RESERVATIONS IN COVENANT URGED.

Ex-President Taft recommends the adoption of the league treaty as it is but does not approve fully of all its provisions. He thinks it should be interpreted. Ex-Chief Justice Hughes recommends that amendments or reservations be made.

Perhaps the most concise statement in regard to the attitude of most of the republican leaders on the treaty covenant is that made by Chairman Will H. Hays of the republican national committee. He says:

"The situation respecting the league covenant is simply this:

"There must be effective reservations. These reservations must safeguard the sovereignty of the United States in every particular; must guarantee the Monroe Doctrine beyond the shadow of a doubt; must eliminate Article X entirely or so modify it that our own Congress shall be morally as well as legally free after a specified period to decide when and where and to what extent our soldiers shall be employed; must retain our full control of immigration, tariff and all other purely domestic policies, and must provide full right to withdraw from the league at any time without hindrance or conditions of any kind, upon giving suitable notice."

"It is up to the Administration," says Mr. Hays, "to decide whether it will or will not accept these essential guarantees of American independence which would unquestionably be promptly accepted by the other nations."

EDUCATED SOLDIERS.

Major General William H. Johnston, commanding at Camp Lewis, inform us and asks us to inform the public that authority has been received from the War Department to initiate educational and vocational training at Camp Lewis, in addition to the military training received. Any young man wishing to enlist is permitted to select the arm of the service in which he cares to become proficient. Any soldier is permitted, not required, to undertake educational or vocational training three hours daily during five days of the week.

It is believed that this educational opportunity, furnished young men who have not yet entered college or learned a trade, will induce a large number of young men, unmarried, to enter the army for the purpose of either increasing their earning capacity after discharge or for the purpose of entering college in a higher grade than he would otherwise be able to do.

This educational advantage is in addition to the other privileges accorded soldiers of the army. The present pay and allowances, such as clothing, subsistence, quarters, medical attention, dental treatment, life insurance, etc., are usually estimated at $100 a month. The improvement in citizenship of the young men who served during the war must have been noted by our readers. The same improvement may be gained by other young men who have not yet served in the army.

DRY WORLD PLANNED.

World-wide prohibition of the liquor traffic as the next and final step in temperance reform will be advocated by several speakers who will conduct a campaign in Oregon between October 13 and November 9, under the direction of the Anti-Saloon League of America with the co-operation of the Anti-Saloon League of Oregon.

The speakers will be Rev. Louis Albert Banks, of Boston, preacher and author; Rev. Dr. Ira Landrith, also of Boston, educator, lecturer and prominently connected with the Christian Endeavor movement; Rev. G. M. Hammond of Nashville, Tenn.; George D. Conger, superintendent of Anti-Saloon League of Washington, and Louis R. Horton, superintendent of Anti-Saloon League of Idaho.

Practically every city and town of any size in the state will be visited by one or more of these speakers, and admission to all meetings will be free.

Among other subjects these speakers will urge, it is said, will be law enforcement and the importance of the election of officials favorable to full enforcement of liquor laws throughout the nation.

The Outlook has printed several articles regarding social improvement work in Gresham. One will be found in today's paper by Miss Montague, the efficient librarian of the Gresham branch library. We ask that it be carefully read and considered by all who are interested in this important movement. It seems to us that Miss Montague hits the nail on the head in her suggestion that more use be made of the means at hand—the library, the fair grounds grove, a few vacant pieces of property which would probably be gladly donated for recreation grounds. Then we have all kinds of societies which would be glad to entertain the young people in wholesome ways if someone would help them work out the plans. It is a very worthy move and should enlist the aid of all. It is needed; agree on a plan and then go ahead.

WHAT'S THE MATTER WITH JULY?

A campaign is being conducted in Chicago which bids fair to determine which is the best month for babies. Mrs. Walter S. Brewster, vice-chairman of The Fatherless Children of France, and in charge of a national campaign to secure American aid to the extent of 10 cents a day for one year for 60,000 little French waifs, issued an appeal for birthday donations of $3 to care for a child during the donor's birthday month.

The returns disclosed that it is almost impossible to unearth a July birthday. A group of children of Lake Forest families—Lake Forest being the wealthiest suburb of Chicago—undertook to form an adoption group of the twelve calendar months. January, February, March, and all other birthdays were easy to find, but no July child has yet been discovered and the local papers are advertising for July children.

International Congress.
Mrs. Raymond Robins, president of the National Trade Women's Union League, is in Washington arranging with Miss Mary Anderson for the international congress of working women which will meet in the National Capitol next September. The congress is called by the National Trade Women's League at the official request of the English women trade unionists, and unofficial requests from French and Belgian trade unions. Five women's organizations are represented.

Holland for Suffrage.
Cable advices from Amsterdam state that the First Chamber of the Dutch Parliament has adopted a motion to introduce woman suffrage in Holland. The vote was 34 to 5.

Calls Special Session.
The republican governor of Nebraska has called a special session of the legislature for July 28th, for the purpose of ratifying the Woman Suffrage amendment to the constitution of the United States. Rather a contrast, this, to the attitude of the governor of Louisiana, who sent out frantic appeals to all democratic governors to defeat the amendment, and refused to call a special session of the legislature to decide what action should be taken on the matter.

New York Women are Active.

Conferences of men and women republican leaders at Syracuse and Buffalo have been called in New York state and organization plans were determined upon. Chairman George A. Glynn, of the republican state committee; Mrs. Arthur L. Livermore, of the Women's Executive committee, and Miss Mary Garrett Hay, treasurer of the National Women's Executive committee, are the speakers.

Plans for enrolling a large republican women's vote preparatory to the presidential election in 1920, and for making women feel at home within the party were outlined.

Evening Up Prices.

The Minneapolis News says: "Judging by history and by sound economic theory, it will be a generation before prices get back to pre-war levels if they ever do."
Commodities in general advanced 113 per cent. Building materials (not including steel) advanced 84 per cent. These are the facts. Judging by history and by sound economic theory, it will be a generation before prices get back to pre-war levels, if they ever do.

Probably there will be a gradual decline, but meantime there will be an evening up. Prices which have gone up fastest and highest will come down first and most. Prices which have made the smallest comparative advance are apt to stay put until other prices come down to their level. This last applies to the building materials. Its poor western to wait.

Every Western state is interested in the better outlook for the lumber industry. Farmers are pushing building because the same amount of produce will buy twice as much lumber as it would in 1914.

A 250-pound hog would buy 5250 shingles in 1914, and the same hog will buy 9000 shingles at present prices of pork.

A good deal of time is wasted trying to bring people to their senses who haven't any.

The best that some people can do always seem to be the worst they have.

Public opinion is evolving from a hazy conception of what constituted private business which the public was bound to respect, to where the public is to be respected by private business and in turn it protects private industry from radicalism in different forms.

The Joy of Living.
To enjoy life we must have good health. No one can reasonably hope to get much real pleasure out of life when his bowels are clogged a good share of the time and the poisons that should be expelled are absorbed into the system, producing headaches and indigestion. A few doses of Chamberlain's Tablets will move the bowels, strengthen the digestion and give you a chance to realize the real joy of living. Try it.—Adv.
