MRS. HAGBERG GIVEN BIRTHDAY SURPRISE

Four years ago, the ladies of Powell Valley gave Mrs. Karl J. Hagberg a surprise that she did not get over for many a month. Monday afternoon they gave her another surprise that she will probably never get over. They remembered that October 29 was Mrs. Hagberg's birthday. Two of them telephoned that they would drive over to spend the afternoon. When they came they brought with them a whole parade of automobiles filled with neighbors and friends.

When refreshment time approached, bundles and hampers were brought to light, containing all sorts of tasty cookery that Powell Valley cooks are famous for.

Mrs. Hagberg was also presented with a birthday gift, a beautiful linen table cloth, a priceless gift these days.

Bronchial Trouble.

Mrs. A. E. Sidenberder, Rockfield, Ind., states: "For an attack of bronchial trouble which usually assails me in the spring I find Chamberlain's Cough Remedy the only thing that gives me relief. After using it for a few days all signs of bronchial trouble disappears."—Adv.

Card of Thanks.

We wish to extend our sincere thanks to Gresham lodge No. 152 A. F. and A. M. and other friends for floral offerings extended to us upon the death of our beloved brother Richard Emerson.

MRS. W. K. HAMILTON
MRS. GEO. MOFFITT
MRS. J. H. EGAN.

Sincere Gratitude.

Mrs. William Bell, Logansport, Ind., writes: "I deem it my duty to express my gratitude for the good Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy did me when I had a severe attack of diarrhoea three years ago. It was the only medicine that relieved me."—Adv.

KELSO

A petition to put before the voters of Clackamas county, bonding the county for paved roads is being circulated this week. In this vicinity the proposed road for pavement is between Boring and Sandy.

The Roosevelt Memorial campaign is on this week for a fund to erect a national memorial at Washington, D. C., and maintain a public park at Oyster Bay, New York. The quota for this district is only five dollars ($5.00) and the association desires that numerous people subscribe small amounts. The names of all who subscribe will be placed in the national memorial when erected. Leave subscriptions with Mrs. Robert Jonsrud, before October 27th.

Road Supervisor Littlepage of road District 6 has finished graveling the mud hole on the Oregon City road and also the road near Peterson's corner where the plank was taken out.

The Jonsrud-Gunderson sawmill 2 1/2 miles south of Kelso is making good progress and will be in operation about the first of the year.

Jerger brothers are busy filling silos with their equipment.

Frank Canning and family from Montana are with the home folks this winter to assist on the farm.

The Misses Canning drive their machine every day to and from their respective schools in Portland and at Lynch and their home out here.

Lewis Jerger and Joe Decker recently received their honorable discharge, the former from the navy service and the latter from the army. Both are happy to be with their home folks again.

Geo. McBride, of Portland, is working in R. Jonsrud's blacksmith shop.

R. E. Jari and Walter Alt started on a hunting trip to southern Oregon Tuesday morning.

Marvin Dickenson is finishing a clearing contract for R. Jonsrud.

Mrs. Ed. Johnson will go to Seattle in a few days to make a home there. Mr. Johnson will join her as soon as he is through at his mill. Their daughter Luella, has been employed in Seattle for the past year.

POWELL VALLEY

The following services have been announced for the Swedish Mission church by the pastor, Rev. Wm. Hawkinson: Young peoples' meeting on Saturday evening as usual. Sunday school on Sunday morning at 10 o'clock and preaching by the pastor in the evening at 8 o'clock, new time. All are invited.

COTTRELL

A big day is anticipated at the Cottrell community church next Sunday. The Sunday school will meet at 10 o'clock and at 11 District Elder J. A. Hopper will preach. There will be preaching also at 3 o'clock and a basket dinner at noon. Special singing will be furnished by Mr. and Mrs. McPhee of Portland in these services. The Gresham Free Methodist church will discontinue all services for that day and join with the Cottrell church in making this a most helpful and inspiring occasion. All are invited.

PLEASANT HOME

Rev. E. A. Leonard will preach at the Baptist church next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. A cordial invitation is extended to all to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. John Eggiman are prepared to move from the Erz farm, where they have been for the past four years, to the Martin Lennartz place, known as the Fir Grove farm. Mr. Eggiman will engage in the dairy business and among other improvements is installing a milking machine.

Rev. Earl B. Cotton will preach at the Methodist church next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock, sun time. The pastor will take for his subject "Purged of Dead Works."

TROUTDALE

Sunday school will meet at 10:30 o'clock a. m. and preaching service at 7:30 in the evening. Both these hours will conform to the change of time.

Don't forget the Halloween social in the basement of the church next Friday evening, October 31. Everybody is invited. No admission will be charged but a nominal sum will be asked for refreshments.

LUSTED

Quite a few from this vicinity have gone hunting down on the coast near Alsea Bay. Among them are Ralph Neibauer and son Irvin, Oscar Carlson, E. N. Hamilton and Nelson Jackson.

Mr. and Mrs. Scott Ballard, of Bridal Veil, visited H. M. Hamilton and family last Sunday.

Miss Beulah Pitney, of Portland, visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Lent last Sunday.

Alfred Whitesides and Miss Seewale, of Portland, visited the former's uncle, E. D. Hamilton and family, last Sunday.

Jack Eggiman, who has been on the Erz farm several years, is busy these days moving onto the M. Lennartz farm south of Pleasant Home.

PLEASANT VALLEY

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Robinson, of Portland, accompanied by their son, Milton Robinson, of Eugene, were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Will Richey last Sunday.

J. F. Wing, of Lents, was in the valley on business one day during this week.

J. H. Nolte transacted business in Gresham on Tuesday.

G. H. Richey was a Portland visitor Thursday.

Mrs. Jas. Purcell, of Portland, was out Wednesday looking after their farm.
