PRETTIEST BRUNETTE IS A TROUTDALE BABY

A baby show is a most difficult feature to manage any where or any time. The eugenics way of sizing up the tiny folks is according to rules that prevent suspicion of unfairness in the judging. But the old-fashioned way of scoring a baby is a risky affair—for the judges. Does not every mother know that her offspring is the prettiest there? To get some one who is willing to jeopardize life and limb, serving as a judge, is no easy matter.

A man and a woman were found fearless enough to agree to serve at the baby show held last Saturday on the fair grounds. However, when the crucial time arrived, the man was found missing. Some say he crept under the grand stand and remained there until dark. But he need not have gone to such extremities, for the whole affair went off without any casualties, though there may have been a few who may not have been quite satisfied with decisions made. It would have been a remarkable episode indeed, if there had been no difference of opinions.

Take it all in all, the baby show went off very well. For some reason, the judging began earlier than advertised, so that the pretty babies in Gresham arrived too late to enter, or were taking their beauty naps or were otherwise detained.

Awards were made as follows: Prettiest baby under 1 year—Mrs. T. M. Pace, Portland.
Smallest baby, under 1 year—Jeannie Weander, Portland.
Fattest, under 1 year—Eugene Sheller, Portland.

HOUSE PROBLEM SOLVED COLLEGE BOYS BUY HOME

Merrill and Mervin Good, Walter Brown, Edwin Yunker, Hadden Johnson and Hokan Truedson have gone to Corvallis to attend O. A. C. Instead of the usual way of paying enormous prices for rooms and board, these lads resolved to buy a house and keep bachelor's hall if necessary. A six-roomed house with four lots was found. They are considering putting up a large bunk house and furnishing simple rooms for other homeless boys who must take economy into account.

This venture into a real estate purchase is being managed by John Brown who will leave this week to complete the contract on the property. In the meantime the boys are getting ditches ready for the laying of water pipes to connect with the city main, ransacking second-hand stores for furniture and making necessary improvements.

It has been estimated that at the end of their four years' college career they will own a piece of good property, be money ahead, and have developed business judgment through first-hand experience with one phase of business problems.

That's the system, boys.

EVANGELICAL CHURCH MISSIONARY SERVICES

There will be three missionary services at the Zion Evangelical church next Sunday, September 28, beginning as follows: 10:30 a. m., 2:30 p. m. and 8 p. m. Among the outside speakers present will be Rev. Carl Rueggeberg, Payette, Idaho, Rev. Francis Zicha and Allen Wehrli, of Portland, and Mrs. D. Berthold of Sherwood, Oregon. The choir from Portland will help the local choir to beautify these services with several selections.

The ladies of the church will serve dinner at noon and lunch in the afternoon. All friends are most cordially invited to attend these services. Come early and remain for all three services.

MISS MARY HOECKER IS BRIDE OF WALTER BROWN

At the Zion Evangelical church Sunday afternoon, September 21st, Miss Mary Hoecker of Gresham and Walter Brown of Fort Canby, Washington were married by the Reverend H. K. Gebhardt.

Those present at the ceremony were the bridesmaid, Miss Anna Hoecker, sister of the bride; W. D. Fritz, groomsmen; the bride's father, sisters, and brothers; and Miss Margaret Kroeger of Portland.

Immediately after the wedding luncheon served at the bride's home, the young couple left for Astoria, where the groom lived formerly. They will reside at Fort Canby, Washington, where Mr. Brown is in the government employ.

Real Estate Transfers.

Gerald A. Miles has sold his 10-acre place on South Roberts avenue to Sherman Lyon of Barton, Oregon, consideration $5100. Mr. Lyon is already on the place, getting his poultry business in shape.
George W. Kenney to Gerald A. Miles, a 6-room bungalow and one acre at the west end of Third street, Gresham. Consideration $2500.
Mrs. A. J. Callison sold a 5-room house and one acre located at the corner of Division street and Cleveland avenue to a local party for $1600.

All these deals were reported by Krider & Elkington.

Conference to Discuss White Plague.

Tuberculosis, that dread disease from which 10 per cent of all death in Oregon occur, is to be discussed in all of its phases at the Third Annual Northwestern conference on Tuberculosis to be held in Boise, Idaho, September 29 and 30 and October 1. The sessions will be devoted to a discussion of methods of public health education, the organization of community clinics, tuberculosis sanitarium equipment and management, public health nursing, health education in the schools and the care of the tuberculosis soldiers. Oregon will be largely represented.

Bargains in the want ads.

$1500 IN THE U. S. BEATS $2500 ABROAD

Patrolman Thomas J. Hynes, Jersey City, a hero of the Argonne battlefield, has been made a knight of the Order of Leopold by the King of Belgium. This carries a pension of $2500 a year, which he refused, preferring to remain on the Jersey City police force. Hynes wears American and French crosses for valor. Mrs. Hynes and the baby, holding the Belgium decoration, are shown in the picture.

ARTHUR F. YERKES AND MISS OREL RANEY WED

Miss Orel Raney, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. N. Raney of Gresham, became the bride of Arthur F. Yerkes, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Yerkes of Portland, Thursday morning, September 18, at the St. Agatha Catholic church.

The bride wore white satin, and carried a bouquet of pink rosebuds. White orange blossoms graced the loops of the dainty veil. The matron of honor and best man were Mr. and Mrs. Fortney, brother-in-law and sister of the groom.

After the ceremony an elaborate wedding breakfast was served at the Yerkes home in Portland. In the afternoon a reception was given the newlyweds at the home of the bride, and in the evening, at the groom's home, a second reception was held in their honor. Their many friends remembered them with gifts of china, silver and pieces of fine linen.

Mr. and Mrs. Yerkes have gone to housekeeping in their cozy furnished apartments in Portland.

CHILDREN START FIRE BARN AND CONTENTS GO

Fire on the John Palmquist farm southeast of Gresham yesterday destroyed a barn with its contents, consisting of 12 tons of hay, a ton of oats, part of it rolled, two tons of baled straw, a wagon, buggy and some farm machinery. Three horses were barely saved from the fire by Mr. Palmquist, who was near by when the fire started. There was no insurance.

The contents of the barn belonged to two Japanese renters, who were absent in Portland. The women were in the field at work. The fire was started by children playing in the barn with matches.

MT. HOOD COUNCIL GIVES SOCIAL DANCE

A social dance will be given by Mt. Hood Council K. & L. of S. at Masonic hall on Thursday evening, September 25. Good music has been engaged and the management promises an enjoyable time. Competition for a prize for the best waltz will be a feature of the evening.

Industrial Club Locals.

Miss Ethel Calkins left today for Salem to look after the club exhibits at the state fair.
The Rockwood sewing team who won out in county contest left this morning for Salem where they will put on the same demonstration. The Lynch cooking team goes at the same time for the purpose of demonstrating cake making. They won over the Gilbert boys' team by two points.

William Hornecker accompanied the Lynch stock judging team to the capital. They will be entertained at the boys' camp until Wednesday. Monday morning the team judged stock at the state fair. Results are not yet known.

The special prize of $10 for the best booth was given the Terry- Troutdale-Fairview booth.
The members of the fair board were so proud of the club children's showing that they chartered a car to ship the boys' and girls' livestock to Salem.

The Powell Valley canning team won over the other canning teams at Gresham. The team, Lilly Nelson, Etta Anderson and Amy Gustafson with their leader, Mrs. Gentry, will leave for Salem tomorrow where the girls will represent Multnomah county clubs in a canning contest with other counties. The winners at the state fair will compete for northwest honors at Spokane.

OUR LIBRARY

The Library is preparing an industrial directory of Southeastern Multnomah County. If you are a dressmaker, nurse, plumber, merchant or any trade or profession, see that your name is recorded. Names of market gardeners, live stock breeders and owners of registered farms are also wanted.

The state library is again requesting records of men who have seen military service. This is a permanent war record for the state or Oregon. The schools, libraries and the American Legion are cooperating in gathering the information.

A number of teachers dropped into the library for a cup of tea after the club parade Monday. Among the guests were County Superintendent and Mrs. Alderson.

The children are most interested in the doll exhibit. More than one little girl has wanted to buy her favorite, Andrew the Scot, is popular with the little girls, and everyone likes the Russian baby.

Geo. H. Hines was a visitor Pioneer day. Some interesting stories of the Oregon country always come to light during a conversation with Mr. Hines. This time he wrote a copy of General Sheridan's famous jargon telegram to Senator Nesmith.

A new collection of Swedish books has been received this week.

B. W. Thomas has closed a deal for the Mrs. Emma Gilmore property on the southwest corner of Main and Fifth streets, Gresham, paying $1600 for same.

ANNUAL BANQUET IS NEW FEATURE OF FAIR

It has been heard over and over again, until almost threadbare, that the fair in Gresham was the largest one on record. The various departments contained entries, in number surpassing other years. New features added, enlarged the scope of the county exhibit. Generous patronage due to the attractive things on display, ideal weather, and other drawing cards swelled the gate receipts to satisfactory proportions.

Another innovation launched this year was the Friday evening's banquet given in the cafeteria dining room, attended by the directors of the fair department, superintendents, and representatives of the exhibitors, the newspapers and the horse racers.

C. D. Minton, successful manager of the fair, proved equally successful as host at the banquet. In his good-natured way, he introduced a scheme by which the ice of formality was soon broken and everyone chatted away in lively fashion. Snatches of talk one could overhear were indicative of the kind of folks present—pet phrases from Holstein breeders, the speed of Tillamook Maid, the sleepless nights of the hard working force, back of the fair, how to plow and when, the superiority of Essex sheep—thoroughly mixed with all sorts of nonsense.

After the elegant spread, impromptu toasts were given. The "persuasive ability," as a lady in attendance called that characteristic of Mr. Minton's to get folks to come his way, was never more evident than in the manner in which he got everyone he called on to respond. Every speech radiated good nature, optimism, a desire to co-operation. No "knockers" were there.

The whole affair was a pleasant one and will unquestionably become one of the fixed institutions of other fairs in the future.

POWELL VALLEY MAN PASSES AWAY FRIDAY

C. P. Johnson died at his home in Powell Valley, Friday, September 19 at 10:45 in the morning after a long illness. He was 74 years of age. He leaves a widow and one daughter, Mrs. Bert Olsen of that place who has cared for him during his sickness. Also one sister, Mrs. N. P. Carlson of Kansas City, Kansas and a brother, Oscar Johnson, of San Diego, California. The funeral will be held from the Swedish Lutheran church on Wednesday, September 24th at 2 o'clock. Interment in Douglas cemetery.

He who has his own home on his own land seldom carries no I. W. W. card.—Ben Worsley.
