It has a taxable value of $1,319,565. More than ten thousand dollars were received and disbursed by the clerk last year. Of this amount $2924.86 was paid on notes, bonds and outstanding warrants. During the year the debt was wiped out which was incurred in 1914 when District No. 4 purchased the site for the Union High school building. The only indebtedness remaining on the district at the present time is $180.55 in outstanding warrants.

According to the clerk's report, the annual census of this district, taken last November 25, showed 319 children in the district between the ages of 4 and 20. Of these 181 are male and 138 female.

Seven teachers are employed in regular grade work, besides a music supervisor and a domestic arts instructor.

The following is the financial report of the school clerk:

ZIMMERMAN GARAGE IN NEW HANDS

C. M. Zimmerman has sold his garage and repair shop to John Ide and Fred Palmquist. Both of the new owners are experienced machine men. Mr. Ide was a railroad man for 13 years and Mr. Palmquist for seven years.

They are prepared to do all kinds of repair work on automobiles, trucks, and stationary engines. Their shop will be open for quick service from early morning until late at night.

Preparations for Canning.
Workmen are busy at the cannery of the Gresham Fruit Growers' association reinstalling machinery which had been removed and thoroughly overhauled during the winter.

Mrs. Frank Gibbs is in charge of the office work at the cannery pending the arrival of Miss Cora Green, who is expected from New York the latter part of this week or the first of next.

Photographs Wanted.

The Outlook is desirous of securing the photographs of the candidates for Victory Queen, for use in the paper. These should be sent as soon as possible that the cuts may be made.
