

BE PREPARED

Fall rains and winds are coming! There's some piece of machinery, automobile, or perchance some young stock that needs shelter from the elements.

A FEW DOLLARS invested in making SHEDS, or a GARAGE, as the case may be, WILL PAY YOU MANY FOLD BEFORE SPRING, if only from a humanitarian standpoint.

GRESHAM LOCALS

Mrs. W. F. Honey, Miss Florence Honey and Miss Mildred St. Clair attended the Abby Whiteside piano recital at the Multnomah hotel, last Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Lebeaupin, of Portland, spent the week-end with Mrs. Nora Withrow. Two years ago, Mr. Lebeaupin was called to serve the French government. He was assigned duty at Salonika, Greece as private secretary for a French commander at that port. On July 12th last, Mrs. Lebeaupin left for Europe to meet her husband and visit his relatives at Nantes. They arrived in the United States about three weeks ago.

Margaret St. Clair spent the week-end in Portland with her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie St. Clair. She returned Sunday on the jitney—all by herself.

A piece of jerked venison was presented the Outlook force today, a substantial proof that hunting is good in the region near Roseburg. Mayor Kenney returned last evening with M. M. Squire and Bill Dahlquist. The rest of the party, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Burch, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Burch and William Thom, were considering a few days hunting near Eugene, but may arrive home this evening. The six hunters landed five deer—a good record for one week.

Monday being Harvey Columbus Metzger's birthday, A Myers declared a bank holiday. Mr. Myers says he remembers well the singular coincidence of the discovery of America and Harvey Metzger both on the same day.

Mrs. Ralph Virgil of Portland was a visitor at the W. F. Honey home.

Mrs. Carl Dahl's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walker of Grass Valley have been visiting in Gresham. Her brother, Vernon Walker, arrived Saturday evening from California where he received his discharge after two years' service in Siberia.

Ed. Osburn is serving on the October jury.

Mike Allshouse, mechanic at Baker's garage, was called to Seattle by the accidental death of his cousin, Mr. Allshouse is expected back this evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Shattuck returned to their home in Vancouver, yesterday. They have been up at Welches where they were lucky enough to get a deer.

Miss Inez Halliday and the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Peterson have been visiting the J. C. Peterson and Glen Davidson family.

C. R. Vesper and wife have been the guests for a few days of Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Carlson. They took a drive last week over the highway with the Carlsons and were charmed with the beauties of the scenery. The brilliant coloring of the foliage add wonderfully to the pleasures of the trip. The party went into the White Salmon and Hood River valleys.

Dinner guests at the James Lawrence home on Friday evening were Grandma Johnson, Miss Winnifred Osborne and Mrs. Ella Oliphant. Mrs. Lawrence is much improved in health.

Miss Bessie Hale of Pleasant Home is enjoying a visit with relatives in Denver, Colorado.

Rev. R. E. Myers and family arrived yesterday from Newberg with their household goods and are getting settled in the Methodist Episcopal parsonage. They will be given a reception at the church on Friday evening of this week, when all members and friends of the church are invited to be present and greet them. People recently moving into the community are especially invited.

H. E. Davis was in Gresham one day last week on business. Mr. Davis and family have moved to Brooks, Oregon, where he has the management of the M. L. Jones farm of 1300 acres. Miss Laura Davis has recently undergone an operation on her throat for the removal of her tonsils.

Rev. F. J. Carlson, well known in this vicinity as an evangelist, has taken up for the present the pastorate of the Baptist churches of Gresham and Pleasant Home. He spent the summer with his people in Blackfoot, Idaho and also made a trip to his former home in Stromburg, Nebraska. He will be pleased to greet old friends and make new ones at the services.

Bronchial Trouble.
Mrs. A. E. Sidenberder, Rockfield, Ind., states: "For an attack of bronchial trouble which usually assails me in the spring I find Chamberlain's Cough Remedy the only thing that gives me relief. After using it for a few days all signs of bronchial trouble disappears."—Adv
