Mrs. C. Merrill is up at Welches occupying a newly erected cottage. Mrs. Ernest Bonett, of Sandy, has been spending a few days with her sister Mrs. H. J. Pulfer and making sure that Cecil Pulfer is really home. Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Goodwin and Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Moffitt left yesterday for a trip to Hood River, expecting to be gone a couple of days.

Principal Goodwin and Agriculture Instructor Moffitt are looking into the work of the agricultural department of Hood River high school which ranks with Union high as the two schools having the best vocational agriculture department of any in the state, if not in the whole northwest. Home projects will also be visited.

In order to get as near to nature's heart as possible they will camp out in the open and sleep next to terra firma. The ladies will flavor the coffee with cedar burs and fir needles. With the inspiration received from Hood River, and such an outing next week's conference of the board of vocational education, which will meet on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, will furnish many instructive lectures.

Mrs. M. Miz is spending a few days in Portland with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Simmons.

Dr. H. H. Hughes and his mother have purchased two half-acre lots from Rev. F. H. Freund on Wallula Heights, at the intersection of Powell street and Wallula avenue.

K. A. Miller is home for a day or two from Seaside, where he went a week ago with Mrs. Miller and the children. He will go again tomorrow to remain until about September 1.

J. A. Patenaude has been away on a hunting and fishing trip into Washington with Portland friends for several days. He is expected back by the end of the week.

Arlene Frances Johnson arrived at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Wright, on Sunday. She is a tiny lady but none the less precious. She will go in a week or two with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Johnson, to their home at Bull Run.

John Honey left on Tuesday for Port Angeles, Washington to take up work in connection with the lumber business.

Mrs. J. N. Clannahan, Mrs. R. Beedle and children have gone to Seaside for a two-weeks' stay.

At the Methodist Episcopal church next Sunday the usual services will be held in the morning, with preaching by the pastor, Rev. J. Montcalm Brown. In the evening, following Epworth League, Janet Pendergast will present the work of the Pacific Coast Rescue and Protective society, and especially the project of a new nursery home to take the place of the Albertina Kerr home, which will be modern, sanitary and spacious enough to care for all babies in need of the services of the home.

W. F. Honey has gone to Ione, Oregon and from there will go east to Iowa to look after business interests. Mrs. Honey and Mrs. Max Schneider are spending a week at Newport beach.

A party of friends from Gresham and Rockwood spent a delightful evening Wednesday with Lieutenant Fred Crane and wife. Those going were the Misses Ethel Calkins, Bessie Osborne, Hester Thorpe, Miriam Brown, Maude and Marguerite Michel, and Mamie Burns, Messrs. John Burns and Lieutenant George Schantin.

Principal Goodwin of the high school says that all signs point to a large enrollment in the high school when the term begins on September 22. Many inquiries are coming, not only from the union district, but from adjoining districts and from other counties. A number of girls are seeking homes in which they may work for their board during the school year.

Mrs. H. C. Mattison, of Portland, was a dinner guest of Miss Emma Johnson on Thursday evening.

Hugh Smith of Forest Grove is visiting friends in Gresham.

Mrs. Mary Preston broke her arm in some mysterious manner by striking it against the bed post.

A. R. Lyman recently bought back 100 White Leghorn pullets, which he had sold as day-old chicks. Now, at the age of six months, he is receiving as many as 33 eggs a day from the flock.

Mrs. Dan Metzger entertained at a dinner last evening the H. Metzger family, Mrs. E. Oswald, the John Metzgers and Elmer Olson.

Of vital interest to the agricultural and dairy interests of this vicinity is the action of the national senate, which voted on Wednesday to sustain the house in passing the repeal measure over President Wilson's veto. The vote was 57 to 19. The repeal of the law becomes effective after the clocks are turned back to normal in October. It is one of the very few measures which have twice been vetoed by a president and have become laws in spite of the veto.

MUCH DAMAGE BY FIRE IN PLEASANT VALLEY

Forest fires have been doing considerable damage in the Pleasant Valley vicinity during the past few days. Theo. Schacht was the heaviest loser, having lost a large barn together with contents, also several cords of wood in the timber and a lot of fence. Others who sustained losses were Geo. Dwert, about 100 cords of wood, Clarence Palen, cordwood. John Schacht had some standing timber badly damaged; Borges Bros. lost some grain in the field. Much fencing has been destroyed.

Damage Done by Fires.

The residence of Theodore Pfarr on Buckley avenue was completely destroyed by fire on Tuesday evening last. Insurance covers the loss. On Powell Valley road, an interior fire did considerable damage to the residence of J. H. Ide.

Drivers of wagons, trucks and autos may help most effectively to advertise the coming fair by displaying on their vehicles a big white banner ready for free distribution at the Bank of Gresham. On the banners is printed in bold type "Multnomah County Fair, September 15-20. Big exhibits. Fast Races. Great Joy. Come."

All the sets of aluminum ware recently put on sale by A. W. Metzger have been sold, proving again the value of advertising—when you have something worth while to offer.

TREASURY SAVINGS CERTIFICATES

We Recommend Buying Now

Robert E. Smith, Treasurer of the War Loan Organization, in writing First State Bank, says:

"When these Certificates mature on January 1, 1924, your bank, as the issuing agent, will transmit the Certificates to Washington and secure reimbursement to your clients of the maturing value of the Certificates."

A continuation of practices of thrift, as put into use during the war times, will do more toward lowering the high cost of living than anything else that can be done.

These Certificates, worth $100.00 January 1, 1924, may now be purchased for $83.80, and purchased from time to time furnish one of the best means of accumulating a sum for investment in 1924, at which time it is quite likely the proceeds from each Certificate will purchase twice the amount a like amount of money will now.
