GRESHAM LOCALS

Mrs. M. Dhulst was a guest of Mrs. Charles Murphy at Eagle Creek near Estacada, this week.

Mrs. W. R. Burke left for an extended visit to San Francisco, last Wednesday. Yesterday, Mr. Burke sold their bungalow on Powell street to B. H. Buzick from South Dakota who will take possession Monday. The town will be glad to know that Mr. Burke will continue in his jewelry business in Gresham.

Tomorrow evening at 7 o'clock the Red Cross ladies will serve a supper to ex-service men, at grange hall.

Mrs. H. C. Mattison, of Portland, was a guest of Miss Emma Johnson last evening.

W. A. Inglis, manager of the Baker garage in Estacada has purchased a cottage there and will soon move his family to make their home in Estacada.

The Kehrl Bros. of Beaverton have purchased the Ed. Schwedler farm. The Schwedlers will remain on the place until the first of March when the new owner will take possession.

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Ward and son, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Evans and Mr. Waffle from Portland were visitors on Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Walters at their Gresham Heights Farm. Nearly two dozen "hikers" wandered over the butte during the day. Mr. and Mrs. Eling with their young sons were also callers at the farm.

Frances Willard day was observed this morning. Mrs. Fred Honey and Mrs. E. A. Leonard of the local W. C. T. U. and Principal Goodwin spoke to the assembly. Patriotic songs were sung by the students and special music under the direction of Prof. Tom Taylor was also rendered.

Fred Shelley has sold his residence property at Springdale to Mrs. Glenora Babbitt. Mr. and Mrs. Shelley have bought the 30-acre farm of Gottlieb Fudicar on the Powell Valley road a mile and a half east of Gresham. Mrs. Shelly, who is the sister of Mr. Fudicar, will provide a home for Charles and Irene Fudicar during an extended absence of their father.

Mrs. P. Barger and children left this week for Hood River to join Mr. Barger, who is in the plumbing business at that place.

Miss Georgina Hamlin surprised her friends last Tuesday by going to Vancouver, Washington, where she was married to Allen Tiller of Troutdale. Mr. and Mrs. Tiller will make their home in Troutdale for the present.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Gray of Portland were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Howitt. Mrs. Gray will be remembered as Miss Pearl Fleming, formerly of this place. She has been for some time a nurse in a California army hospital, where Mr. Gray was sent for treatment of a badly wounded ankle. The acquaintance formed there culminated in the marriage of the two a few weeks ago.

Miss Ethel Calkins has returned from a brief trip to Manzanita, which she calls the best beach on the coast. Miss Calkins is enjoying a well-earned rest after the strenuous work of the year as county industrial club leader.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Yerkes, of Portland, were callers on Wednesday evening at the home of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Raney.

High School Notes.

This morning was election of officers at Union high. Nominations had been made a week previous and names of nominees conspicuously advertised on the bulletin board. By the Australian ballot system the following senate officers were elected: president, Emmett Welling; vice-president, Lewis Skirvin; secretary, Marian Hagberg; treasurer, Melvin Struger; sergeant-at-arms, Edward Strong; reporter, Joe Peak.

The assembly officers elected are: president, Curtis Hendricks; vice-president, Adolph Zenger; clerk, Lucile McCarter; treasurer, Edward Schwedler; sergeant-at-arms, Richard Satterstrom; reporter, Cora Johnson.

By virtue of the above elections, the Student Body officers are: president, Emmett Welling of Terry district; vice-president, Curtis Hendricks of Lynch; secretary, Marian Hagberg of Powell Valley; treasurer, Edward Schwedler of Gresham; sergeants-at-arms, Richard Satterstrom of Orient and Edward Strong of Gresham; reporter, Joe Peak; assistant reporter, Cora Johnson.

MRS. S. B. JOHNSON ENTERTAINED W. C. T. U.

Mrs. S. B. Johnson, assisted by Mrs. B. W. Emery, Mrs. M. E. Gilmore and Mrs. C. J. Lundquist entertained the W. C. T. U. at the home of Mrs. Johnson, Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. Ed. Aylsworth and Miss Mary Hansen rendered two very pleasing songs. Miss Doris Zimmerman's piano solo, "Woodland Echoes," was greatly enjoyed.

A most interesting report of the W. C. T. U. convention held at Ashland was given by Mrs. Mary Mallet, Multnomah county delegate. In addition she gave accounts of incidents witnessed while serving with the juvenile court in Portland, conditions which the speaker said were most appalling. The interruption in the work of the W. C. T. U. due to the extraordinary demands of Red Cross during the past few years are now over, giving time for these other problems at home which are so urgently calling for solution. Mrs. Mallet said that now, more than any other time in our life time, does the world need the help of the W. C. T. U.—a time for renewed efforts and greater works.

Door Bells Made to Work Permanently Battery Expense Eliminated

Install a 3-Way Bell Ringing Transformer and have no further trouble with your door bell.

How often have you been told someone called and you were not at home, when the trouble was the door bell batteries were dead.

Things to be considered in buying a 3-Way Transformer. It is absolutely fool-proof and may be short circuited without impairing its efficiency. Is passed by the National Board of Fire Underwriters, therefore will not increase your insurance rates, and is absolutely safe. Is very reasonable in price considering the quality, safety, convenience and service it gives.

Guaranteed forever against wear. Points you will not find in a cheaper transformer. Sold and installed by
