The Troutdale chapter O. E. S., entertained a number of visitors from Multnomah chapter Saturday evening at their regular meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Lou Harlow, of Troutdale, and Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Cook of Portland went up to Wind River, Washington, Saturday morning on a fishing trip, returning Sunday evening. Their catch amounted to about four dozen trout.

Lieutenant and Mrs. Kenneth L. Cooper, were visitors Sunday at the home of his sister, Mrs. C. I. Thomas, Lieutenant Cooper, who was in France with the 244th Infantry, 91st division, was recently discharged at Camp Lewis. He is at present employed at the Liberty temple, finding work for discharged soldiers.

Her friends here learn with sadness of the death of Miss Ruby Rasmussen of tuberculosis at her home at The Dalles on June 17th. The body was brought on Thursday to Troutdale, where it was met by an escort of about ten automobile loads of the friends of the deceased, who went to Corbett where the funeral was held. The services at the grave were in charge of Troutdale Chapter Order of Eastern Star, of which Miss Rasmussen was a member.

Good wishes and congratulations from their many friends in this community are extended to Mr. and Mrs. Ellsworth Raker, who are both former residents of Troutdale, and are well and favorably known here.

Miss Lella Coss is spending a few days at Mr. Woodard's.

A good many of the Pleasant View people are thinking that since most of the east of Sandy soldier boys are home again, we ought to give them a big supper and good time soon, or they will all be away to work again. Come, wake up people, they did their part, now let's show them some of our appreciation.

Paint, oil, etc., advancing. Buy now. At L. L. Kidder Hdq. Co.

BORING

Fred Karlen was taken to the hospital and operated on for appendicitis last Tuesday. He is doing nicely, and will soon be as well as ever.

Mrs. Clarence Siefert and her two boys are visiting in Boring with Mrs. Siefert's parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Gregson.

Miss Beth Zimmerman of Gresham is having oodles of fun visiting Miss Florence Hill at the Larson home.

Miss Edith Anderson will spend part of her summer vacation with Miss Eva Dodd at the metropolis—Cherryville. Look out for the street cars, girls!

The Schuberts, now occupying the old Chandler place, are also going into the poultry business. They have something like 500 little chicks, a cross between the white Leghorn and Plymouth Rock, rugged fellows that seem to just like to grow up.

In addition they have several pens of New Zealand hares, pretty as any Easter bunnies.

Last week was the regular annual school meeting. At Union, district 26, about a dozen interested patrons turned out. The meeting went off harmoniously.

The directors for the ensuing year are: Erick Bartell, for one year to fill vacancy, is chairman of the board. Albert Welch is the two-year director, and Olaf Gran, retiring, was re-elected for three years. Arthur Heacock was also re-elected clerk.

The school-house was in spick and span condition, due to the energetic efforts of Garrett Lyons who was unanimously elected janitor for next year. A very interesting item of new business was brought before the meeting. A committee was appointed to look into the merits and demerits of consolidation of the Union, Damascus, Rock Creek, and possibly Boring grade schools. There are some drawbacks, but there are some very decided advantages in the system. It would be well for everyone to think "calmly" on this matter, and make inquiries of those who know, first hand, how it works.

At Boring proper the meeting was quiet. The same faculty will return next fall with an increase in salary. The directors are: Mr. Richey, Mr. Gregson and Mr. Lyons. O. W. Boring was re-elected clerk.

The M. E. quarterly conference will be held next Sunday afternoon. The Rev. J. Montclair Brown of Gresham will have charge of the afternoon.

Verna Beck, who has been in a Portland hospital for three weeks, is home recovering nicely from her operation. She expects to be able to walk about soon.

How would it be to plan to take in two weeks of chautauqua at Gladstone park, or even a day is a treat? It begins July 8. One way of getting joy out of life.

Gabe Chido has returned from the hospital, feeling fine after his treatment there.

Another machine in the ditch on the Tacheron grade. That makes the fourth accident there within a few weeks. What's the matter? Let's get it fixed.

Notice the announcement in another column of this paper.

The Rev. Enoch Benson of Portland will supply at the Fairview church after July 1.
