W. C. T. U. Meeting

An important business meeting of the W. C. T. U. will be held at the library Thursday afternoon, August 14. All members are urged to be in attendance.

The comedian with the Richardson & Talbert show at Masonic hall, Friday night, is guaranteed to produce more laughs in a given time than any fun maker who ever visited this part of the country.—Adv.

GRESHAM LOCALS

Harry Truitt has gone to the Palouse country to work during the harvest season.

Frank Wright is employed at Oregon City, where he has charge of switchboards for the Pacific Telephone and Electric company. His experience as master corps electrician in France gives him an advantage in this work.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hartley of Portland were callers on Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. St. Clair.

Some sneak thief played a mean trick on Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Parsons last Saturday night, when they took the harness from their horse which was tied in the church sheds near the grange hall during the grange session. When Mr. Parsons went to unhitch his horse for the homeward trip late in the evening he found his horse stripped and the whip gone also. Through the kindness of Frank Hodge, who loaned a harness to Mr. Parsons, he was able to get home sometime about midnight. No trace has yet been found of the missing articles.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Horton and family who came from Worthington, Minnesota, several weeks ago, have gone to Cochran, Oregon, where Mr. Horton is employed as a car inspector in a logging camp.

Don't forget the meeting at the library tonight to discuss plans for a social center and choose a member to work with the committee already appointed by the churches of the city to carry out a program.

During the past week Mrs. Ella Oliphant has entertained a number of relatives. They include Mrs. Jos. Anderson and daughter, Mildred of Red Wing, Minnesota, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Gyer and baby of Bremerton, Washington, B. H. Langworthy of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Roy White and daughters of Portland. All joined in a family reunion at Columbia Park on Sunday.

Among those who left for Seaside today are, Mrs. Cecil Metzger and daughter Katherine, Mrs. Nellie Gullickson and son Clair, Mrs. Guy Fieldhouse, her mother, Mrs. John Miller and little Jane Fieldhouse.

MISSIONARY MEETING AT RUBY RANCH

The missionary society of the United Presbyterian church of Portland was entertained last Friday by Mrs. A. C. Ruby at her home on the Base Line.

The 48 members of the society were met by autos at the terminus of the Montavilla car line and whisked out to the Ruby country home where an elaborate buffet luncheon was in readiness for them. Those serving were, Mrs. F. L. Privett, Miss Olive Baltimore, Mrs. V. A. Billion, Mrs. W. W. Dugan and Mrs. W. Williams.

Miss Margaret DuBois gave some very entertaining readings in the program which followed the luncheon. Miss Leisla Ruby, accompanied by Mrs. L. E. Eberman, played a number of delightful selections on the violin. A humorous dialogue by Miss Doris Mace and Miss Margaret DuBois was greatly enjoyed.

Reports from the home mission field were given by Mrs. Elizabeth Daigleish who spoke on the work at the Warm Springs Indian reservation. Mrs. J. Hunter Wells, for twenty-two years a missionary in Korea, told about curious customs and mode of living in that country.

Later in the afternoon the guests were invited to see the Ruby horses—beautiful Percherons, Belgians and English shires—practicing to step their very proudest in anticipation of the county fair next month.

Gresham ladies who attended the meeting were, Mrs. E. F. Goodwin, Mrs. E. A. Leonard, Mrs. A. J. W. Brown, Mrs. Fred Honey, Mrs. J. N. Clanahan, Mrs. Will Stanley, Mrs. Lida Helter, Miss Florence Honey and Mrs. George Honey.

GUESTS ENTERTAINED AT CAMP RAMBLESOME

"Camp Ramblesome," the temporary home of Miss Marguerite Volbrecht, Miss Alice and Franklin Barger of Gresham, is fixed up in the most approved style of summer campers. It is situated on the farm of Fritz Hoecker on the banks of the Sandy river. The young people are spending several weeks there resting and enjoying the beauties of forest and stream. Last Sunday they entertained the Misses Bess Howitt and Helen Hoss of Gresham, Walter Metzger of Boring and Ellis Wylie of Portland.
