

SIMPLEX UNIVERSAL

Use Wood, Coal or Gas in the
Simplex Universal Combination Range

It is three ranges in one and so simple and safe that a child can operate it.

It requires only the space of your kitchen range. Sale price includes connecting up to your hot water tank and gas, also stove pipe connection with your chimney.

See the new gas kindler which starts the wood or coal fire without the use of kindlings. We will accept your old range as part payment on a new Simplex Universal.

GRESHAM LOCALS

Mrs. Geo. Leslie says that some miscreant cut down half of her weeping-willow while she was on the fair grounds last week.

Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Allen, of Portland, visited Mrs. Allen's sister, Mrs. Gleason, and family on Friday.

The W. C. T. U. will hold a business meeting at the library Thursday afternoon at 2:30. Everyone is urged to attend as the reports of the delegates to the county convention will be read.

Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Hall report that their 10-months-old son, Stanley R., scored 100 per cent in a recent eugenics test. Mr. and Mrs. Hall are receiving the congratulations of their many friends.

Mrs. Dan Wright had as guests for a few days last week their daughter, Mrs. Arthur Calaghan and children of Seaside. Their daughter, Mrs. Herbert Horton and children of Worthington, Minnesota, who have spent two months visiting here, have returned to their home.

Mrs. Harry Truitt left Saturday for Garfield, Washington, where Mr. Truitt is employed, for a two weeks' visit. They will attend the Pendleton Round-Up.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Fieldhouse expect to move about the first of next month to St. Helens, Oregon, where Mr. Fieldhouse will have charge of a Ford agency. Mrs. Fieldhouse's mother, Mrs. Clara Miller, will accompany them and will be bookkeeper for Mr. Fieldhouse.

W. C. Burch has returned from his summer's work near Hemlock, Washington, where he was watchman on Lookout mountain for the forestry service.

Sgt. Roy McCarter, until recently a member of the 74th Infantry, returned yesterday from the service. He has been at training camps in the east during his service in the army, his regiment being used for the drilling of recruits.

"Everybody happy?" "I'll say so." There was no hesitation as to the answer when the Outlook reporter called up Mrs. W. R. Gibbs this morning. The reason was the arrival of her son, Dewey, from nearly two years' service overseas. He was a member of the "Old Third Oregon," and was with the army of occupation in Germany. Dewey was accompanied by his friend, Roy Robinson, of Marshfield, recently discharged from service in the medical corps.

Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Kern entertained at dinner Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Minton, A. F. Miller and the Roy Kern family.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Thom and children arrived one day last week from North Dakota, where they had spent the summer. They are living temporarily in the house on Hood avenue occupied by Mrs. Ella Oliphant.

PLEASANT HOME

G. T. Murray is enjoying a vacation visiting with friends in Bellingham, Washington.

I. B. Denney and family are living temporarily in the basement of the Baptist church during the erection of their new home. Mr. Denney has sold two residences recently.

Keefer & Murdock are busily engaged in hauling wood. They are keeping three trucks engaged.

Mrs. Berl McKinney is suffering from inflammatory rheumatism. Clifford Hillyard and Eva Carpenter were married at Vancouver, Wn., last Saturday.

Rev. A. J. Ware has tendered his resignation as pastor of the Baptist church. He will preach his farewell sermon next Sunday.

George Hale is visiting friends in New York. The Hales are enjoying a new Ford.

For a Weak Stomach.

The great relief afforded by Chamberlain's Tablets in a multitude of cases has fully proven the great value of this preparation for a weak stomach and impaired digestion. In many cases this relief has become permanent and the sufferers have been completely restored to health.—Adv.

THE UNIVERSAL CAR

Look out when having your Ford car repaired that the genuine Ford parts or materials are used. There are many "bogus" imitations, or counterfeit, so-called Ford parts of sadly inferior quality on the market. Be warned against them.

No Bogus Ford Parts Here

Buy Ford parts and have your Ford car repaired by the authorized Ford dealer as this is the only way to guard against "bogus" parts. Bring your car to us for service. Come to us for Ford parts. Ours is an authorized Ford place.
