Celebrate Victors' Home Coming at Gresham

Additional Gresham Locals

Miss Pearl Ruegg has been visiting the last month in Seattle with her brother Clyde. She also made a side trip up to Victoria and Vancouver, B. C. Her brother Clyde who enlisted in the navy during war was given an extended furlough. He improved this time by attending the U. of W. Recently, he was called out for a four-months' cruise.

Corporal Max Mewhrter of Co. E., 63d infantry, received his discharge from Camp Lewis on Friday, and on Saturday arrived unexpectedly in Gresham. During the past several months he has been on provost guard duty on the eastern coast.

Frank Brown of the 29th Grand division of Engineers arrived from France, last Friday. Last August he left the American express and enlisted in Uncle Sam's service. In just 55 days he was in France, helping to build railroad cars for that country—100 cars a day was a common output.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Stone, June 22, a fine boy. He has been named Donald Leroy. Mrs. Stone and son are at the Gresham sanatorium.

Another fine baby at the Gresham sanatorium is Robert Benjamin Lisbakken, the strapping young son of Mr. and Mrs. B. M. Lisbakken of Seattle. His grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Geddes, think "Bob" is a jewel.

A baby boy was born to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Olbrich on June 11.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Burke, Miss Margarette Burke and Lester Richey have returned from their outing at Aleska. They had a fine time fishing, although the clams did not bite very well. Guy Jones, who was in charge of the jewelry store while Mr. Burke was away, is now at Riddle, Oregon visiting friends and relatives.

A. J. Krider Buys Outlook Building.
The property occupied by the Gresham Outlook has been sold to A. J. Krider of Gresham by Mrs. Grace Quick, who received it as her share of the estate of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Lindsey. One store of the building was built especially for the Outlook by Mr. Lindsey four years ago. A year ago the business had grown to such an extent that the other store was needed and a five-year lease was given at that time to the newspaper.

Revival Meetings.
Commencing June 22d and continuing indefinitely, a series of revival services will be held in a large tabernacle which is now erected on the ground of the Free Methodist church at Damascus, Oregon. Evangelist W. T. Klotzbach is in charge. A full gospel, A welcome to all.

REV. W. W. LA RUE, Pastor.

The repeal of the daylight saving law will go into effect the first of October.

See S. E. Palmquist for auto tops, and side curtains, cushions, etc. Repairing. 33

Women's Hospital of Portland, Maternity Cases Only.

One of the finest and most thoroughly equipped private maternity hospitals in the northwest. New, fire-proof construction and high-class accommodations. For information address 144-18th St. N., Portland, phone Broadway 3404.

Chronic Constipation.

Perhaps you have never thought of it, but this disorder is due to a lack of moisture in the residual matter of the food. If you will drink an abundance of water, eat raw fruits and take lots of outdoor exercise, you may be able eventually to overcome it entirely. In the meantime use the most mild and gentle laxatives. Strong and harsh cathartics take too much water out of the system and make a bad matter worse. Chamberlain's Tablets are easy and pleasant to take, and most agreeable in effect. Give them a trial.—Adv.

GRESHAM LOCALS

Judge and Mrs. G. W. Stapleton have returned home. Judge Stapleton, who attended a Shriner's convention in Chicago, complains of the intense heat there. Mrs. Stapleton who was visiting her daughter at Vancouver, B. C., said that she nearly froze while away.

The local Red Cross auxiliary will serve a Victory dinner on the Fourth of July to all of Uncle Sam's boys. Each soldier, sailor and marine, and his guest is most cordially invited to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Pulfer were dinner guests on Sunday of J. C. Peterson. In the afternoon they drove to the Spencer truck gardens and saw how rain is manufactured in overhead irrigation.

Mrs. Ethel Miller left yesterday for Corvallis after a week's visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. L. McLain. Mrs. Inez Miller has been spending the week with Mrs. Jas. Lawrence. She leaves this week for the summer school at Monmouth.

Judge John Brown, L. L. Kidder and J. B. Kerr attended a directors meeting at the Hotel Portland Monday morning and after lunch made up a box party to see the bathing girls at the Lyric, returning to Gresham in the evening after spending a delightful day.

Lieutenant Fred Crane is working in the milk testing department of the Portland health office. He is well qualified for the work, having had long training in butter and cheese making at O. A. C.

Harold and Melvel Dixon, of Portland, have been spending a week with their aunt, Mrs. H. J. Pulfer.

Gough Dix, a worker in the machine shop of the Beaver State Motor Company, is making arrangements to move his family here from The Dalles. They will occupy the Crane house on Hood avenue.

Mrs. A. R. Goger, of Cottrell, and Mrs. May Landon, of Portland, were in Gresham on Friday moving the furniture out of their mother's house on Hood avenue and getting it ready for renting.

In the word-building contest arranged for the Bank of Gresham, the highest honors were awarded Mabel Brown. She spelled 1067 words from "Bank of Gresham." She was given 10,000 votes for her choice of candidate for the Victory Goddess. Clara Sales was awarded 4000 votes and Mrs. S. B. Hall was given 1000 votes, these two ladies having the next greatest number of words.

No services will be held in the Zion Evangelical church for the next three Sundays. On next Sunday the pastor, Rev. Herman Gebhardt, will be in attendance at the annual conference of the church at Seattle and for the two following weeks he will be enjoying his vacation. He expects to go to the Orehis islands in the northern sound region.

Theodore Brugger will attend the conference of the German Evangelical church in Seattle, as lay delegate from the Gresham church.

Mr. and Mrs. Mark Nickerson have purchased from W. F. Honey the 13-acre farm on the Base Line road where they have been living for the past few months.

Mrs. Stanley Arnold and daughter, Doris Margaret, are visiting this week with the former's sister, Mrs. D. R. Shoemaker.

Mrs. Minnie Clananahan and Mrs. Nellie Metzger were delegates from the Gresham Neighbors of Woodcraft to the district convention held in Portland last week. Enthusiastic sessions were held during the two days of the convention, which included a fine banquet at the Benson hotel given by Portland circles of the order. Mrs. Clananahan was elected district banker, the district including the entire state of Oregon. One of the district managers is Mrs. M. Murphy, worthy grand matron of the Order of Eastern Star.

Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Webber and children motored out from Portland on Sunday and were the guests of the Lawrence and Page families.

J. G. Chiodo reports that his fine Cuthbert raspberries are beginning to ripen. Indeed, he proved it by bringing to the Outlook office a box of delectable berries. He has four acres of them on his farm near Gresham.

An exhibit of plans for small homes is on display at the town library. An invitation is extended to the public to come and inspect these plans on Wednesday evening, June 25.

A telegram has been received from John Honey, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Honey, that he has arrived safely in New York and in a few days expects to be on his way across the continent to his Oregon home. Doubtless a happy boy and equally happy parents. He hopes to arrive home about the first of next week.

David Weaver, who is a member of Sumner G. A. R. Post in Portland, was a delegate to the recent encampment of The Dalles.

F. H. Crane, who has been ill recently, was seen on the streets of Gresham a day or two ago.

Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Manning have returned from a business trip to Seattle, where they went two weeks ago. On Sunday they attended the eighth annual reunion of the Douglas County People's reunion at Peninsula Park.

E. S. Jenne is seriously ill at his home near Jenne station. He was reported feeling a little better this morning.

Mrs. A. W. Shipley had as guests on Sunday Mr. and Mrs. F. Lehman and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Childs of Oswego.

Bert Hoss, who has been ill for some time, is able to be up now.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Todd and family of Ridgefield, Washington, were visitors in Gresham. They spent Sunday with Mr. Todd's parents, Dr. and Mrs. R. H. Todd and brother Fred and his family. Little Alice Todd went home with them.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Raney have bought the Elmer L. Phelps house on South Roberts avenue. Mr. Phelps is negotiating for a place in Portland where the family will make their future home.

Miss Cora Green has arrived from New York and is busy already at the office of the Gresham cannery. She reports the weather oppressively warm until she reached Oregon—and now she is wearing a heavy coat to be comfortable.

The Doctor Away from Home when Most Needed.

People are often very much disappointed to find that their family physician is away from home when they most need his services. Diseases like pain in the stomach and bowels, colic and diarrhea require prompt treatment, and have in many instances proven fatal before medicine could be procured or a physician summoned. The right way is to keep at hand a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhea Remedy. No physician can prescribe a better medicine for these diseases. By having it in the house you escape much pain and suffering and all risk. Buy it now; it may save life.—Adv.
