The Theodore Roosevelt Memorial.

There is to be a Roosevelt Memorial erected in Washington, which will take its place with the Washington monument and the Lincoln Memorial. The opportunity will be offered next month beginning October 20th. This is not essentially a drive for money, in fact it isn't a drive at all. It's rather an opportunity offered to the people of the country to express their appreciation of Theodore Roosevelt in some tangible material way.

A delegate to the state meeting of the Roosevelt Memorial committee, Judge R. R. Butler, of The Dalles, expressed the idea when he told of a "Flower for Mirabeau." It seems that when the great French statesman, lay on his death bed in Paris he asked his nurse to go down on the street and pick a flower.

She went down and made known her errand to a few people in the street. "A flower for Mirabeau, a flower for Mirabeau!" The cry went up from one side of Paris to the other and by nightfall, as the great man lay breathing his last, the room was filled with little white flowers growing wild in Paris at that time brought by the thousands who loved, and respected this man who had lived would undoubtedly have prevented the French revolution.

A flower for Roosevelt, that was the idea of the speaker and it seems to us to express peculiarly well the sentiment surrounding this Roosevelt Memorial campaign.

The Multnomah county quota for the Roosevelt Memorial fund is $21,000. Clackamas county's portion is $570.

The newspaper men, publisher, editor, reporter—are just as much public servants as are the men in the government service themselves. The influence of publicity is mighty and far-reaching in shaping the destiny of a people.—Theodore Roosevelt.

A haircut in Aberdeen, Washington costs 65 cents and 10 cents additional for a neck shave. A legitimate excuse for men looking like our antediluvian forefathers.

"We run with the torches until we fall," said Theodore Roosevelt, "content if we can then pass them on to hands of other runners."

The horse that paws around in pride too often proves a fizzle, while Dobbin with his steady stride goes on through sleet and drizzle.—Walt Mason.

Wise men are instructed by reason; men of less understanding by experience; the most ignorant by necessity, and beasts by nature.—Cicero.

No man ever did a designed injury to another without doing a greater to himself.—Hume.

The greatest men have been those who have cut their way to success through difficulties.—Robertson.

It is not desirable to be one of those men who possess almost all gifts except the gift of the power to use them.—Kingsley.

Concentration is the surrender of one's self to one definite aim.—Cottogham.

A STAGGERING ASSERTION

EARLY NEWSPAPER SHOWN AT LIBRARY

At the town library are on display four replicas of early newspapers in this country.

One is the Pennsylvania Journal and Weekly Advertiser, dated Thursday, October 31, 1765—nearly 154 years ago. The Stamp Act went into effect the next day, and rather than pay the tax, the Journal quit. In this issue William Bradford the editor announced that on the morrow the tax becomes obligatory and "that the Publisher of this Paper is unable to bear the Burden, has thought it expedient to stop a while, in order to deliberate whether any Method can be found to elude the chains forged for us, and escape the insupportable slavery," etc. And then asks his subscribers to pay up their subscriptions so that he will have something to support himself during the interval until he proceeds again with the paper. A stirring editorial on Liberty follows. The colonists are referred to as "free born Britons" and he says "It is the Privilege of Britons to speak Truth with impunity, and even to fear no Danger from speculative Error whether in Religion or Politics."

It has been said that the ringing of the Liberty Bell, some ten years later, did not arouse Philadelphia half as much as did the pep of this edition of the Journal, distributed the day before the Stamp Act became operative.

The "news" in it came by boat from London. The latest is dated August 21, some as early as July 17. The first issue of the first successful penny paper, The Sun, bears the date, September 3, 1833. It promises "all the news of the day"—which is nowhere to be found on that sheet. It contains instead, a few uninteresting paragraphs told in a wishy-washy manner. Yet this paper opened a new era. Hitherto only the rich were subscribers to the six penny papers. The "penny trash," as the others called The Sun, created a sensation because of its low price and its desire to circulate among the mass of the people. In comparison with the big dailies of today, it seems very insignificant.

Another interesting copy to be seen at the library is Dec. 11, 1861, issue of The New York Times. It shows the early attempts at cartooning, and the art of mud slinging as quite well developed.

The Vicksburg Citizen is a reminder of the Civil War. Grant's forces were keeping all supplies out of Vicksburg. The newspaper's stock of white paper was exhausted. It met the situation by using the blank side of wall paper. A reproduction of the July 2, 1863 wall paper edition of the Vicksburg Citizen is on exhibit at the library.

FAIRVIEW LADIES' AID PLAN ENTERTAINMENT

The Ladies' Aid society of Smith Memorial church of Fairview are planning for an entertainment to be given Friday evening, October 17, at the schoolhouse of District No. 8, Terry.

Preparations for an elaborate program consisting of dramatic readings, vocal and instrumental solos and other entertaining features are being made. A full program will be published later.

The Rev. Seeley Boudnot, superintendent of home missions of the Portland Presbytery, will conduct services at the Smith Memorial Presbyterian church next Sunday, October 12, at 11 o'clock. Everybody plan to be there in time for the Bible school at 10 o'clock.

Plans are being made for holding a community social at No. 8 schoolhouse next Friday evening, October 16. The Women's society of the Fairview church has the matter in charge. The program and other features will be advertised in Tuesday's Outlook.

The Davis store property at Fairview, including buildings; lot and mercantile stock, has been sold to O. P. Cady of Newburg, who has arrived with his family and has taken possession. Mr. Davis is planning to move to Seaside.

WHY THE ELECTRIC CLEANER?

There is really no comparison between the ease and thoroughness with which an Electric Cleaner removed dirt and the difficulty of sweeping. True, one CAN clean rugs and carpets without an electric cleaner. A broom or carpet sweeper will brush up SOME of the dirt; and if you like the exercise and have plenty of time and strength a broom and a carpet beater will do the work after a fashion. In the same way one can wash without soap. Water alone will remove some dirt if applied with enough "elbow grease." But people use soap because it cleans more easily and better than water alone. For the same reason people use Electric Cleaners because they clean more easily and far better than other methods.
