SANDY

Sandy is rejoicing over the prospect of having Main street improved. The grading will begin immediately, and then graveling will follow. This will make a big improvement in the appearance of the town, and will be greatly appreciated by auto drivers as well as others.

The Rebekah entertainment given Wednesday evening at the Odd Fellows hall was a big success. The "funny" man was there with his impersonations and cartoons. Miss Maxine Telford and Mr. Arant contributed delightful musical numbers.

W. J. Works is in Sandy for the summer, visiting Mr. and Mrs. E. Bonett and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. C. Miller have sold their farm to Charles Creb, and are going to move to Sandy soon.

There will be a big dance, Fourth of July evening, at the Odd Fellows hall. 'Nuff said—everyone knows that means a good time.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Wolfe expect to move on the Waite place, recently purchased by Mr. Kheres.

Mrs. H. Nelson is visiting extensively at Coos Bay.

Mr. and Mrs. Grunnert are back from Portland, looking after the fruit and garden stuff on their farm.

Last Sunday the new Catholic church was dedicated. The church is an attractive structure. It was beautifully decorated on the interior by Father Hogan, the resident priest.

Last Saturday night's dance was a humming success in every way. There were 119 tickets sold, so standing room was at a premium. With a fine hardwood floor and Covell's orchestra to furnish the jazz who couldn't or wouldn't dance? And jazz they did! Tall ones, short ones, slim ones, fat ones. They certainly did justice to the rip, toot, tootling of the latest dance tunes. At midnight Wolfe's hotel and Junker's confectionery served a chicken supper, a proper climax to such a jolly affair.

COTTRELL

Frank Blackburn visited his brother George Blackburn on Sunday.

Mrs. Art. Dentlar, of Portland, is spending the week visiting her mother, Mrs. E. F. Andre. Mrs. Al Clawson and daughter Marjorie, also of Portland, spent the week-end with her mother, Mrs. Andre.

Mrs. J. Manary was a Portland visitor Tuesday.

Rev. S. P. Pitts' sister from California, and also one from Sherwood, Oregon, spent some time visiting at his home where they were called on account of the serious illness of their mother. Mrs. Pitts is greatly improved at this writing.

Mr. and Mrs. Orval Manary spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Robert Manary.

James Goger has started the building of his new bungalow.

POWELL VALLEY

Great preparations are being made by the ladies of the Lutheran church for the strawberry social to be held on Saturday evening of this week at the church. A fine program and plenty of good eats, in the way of strawberries and cake or coffee and cake, are the features of the evening.

Miss Mildred Johnson spent Tuesday afternoon with Miss Florence Johnson.

Carl Nelson is improving his home by the installation of a water system. W. W. Bottelson is papering and painting the interior of their house. Charles Nordblom is doing the work.

The regular meeting of the Powell Valley Parent-Teacher association will be held at the schoolhouse on the evening of Wednesday, June 25. After a short program pies will be auctioned and a social hour will be enjoyed. Ladies are asked to bring pies.

Strawberry Social at Powell Valley. A dish of juicy strawberries and delicious cake for 15 cents or coffee and cake, same price. A good program free. Lutheran church, Saturday evening, June 21.

TROUTDALE

A service of unusual interest will be held at the church on next Sunday evening, June 22, at 8 o'clock. The Rev. Harold F. Humbert, general secretary of the Oregon Sunday School association, will speak. He will take for his topic "Religious Education and the New Age." An invitation is cordially extended to all to attend.

Hill Church Announcement.

No church will be held at Hill church on Sunday, June 22, on account of the Sunday school rally at Pleasant Home.

WORK! WORK! WORK!

Below is a poem composed by 5th, 6th, 7th and 8th grade girls at the Gresham Home Products berry packing plant.

We work at Stockers day and night
Stemming strawberries red and ripe
In the morning they are so cold
They make our fingers nearly mold.

Better berries I never saw
I'd like to take some home to ma,
We'd eat them with sugar and cream
And of that dish I often dream.

There is a picture on the wall,
We sit and study it one and all.
'Tis a picture of a woman in a dotted dress
We always wonder if it was her best!

Miss Hagerman comes and says to be still,
We always do it; though against our will.
We try to write poems and we always see it through,
This is just a starter and not the best we can do.

By STOCKER CREW.

Kicking the Farmer

Lots of folks are kicking about the farmer—"the poor, misdirected, misguided, inefficient farmer"

—you know how they talk. Why, they're so busy kicking about him, says that they don't realize how vastly more inefficient they are themselves. Look at the storekeeper—a lot of nerve he has, complaining about the farmer's inefficiency, when the percentage of store failures is 'way greater than that of farm failures!

The COUNTRY GENTLEMAN

And look at Congress—was ever anybody more inefficient than were our law-makers during the war? I should say not! Fact is, it's a popular thing—in the cities and towns—to lambaste the farmer for everybody's faults. Somebody's got to be the goat; kick the farmer, they say. But those folks are figuring without THE COUN-
