POWELL VALLEY GIRLS
WALK TO CROWN POINT

A group of Powell Valley girls made the round trip to Crown Point and back on last Wednesday, going all the way on foot. The girls started their hike at 6:30 in the morning and were just four hours in reaching their destination. After a rest of two and a half hours at the Vista house they started on the return journey, and although they were offered six rides, they did not accept any. They were determined to "noof it." Those of the party making the trip were, Marion Hagberg, Mildred Johnson, May and Nettie Nelson, Minnie Danielson and Judith Larson.

YOUNG MATRONS RENEW OLD ACQUAINTANCE HERE

A pleasant evening party was given last night by Mrs. Earl Thompson and Mrs. Clair Edwards, two young matrons formerly resident here, at the home of the latter's mother, Mrs. S. S. Thompson. Mrs. Thompson lives in Portland and Mrs. Edwards in Pendleton. Both are here visiting relatives and arranged in this way to meet a number of the friends of former days.

In amusing contests Mrs. Jackson Jones and Miss Willa Metzger proved themselves the best guessers present, while the Misses Evelyn Metzger and Della Hughes distinguished themselves by being the last to "catch on." The house was beautifully decorated with cut flowers and potted plants. A delicious luncheon was served by the hostesses at a late hour.

Among the guests were, Mesdames Russel Akin, Kirk Thompson, Jack Zilm, the Misses Miriam Brown, Maude, Gladys and Marguerite Michel, Bessie Osborne, Kathryn Honey, Della Hughes, Anna Brugger, Gertrude Eastman, Pearl Ruegg and Margaret Burke.

COTTRELL

Services at the Cottrell community church next two Sundays have been postponed on account of the camp meeting in session at St. Johns, which a number from the community wish to attend.

FAIRVIEW

Mrs. Jenkins Moore entertained on Wednesday with a dinner reception in honor of her nieces and their husbands. They are Mr. and Mrs. R. V. Gulliford of Rice, Minn., and Mr. and Mrs. A. Benson of Minneapolis, Minn. After a bounteous dinner the afternoon was spent with music and conversation. Those present besides the ones mentioned were, Mrs. Belle Stockton of Rockwood, Mrs. Ann Wagner of Cottrell, Mrs. Grace Peterson and Mrs. Dora Peterson, sisters of Mrs. Moore, Mrs. Fred Wagner Jr., of Cottrell, Mrs. Ray Kuhlman and children, Mrs. J. W. Moller and daughter, Marjorie, Miss Della Stockton, Miss Edith Jenkins and Mrs. Lawrence Harvey of Portland.

Mrs. C. E. Cree and daughter Lois, of Portland, were recent visitors of Mrs. J. H. Peterson.

J. W. Moller is building a bungalow for George Bets on the Osborn tract. There will be two more new houses built near there in the near future.

Mrs. J. Richards and children are visiting friends at Jefferson and Salem.

Mrs. A. Hall has returned to her home here after spending some time with her daughter and son at Enterprise.

Mrs. R. Stone and daughter, Mrs. C. Stoopos, of Portland, have gone to Hood River.

POWELL VALLEY

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hoyes and little daughter, Merle, of Vancouver, Wash., were visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. N. Sager on Sunday.

Earl Chilcote is building a four-room bungalow on his farm.

Mrs. P. J. Berke, Miss Edna and little Bob have returned home after several weeks enjoyably spent at Seaside.

Mr. and Mrs. W. U. Moore entertained the former's cousin, Mrs. Brandt and daughter Marion of Oakland, Calif.; also Mrs. Heck of Portland on Wednesday of this week. Mr. and Mrs. Will Richey attended church at Lents Sunday.

Ralph and Vern Richey are driving a new Ford.

There will be a meeting of the patrons of the school and others interested in the children's club work held at the schoolhouse next Saturday evening at which final arrangements will be made for holding the local fair which will be held early in September. Everyone is urged to attend this meeting.

GILLIS

Dr. and Mrs. Geo. F. Tucker and Harold Wolverton spent the week end with Dr. and Mrs. Prince W. Byrd of Salem. Dr. Byrd is a cousin of Mrs. Tucker and is stationed at the state hospital.

Mrs. H. G. Lake has returned from a visit with her mother, Mrs. Pittinger of Hillsboro.

Dr. and Mrs. Geo. F. Tucker had as visitors this last week, Mrs. Tucker's mother and brother, Mrs. Bruce Wolverton and Harold Wolverton, of Portland. Harold has just returned from seventeen months' service in France where he was a sergeant in the headquarters brigade, G. H. Q., at Chaumont.

To Improve Your Digestion.

"For years my digestion was so poor that I could only eat the lightest foods. I tried everything that I heard of to get relief, but not until about a year ago when I saw Chamberlain's Tablets advertised and got a bottle of them did I find the right treatment. Since taking them my digestion is fine."—Mrs. Blanche Bowers, Indiana, Pa.—Adv.

Swedish Mission Church Notices

Saturday evening, August 16, Prof. D. Nyvall of the North Park college of Chicago will speak in the English language at Powell Valley Swedish Mission church. On Sunday he will give a talk to the Sunday school at 10 o'clock. He will also deliver the morning sermon. Rev. W. L. Hawkins will preach in the evening at 8 o'clock.

At 2:30 Sunday afternoon Professor Nyvall will be at the Swedish Mission church at Damascus. A cordial invitation is extended the public.

PLANS TO ORGANIZE
K. L. OF S. COUNCIL HERE

L. M. Thomas, state manager of Knights and Ladies of Security, must surely have been pleased with the number who attended his free dance and entertainment last evening. Mr. Thomas' prime object was to explain and interest the public in the organization of a local council of the order. This will be effected in the near future. Various members of the order, including M. D. Kern and Geo. W. Stapleton spoke in high praise of the order as an insurance lodge and fraternal order open to the whole family.

The exhibition drill put on by Kirkpatrick council of Portland was a very pleasing feature of the entertainment.

SANDY BLUFF

Lilah Hengstler was taken to the Good Samaritan hospital in Portland last Saturday for another operation on her leg which has been in bad condition for several months.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Chandler, a seven-pound boy. Mrs. Chandler will be remembered as Miss Carrie Brook. She is staying with her mother now.

Mrs. J. Caldo, her mother, Mrs. Fields and sister, Mrs. Henry Paschen, went to Seattle to visit Mrs. Fields' sister, Mrs. Ellingsen. Mrs. Paschen left for her home in Chicago and Mrs. Fields returned here with Mrs. Caldo.

Floyd Radford, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Radford, visited several days here, after having received his discharge at Camp Lewis. He will go on Saturday to Roseburg to join his wife and son.

Mrs. J. Ross, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Radford, visited relatives here recently. She was called over from Bend by the serious illness of her brother, Jesse. He is now somewhat improved. He is still at the military hospital at Vancouver barracks where he has been for about eighteen months.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Kretz and daughter left for California a few days ago. Mr. Kretz will be employed as bookkeeper.

CORBETT

The COUNTRY
GENTLEMAN

"The Plunderer," it is called, and it is a Florida story of adventure, mystery and love that will hold your interest from the first chapter to the very end.

COUNTRY GENTLEMAN fiction, by the way, is setting some new standards in farm and country stories. Freeman Tilden created Old Man Crabtree for THE COUNTRY GENTLEMAN—you know how good those stories have been. Albert Payson Terhune has written his best dog stories for THE COUNTRY GENTLEMAN. All of Zane Grey's popular novels are published first in THE COUNTRY GENTLEMAN. Tom Morgan's humorous sketches are for COUNTRY GENTLEMAN readers only. There is a short story in each issue—52 in the year—and there are four or five book-length serials in the twelve months that you buy for one dollar.
